#8 MICHIGAN 51, COLORADO STATE 7

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- The No. 8-ranked University of Michigan football team started the 2022 campaign clicking on all cylinders, jumping ahead early and rolling to a 51-7 romp of Colorado State at Michigan Stadium.

The Wolverines totaled 440 total yards of offense on the day (234 rushing, 206 passing), while holding the Rams to just 205 total yards.

Michigan lifted the lid on the scoring for the 2022 season with a 61-yard pass and catch from Cade McNamara to Roman Wilson at the 9:49 mark of the first quarter and never looked back. The Wolverines went on to score 37 consecutive points.

U-M added on to its early lead thanks to three Jake Moody field goals from 31, 26 and 34-yards, respectively, and a seven-yard touchdown run from Blake Corum. The Wolverines went into halftime with a commanding 23-0 lead.

Michigan continued its dominant defensive effort on the first drive of the third quarter, as Mike Morris forced a fumble and DJ Turner returned it for a 45-yard touchdown to push the lead to 30-0.

U-M's ground game controlled action throughout the contest with four of the Wolverines' touchdowns coming on the ground. Corum's first-half touchdown was added to by a 20-yard J.J. McCarthy scamper in the third quarter, while scores from Donovan Edwards and Alex Orji from within the 10-yard line in the fourth put the exclamation mark on the day's performance.

Despite surrendering a touchdown in the final quarter, the Michigan defense did not allow the Rams' offense to enter the red zone in the contest. As a unit, the defense finished with seven sacks, 11 tackles for loss, a fumble recovery and an interception, with Junior Colson leading the Wolverines with 10 total tackles. Michael Barrett added six tackles and a sack, while two of Mike Morris's three tackles were for a loss to go along with a forced fumble.

McNamara finished the game as the Wolverines' leading passer, throwing for 136 yards and a touchdown. Alan Bowman threw for 40 and McCarthy 30. Corum was the game's leading rusher with 76 yards, while Edwards added 64 yards on 13 carries, McCarthy tacked on 50 yards on just three carries, and CJ Stokes added 35 yards on six carries.

The Wolverines had 15 receivers record at least one catch during the contest, with Wilson, Cornelius Johnson and Colston Loveland hauling in two passes each to lead the way. Wilson's 61-yard catch in the first quarter contributed to his team-leading 65 yards on the day.

Post-Game Notes

• LB Kalel Mullings earned his first collegiate start, while CB Mike Sainristil, who previously started nine games at wide receiver, earned his first start on defense at the nickel position.
• Michigan had four different ball carriers score a rushing touchdown – Corum, Edwards, McCarthy, Orji – for the time since Oct. 24, 2020, against Minnesota.
• Michigan's seven sacks were its most since similarly recording seven last year at Penn State (Nov. 13, 2021).
• DJ Turner posted a 45-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown in the third quarter. It was Michigan's first fumble recovery for a touchdown since Noah Furbush (zero yards) in 2017 and the fifth longest in program history. The record was 83 yards, shared by Leon Hall (Northwestern, 2005) and Courtney Avery (Minnesota, 2011). It was also Turner's second career touchdown; he previously returned an interception 42 yards for a touchdown last season at Maryland.
• Sainsristil registered his first career sack – and first TFL – for a loss of two yards in the first quarter.
• Rod Moore recorded his first career interception, returning it for 37 yards, in the first quarter.
• Junior Colson led the Wolverines with a career-high 10 tackles, including five solo tackles. His previous best was eight last season against Indiana.
• After hitting three field goals today, Jake Moody has converted 12 straight attempts dating back to last season. Only Remy Hamilton (14), Kenny Allen (15) and Brendan Gibbons (16) have longer streaks.

#4 MICHIGAN 56, HAWAII 10

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- The No. 4-ranked University of Michigan football team rolled up 588 yards of total offense in an all-around dominant display against Hawai'i on Saturday (Sept. 10). In front of a game-night crowd of 110,012 at Michigan Stadium, the Wolverines routed the Rainbow Warriors 56-10 to improve to 2-0 on the campaign.

Quarterback J.J. McCarthy completed 92-percent (11-of-12) of his passes for 229 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Michigan offense, while Hawai'i native Roman Wilson provided an offensive punch to the tune of two touchdowns, one receiving and one rushing, and 63 all-purpose yards.

The Wolverine's rushing game, led by Blake Corum's 88 yards, provided the offensive punch with 320 yards and five touchdowns. Joining Corum and Wilson with touchdowns were CJ Stokes, Donovan Edwards and Isaiah Gash. The TDs were the first of Stokes and Gash's careers.

Michigan's aerial attack was similarly effective, finishing with 268 yards and three scores. Ronnie Bell led all receivers with six receptions for 74 yards and added his first touchdown catch of the season in the second quarter. Cornelius Johnson was the only other Wolverine with more than one catch in the game, hauling in two for 71 yards, including a 17-yard touchdown catch.

After the U-M defense forced a three-and-out to start the game, the Wolverines scored on their second play from scrimmage as McCarthy connected with Wilson for a 66-yard strike. Michigan turned its next two offensive possessions into touchdowns as well, and the rout was on.

The Wolverines went into the locker room at half leading 42-0 and with a 410-47 advantage in total yards. The defense was stifling all game, as 18 of the Maize and Blue recorded multiple tackles, with R.J. Moten and Caden Kolesar leading the way with four apiece. Senior edge rusher Mike Morris recorded the first sack of his career in the second quarter, and Braiden McGregor recorded the team's other tackle for loss.

In total, Michigan outgained Hawai'i 588 to 253 in the contest and had a 23-13 advantage in first downs. The Wolverines saw third down just six times in the game, while the Rainbow Warriors went just 7-of-19 when facing third down. U-M averaged 10.7 yards per offensive play and held Hawai'i to just 3.7.

Post-Game Notes

• Following multiple lightning delays, the Wolverines and Rainbow Warriors kicked off at 9:01 p.m. local time. That is the latest kickoff time for a game in Michigan Stadium history, surpassing the 2017 contest against Minnesota that kicked at 8:31 p.m.

• Michigan is now 4-0 all-time in matchups with Hawaii, and 2-0 under head coach Jim Harbaugh (2016). U-M also improved to 18-0 in non-conference home games under Harbaugh.

• With tonight's win, the Wolverines have compiled a 10-2 record in night games at Michigan Stadium.

• U-M scored 42 first-half points, its most since scoring 43 points in the first half against Rutgers (Oct. 8, 2016).

• The last time U-M had five different ball carriers score a touchdown was Oct. 8, 2016 against Rutgers (Higdon, Hill, Isaac, Peppers, Henderson). Corum, Stokes, Gash, Edwards, and Wilson found pay dirt against the Rainbow Warriors; for Gash, it was his first career score.

• The offense posted 410 total yards in the first half. The last U-M team to record 400 yards in the first half was the 2012 squad, which registered 425 yards in the first half against Massachusetts. The 410 first-half yards rank as the fifth-most in program history.

• Ronnie Bell's 13-yard touchdown was his first score since a 76-yard touchdown in last year's season opener against Western Michigan (Sept. 4, 2021).

#4 MICHIGAN 59, CONNECTICUT 0

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- The No. 4-ranked University of Michigan football team closed out its non-conference schedule with an emphatic 59-0 victory over UConn on Saturday (Sept. 17) at Michigan Stadium.

Michigan's shutout is its first since defeating Rutgers 52-0 in the 2019 campaign. It marked another dominant performance from the defense, which allowed just 110 total yards after coming into this week ranked 13th in the country in total defense (236 yards per game).

The Wolverines thoroughly controlled all facets of the contest on the afternoon, as the offense totaled 467 yards overall -- 273 in the air and 192 on the ground. In addition to the defense's dominance, the special teams unit scored its first touchdown of the season thanks to a 61-yard first half punt return by A.J. Henning.

It took just 2:01 for the Wolverines to open the game's scoring, as a 20-yard rushing touchdown from Blake Corum capped a four-play, 72-yard opening drive. Corum's run served as a harbinger of things to come, as the junior went on to score a career-high five touchdowns, adding three scores from a yard out and a second-half scamper from the 11-yard line.

U-M had 10 receivers haul in catches in the game, with senior Ronnie Bell leading the way with seven receptions and 96 yards. In addition to his punt return touchdown, Henning tied a career best with three catches and set a career-high with 37 yards. Roman Wilson once again proved to be the Wolverines' deep threat, recording 64 yards on three receptions.

A U-M and Big Ten record eight quarterbacks saw action against the Huskies, with J.J. McCarthy leading the Wolverines with 214 yards and completing 15 of 18 attempts. Alan Bowman completed his only pass attempt for a 20-yard touchdown, registering his first touchdown pass in a Michigan uniform.

The defense was once again a total-unit effort, as Junior Colson and Kris Jenkins led 10 Wolverines with multi-tackle performances, both finishing with five. Sophomore lineman George Rooks secured the Maize and Blue's fumble recovery in the first half, falling on the ball at the UConn 25-yard line and setting up Jake Moody's lone field goal of the day.

Senior Leon Franklin gave the Wolverines a 59-0 lead with a 20-yard touchdown reception from Bowman for the first score of his career. Freshman quarterback Alex Orji scored the second touchdown of the season on a run from 10 yards out.

Corum became just the second Wolverine to score four first-half rushing touchdowns (Ed Shuttlesworth vs. Minnesota, 1972) and the third to score five times in a game (Ron Johnson vs. Wisconsin, 1968 and Hassan Haskins vs. Ohio State, 2021). The junior has scored a rushing touchdown in each game this season and leads Michigan with seven touchdowns.

Post-Game Notes

- The Wolverines have secured victory with a margin of 40-plus points in each of the first three games (51-7, 56-10, 59-0). The last time Michigan won three straight games with a scoring margin of 40 points or more was during the 1991 season, when it beat Minnesota, 52-6, Purdue, 42-0, and Northwestern, 59-14.
- Michigan's 59-0 victory marks the eighth-greatest margin of victory in U-M history and the greatest margin of victory since 2016. Also, marks Michigan's first shutout since 2019 against Rutgers.
- In each of U-M's first three games to start the season, the opponent has failed to score in the first half.
- A.J. Henning scored his first career punt return touchdown from 61 yards. U-M last returned a punt for a touchdown when Donovan Peoples-Jones did against Nebraska (Sept. 22, 2018).
- Henning, who returned a kickoff for a score against Maryland last year, is the fourth player in Michigan history with a TD via kick and punt return in his career (Steve Breaston, Desmond Howard, Dave Raimey).
- Before today, the last time Michigan blocked a punt and returned a different punt for a touchdown in the same game was September 22, 2018 against Nebraska.

#4 MICHIGAN 34, MARYLAND 27

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- The No. 4-ranked University of Michigan football team scored eight seconds into the game and iced it with a 17-point fourth quarter en route to 34-27 homecoming win over Maryland in its Big Ten Conference opener on Saturday (Sept. 24) at Michigan Stadium.

The Wolverines totaled 463 total yards of offense (243 rushing, 220 passing), the fourth consecutive game in which they have gone for 400 yards or more.

Junior running back Blake Corum recorded career highs with 30 carries and 243 rushing yards and scored two rushing touchdowns. Just a week removed from tying a program record with five touchdowns, Corum's rushing yards place him seventh among U-M's all-time leaders.

Sophomore quarterback J.J. McCarthy went 18-of-26 passing for 220 yards and two scores. Senior tight end Luke Schoonmaker and graduate-student wide receiver Ronnie Bell led the Wolverines with 72 yards, and Schoonmaker added a TD. Wide receiver Roman Wilson recorded a fourth-quarter touchdown.

Michigan (4-0, 1-0 Big Ten) scored just eight seconds into the game when the opening kickoff bounced off the Terrapin returner's facemask and was recovered by Michigan on the 10-yard line. McCarthy connected with Schoonmaker in the end zone on the next play for a 10-yard touchdown -- the latter's first of the season.

The teams traded long field goals, with Maryland (3-1, 0-1 Big Ten) hitting from 53 yards -- the first points allowed by Michigan in the first half this season -- and graduate-student kicker Jake Moody answering with a 52-yarder to tie his career long, before the Terrapins surged ahead to take a 13-10 lead early in the second quarter.

Maryland's touchdown drive (13 plays, 75 yards) followed a Michigan fumble on the Terrapin 27 and ended with a two-yard scoring run to tie the game, while kicker Chad Ryland hit a 52-yard field goal -- his second in the half over 50 yards -- to give the Terps the lead.

Michigan retook the lead with just 22 seconds remaining in the half on a 33-yard Corum rushing touchdown on fourth-and-1.

After a scoreless third quarter, action escalated with 31 combined points in the fourth.

Wilson scored on a 20-yard catch on the second play of the quarter -- his third receiving touchdown and fourth overall of the season -- to widen the Michigan lead, but Maryland responded with a lengthy touchdown drive, going 75 yards on 10 plays on its next possession – though failed on its two-point conversion.

The Wolverines appeared to have the game in hand after Moody hit a 38-yard field goal and Corum scored his second touchdown on a 47-yard run -- his ninth touchdown of the season – following senior cornerback R.J. Moten's interception.

Maryland answered again with an 18-yard touchdown catch and two-point conversion to pull within seven points. The Terrapins attempted an onside kick, but Michigan recovered and took a knee on two plays to close out the game.

Post-Game Notes

• Blake Corum extended his rushing touchdown streak to four games this season and has nine touchdowns on the year.
• Corum is the first U-M running back to rush for over 200 yards since Karan Higdon (Wisconsin, 2017) and has the most rushing yards in a game since Denard Robinson posted 258 yards in 2010 against Notre Dame. He ranks seventh among Michigan's all-time leaders in single-game rushing yards.
• Luke Schoonmaker recorded his first touchdown of the 2022 season and the fourth receiving TD of his career. Schoonmaker achieved career highs in receptions (7) and receiving yards (72) in the game.
• D.J. Turner's interception in the second quarter was the third of his career and second against Maryland.
• Junior Colson led the team with a career-high 13 stops. His previous best was 12 last year at Penn State.
• Jake Moody converted 2-of-3 field goals today. Moody moved to fourth among Michigan's all-time field-goal leaders with 46 in his career. Only Garrett Rivas (64), Remy Hamilton (63), and Mike Gillette (57) have more career field goals.

#4 MICHIGAN 27, IOWA 14

IOWA CITY, Iowa -- The No. 4-ranked University of Michigan football team jumped out to a first-half lead and held strong, topping Iowa 27-14 in its first road test of the season on Saturday (Oct. 1) at Iowa's Kinnick Stadium.

The Wolverines' top-ranked scoring offense was well-balanced on the afternoon, registering 327 total yards (155 passing, 172 rushing), and dominated the Hawkeyes on the ground allowing just 35 yards. That total also marked the first time U-M has held an opponent under 50 yards on the ground since Wisconsin (Oct. 2, 2021 - 43 yards). It also was the third game this season that the Michigan defense held a team under 100 yards on the ground.

Michigan's 27 points were the most the Hawkeyes' top-ranked defense had allowed this season after entering the contest allowing 5.8 points per game.

Junior Blake Corum was a catalyst for the offense once again, leading Michigan with 133 rushing yards and a touchdown, his 10th of the season. Sophomore J.J. McCarthy threw for 155 yards and a touchdown, completing 18-of-24 passes on the afternoon, while Luke Schoonmaker, Roman Wilson and Donovan Edwards each hauled in four receptions.

Though Iowa (3-2, 1-1 Big Ten) scored two touchdowns, the Wolverines defense came through in the clutch to stop Iowa's fourth-quarter rally. In all, Michigan finished with four sacks and six tackles for loss. Senior Mike Morris led the way with a career-best two sacks and season-high three total tackles.

U-M moved the ball with ease on the game's opening drive, marching 75 yards to open the scoring for the day. Receiver Ronnie Bell took an end-around to the end zone for a 16-yard score, the first rushing touchdown of his career. With that touchdown, the Wolverines became the first team to score on the ground this year against Iowa.

Michigan (5-0, 2-0 Big Ten) scored on three of its four first-half drives, as kicker Jake Moody drove home field goals of 44 and 35 yards, respectively, to help the Wolverines build a 13-0 halftime advantage.

After the defense started the second half with a three-and-out, Michigan used a heavy dose of Corum to rumble down the field. McCarthy tallied his lone passing touchdown from 12 yards out when he connected with Edwards to cap a 10-play, 67-yard drive.

After three consecutive three-and-outs from the offense, Corum put the game on ice with a 20-yard touchdown with just 1:19 remaining in the contest. The score gave Corum a touchdown in each game of the 2022 campaign.

The win was Michigan's first in Iowa City since its 23-20 overtime victory in the 2005 season.

Post-Game Notes

- Across its last 10 Big Ten opponents, only Michigan and Nebraska (Nov. 26, 2021) have registered rushing touchdowns on their first respective drives against the Hawkeyes.
- All three of Michigan 's first-half scoring drives were among the five longest scoring drives this season (13 plays, 13 plays, 11 plays). The team has completed two separate 14-play scoring drives this year, both against Colorado State, along with several more 11-play scoring drives.
- Blake Corum was just the second back to record 100 yards rushing against Iowa this season (Jihrel Brock, 100 yards, Iowa State). It marked Corum 's sixth career day with 100-plus rushing yards and his second in a row.
- The 13 points U-M scored in the first half represent the most allowed by Iowa in the first half this season. No other team had reached first-half scoring in the double digits.
- Mike Morris had a pair of sacks and now owns the outright lead of the team's top position (4.0). He also leads the team with 6.0 tackles for loss.
- U-M held Iowa to 35 yards rushing. It was the first opponent U-M has held under 50 yards on the ground since Wisconsin (Oct. 2, 2021) was limited to 43 yards. It also marked the third game out of five this season that saw the U-M defense hold its opposition under 100 yards on the ground.

#4 MICHIGAN 31, INDIANA 10

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. -- The No. 4-ranked University of Michigan football team won its second Big Ten road contest of the year, dispatching of the Indiana Hoosiers 31-10 behind three touchdown passes from J.J. McCarthy and a shutdown defensive effort.

The Wolverines (6-0, 3-0 Big Ten) used three second-half touchdowns, while the defense forced Indiana (3-3, 1-2 Big Ten) to punt on all five of its second half possessions to lock up its sixth victory of the season.

Michigan totaled 469 yards of offense (304 passing, 165 rushing), the fifth consecutive game in which it has gone for 400 yards or more.

McCarthy went 28-for-36 passing for 304 yards and three scores. Junior running back Blake Corum had a team-best 124 yards rushing on 25 carries and one touchdown, while Ronnie Bell led the Wolverines with 121 receiving yards and Cornelius Johnson caught a pair of TD passes to go with 58 yards receiving.

The U-M defense stifled Indiana's tempo offense to the tune of seven sacks and 10 tackles for loss. Michigan allowed the home team 222 total yards for the game, but was especially impressive in the second half -- giving up just 29 yards to the Hoosiers (40 passing, -11 rushing). Michael Barrett and Junior Colson tallied seven tackles and one sack each, whole Rod Moore had six tackles and one interception.

Michigan opened the game on offense and used a 50-yard run from Corum to get to the one-yard line before he drove the ball into the end zone on the ensuing play to give the Wolverines a 7-0 lead on their opening drive. Indiana responded with a touchdown of its own on its second possession before U-M used a 44-yard field goal from Jake Moody to take a 10-7 advantage at the end of the first quarter.

The Hoosiers looked to take the lead on touchdown pass early in the second quarter, but a review resulted in a Hoosiers offensive pass interference call and IU was forced to settle for a 41-yard field goal. The Michigan defense stepped up as Moore intercepted a Connor Bazelak pass with 9:54 left in the first half. The pick was the second of the season for Moore.

The game remained deadlocked at 10 heading into the halftime break after Mike Morris blocked an Indiana field goal attempt with 3:17 left in the second quarter, and the U-M defense stopped the Hoosiers on their own 45-yard line in their final possession of the first half.

U-M took possession of the ball on its own two-yard line with 12:16 left on the third-quarter clock, and marched 98 yards on 11 plays, capped off a with a McCarthy 29-yard pass completion to Johnson, who juked his defender and dove into the end zone. The Wolverines led 17-10 heading into the final 15 minutes of play.

The Michigan offense added two final touchdowns -- a nine-yard pass from McCarthy to Luke Schoonmaker and a six-yard McCarthy hookup with Johnson -- to its tally to seal the victory.

Post-Game Notes

- The Wolverines are 6-0 in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1976-77.
- Michigan's opening-possession touchdown marked the fifth time in six games this year that U-M has scored on its first chance with the ball.
- The Wolverine defense forced Indiana to punt on its first five possessions of the second-half before forcing a turnover on downs with under two minutes to play.
- Michigan outgained Indiana in the second half by a margin of 263-29 yards.
- In total, U-M defenders produced 10 TFLs and seven sacks. It was U-M's second game this year with at least 9.0 TFLs and 6.0 sacks (Colorado State).
- U-M blocked a second-quarter field goal try from the Hoosiers. The last Wolverine to knock down a field goal try was Donovan Jeter (vs. Western Michigan, 2021).
- McCarthy threw his first career interception in today's game, ending a streak of 129 consecutive pass attempts by McCarthy without an interception. That had been the Big Ten's longest streak of consecutive passes without an interception.
- After going 2-for-7 on third down in the first half, the Wolverines posted a 5-for-6 third-down conversion mark in the second half.
- The Wolverines came out of the locker room with a 98-yard scoring drive on their first possession of the second half. It was the third scoring drive of 90-plus yards for the Wolverines this seasons.

#5 MICHIGAN 41, PENN STATE 17

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- The No. 4-ranked University of Michigan football team used a second-half surge, scoring 25 unanswered points highlighted by long touchdown runs in the third quarter from Donovan Edwards and Blake Corum, to earn a decisive 41-17 win against No. 10 Penn State on Saturday (Oct. 15) at Michigan Stadium. It was the Wolverines' first win over a ranked opponent this season and improved their record to a perfect 7-0.

Edwards and Corum combined for 339 rushing yards and four touchdowns. Edwards posted career highs in every category, rushing for 173 yards -- his first career 100-yard game -- and two touchdowns on 16 carries, while Corum carried the ball 28 times for 166 yards and two touchdowns. It was his fourth 100-yard game this season and the eighth of his career. He now has 13 touchdowns on the year after entering the game ranked second nationally in the category.

Quarterback J.J. McCarthy completed 17-of-24 passes for 145 yards -- just his second game this season without a passing touchdown – while Jake Moody went 4-for-4 on field goals for his season high, kicking three in the first half and adding another in the fourth quarter.

Following a back-and-forth first half that saw U-M ahead 16-14, Penn State used a 27-yard field goal to retake a 17-16 lead early in the second before Michigan dominated the remainder of the game. Edwards and Corum keyed the surge with 60-plus yard touchdown runs in the third quarter.

Edwards went 67 yards into the end zone -- a career long -- and Michigan completed the two-point conversion to go up 24-17 and take the lead for good. The Wolverines earned a stop on fourth down on their own 39 on the next PSU drive, and Corum broke off a 61-yard touchdown run on the next play.

Moody nailed a 37-yarder early in the fourth quarter for his longest field goal of the game before Edwards added his second touchdown with a three-yard rush -- contributing the final 45 yards of the drive -- with 5:03 to play to close out the game's scoring.

Michigan also was dominant early, holding Penn State to just nine total yards through the first quarter and a half while building a 13-0 lead on a pair of short Moody field goals -- for 29 and 24 yards, respectively -- and a one-yard touchdown run from Corum that capped a 13-play, 70-yard drive early in the second quarter.

However, Penn State used a pair of big plays less than two minutes apart to steal the lead. The Nittany Lions answered the Wolverines' long touchdown drive with one of their own, going 75 yards on seven plays, including a 62-yard quarterback keeper on third-and-one before a one-yard touchdown rush. Five plays later, PSU intercepted a pass by McCarthy -- just his second interception this season -- and returned it 47 yards for the go-ahead touchdown.

The teams traded the lead with short field goals on either side of halftime. Moody was good from 23 yards to give U-M a 16-14 edge with two seconds left in the first half before PSU opened scoring in the second with the 27-yarder for its final points of the contest.

Post-Game Notes

- U-M did not punt in today's game, while forcing three punts from Penn State and three turnovers on downs.
- Michigan's offense had 41:56 minutes of possession while Penn State had the ball for 18:04 minutes. This 23:42 minute time of possession differential is the largest of any game this season for the Wolverines.
- Michigan limited Penn State to 83 yards of total offense in the first half. U-M has held five of seven opponents this year under 100 yards in the first half.
- Penn State did not convert a first down until 8:05 remaining in the second quarter, which is the longest an opponent has been held without a first down in a game this season. U-M moved the chains 18 times to PSU's one before the break.
- The last game to feature two different Michigan ball-carriers scoring touchdowns of 60-plus yards came Nov. 4, 2017 against Minnesota when Karan Higdon (77 yards) and Chris Evans (60 yards) scored long touchdown runs.
- The Wolverine's 418 total rushing yards on 55 carries is the first time the offense has rushed for over 400 yards since 2016 (vs. Rutgers, 481 yards).

#4 MICHIGAN 29, MICHIGAN STATE 7

ANN ARBOR, MICH. -- Graduate student kicker Jake Moody connected on five field goals, junior running back Blake Corum added a pair of touchdowns and the defense did not allow a point after the first quarter as the No. 4-ranked University of Michigan football team reclaimed the Paul Bunyan Trophy with a 29-7 win over rival Michigan State on Saturday (Oct. 29) at Michigan Stadium.

Moody converted 5-of-5 field goals, including a career-long 54-yarder in the fourth quarter. With 17 total points, he was just two shy of his career-best 19 and one field goal shy of his own program-record six.

Corum carried the ball 33 times for 177 rushing yards and a touchdown -- and added one receiving score. It was his fifth straight 100-yard rushing game as he eclipsed 1,000 yards on the season (1,078) for first time in career. He has scored at least one touchdown in every game this season.

Leading 13-7 at halftime, Michigan (8-0, 5-0 Big Ten) surged ahead in the second half, adding 16 points while holding the Spartans to just 63 total yards, including -18 rushing yards, and three first downs. In all, the Wolverines limited Michigan State to 37 yards on the ground -- the third time in four games that U-M has held an opponent to fewer than 40 rushing yards.

Michigan alternated Moody field goals with Michigan State (3-5, 1-4 Big Ten) three-and-outs through the third quarter and into the fourth. The kicker hit from 39 and 33 yards in the third stanza before nailing the 54-yarder early in the fourth -- his career long by two yards.

Corum added his second touchdown of the game after MSU mishandled the snap on a punt deep inside its own territory and turned the ball over on downs at its eight-yard line; Corum ran four yards into the end zone to up his season total to 15 touchdowns, 14 rushing.

Sophomore safety Rod Moore iced the game with an interception on the Michigan seven-yard line and returned it 34 yards -- after MSU drove 49 yards on eight plays -- with under six minutes left in the game.

The teams exchanged the lead in the first half. Michigan, after fumbling on its first possession, earned a fourth-down stop at midfield to set up Moody's first field goal, a 22-yarder, for the first points of the game. The Spartans scored on their next possession, going 75 yards on six plays and capping the drive with a 26-yard touchdown pass to take a 7-3 lead.

Michigan answered on with a lengthy touchdown drive of its own -- eight plays, 80 yards -- to retake the lead for good on sophomore quarterback J.J. McCarthy 's two-yard shovel pass to Corum -- the latter's second career receiving touchdown. Senior tight end Luke Schoonmaker used a pair of catches to contribute 42 yards to the drive; Schoonmaker finished with the game with five catches and 70 yards -- two shy of his career best. McCarthy completed 15 of 25 passes for 167 yards and the touchdown to Corum.

Moody added another short field goal after a Michigan fourth-down stop in the red zone late in the half, making good from 25 yards to extend the lead to 13-7 at halftime.

Post-Game Notes

- Today's game marked the 600th in the history of Michigan Stadium and the 450th victory at the venue
- In 115 meetings between the Wolverines and Spartans, U-M improved to 72-38-5 all-time including a 39-29-2 mark since the two teams began playing for the Paul Bunyan Trophy in 1953. This marked the 70th playing of the Paul Bunyan Trophy.
- Michigan has begun the season with an 8-0 mark for the second time under coach Jim Harbaugh (2016). It's the third time since 1997 that U-M has started the season with an 8-0 record (2006, 2016).
- The offensive line did not allow a sack against the Spartans. This is the second time this year that the opponent has not registered a sack (Indiana, Oct. 18).
- Ronnie Bell extended his streak of consecutive games with a catch to 21. Bell caught four balls for 53 yards.
- Makari Paige set a new career-high with six total tackles, including three solo stops.
- Junior Colson led the team with 10 total tackles, including one TFL. This marks the third time Colson has registered over 10 total tackles in a game this season.
- The Spartans finished the game with 37 rushing yards on 23 attempts. MSU is U-M's third opponent in the last four weeks to be held under 50 rushing yards.

#4 MICHIGAN 52, RUTGERS 17

PISCATAWAY, N.J. -- Despite trailing at halftime for the first time this season, the No. 4-ranked University of Michigan football team erupted in the second half thanks to a big assist from its defense to beat another Big Ten East opponent on Saturday (Nov. 12) with a 52-17 victory over Rutgers at SHI Stadium.

The Wolverines scored three touchdowns in a span of 1:42 to reverse their fortunes in the second half, turning a three-point halftime deficit into a 17-point advantage. The turnaround was sparked by the defense and specifically fifth-year linebacker Mike Barrett, who corralled two interceptions on back-to-back Rutgers plays, highlighted by a 31-yard pick-six. The interceptions and the touchdown were both the first of Barrett's career.

U-M's defense continued to shine in the third quarter, as freshman cornerback Will Johnson earned his first career interception to set up a short field for the Wolverines. Just three plays later, J.J. McCarthy found Cornelius Johnson in the back of the end zone for Michigan's fourth touchdown of the quarter, and the Wolverines never looked back.

Michigan's running game was once again commanding, rushing for 282 total yards and four touchdowns, with Blake Corum and Donovan Edwards each leading the way with 109 yards. The defensive unit allowed just 14 Rutgers rushing yards for the game and set a new season-high for takeaways with three in addition to three sacks.

Corum continued his push for Heisman Trophy candidacy with a two-touchdown, 109-yard performance. With his two scores in the game, Corum now leads the FBS with 16 touchdowns on the campaign.

Even though Edwards did the majority of his damage on the ground, the sophomore provided electricity as a receiver as well hauling in three catches for 52 yards and a touchdown. His three receptions tied Johnson for the team-high, while Ronnie Bell added two receptions for 43 yards.

Michigan's offense out-gained Rutgers 433-180 and dominated the time of possession, 37:41-22:19. In addition to their 282 ground yards, McCarthy finished with 151 passing yards and a pair of touchdowns, as well as a rushing score.

Defensive back Mike Sainristil led the Wolverines with five total tackles and picked up a half-sack, while defensive end Mike Morris once again led the defense with 1.5 sacks and finished with two total tackles.

The final Wolverine score of the contest came from junior running back Isaiah Gash, who tallied his second rushing touchdown of the season from four yards out.

Post-Game Notes:
• Blake Corum is the first back in the modern statistical era (since 1949) to have at least 25 carries and 120 yards in six consecutive games.
• The offense was efficient in the red zone, with six touchdowns and one field gaol on seven possessions.
• After limiting Rutgers to 14 yards on the ground, U-M has kept four of its last five opponents below 50 yards rushing. The Scarlet Knights had just one rushing yard at the half.
• Michigan held Rutgers to 57 yards on 27 plays in the second half.
• The Wolverines are outscoring teams 84-6 in the third quarter so far this year including today's 28-0 surge.
• Barrett recorded U-M's first pick-six since D.J. Turner against Maryland in 2021. Barrett had a 31-yard interception returned for a touchdown. He's the first Wolverine with multiple interceptions in a single game since Delano Hill against Maryland (2016). That gave U-M 21 points in 1:42 of game action.
• J.J. McCarthy recorded his second rushing touchdown of the season and first since week one against Colorado State near the end of the first quarter.
• Donovan Edwards' 14-yard touchdown reception at 8:24 in the third quarter was his second touchdown catch of the year, and the third of his career.
• Michigan recorded over 200 yards rushing for the sixth time this season in nine games.
• Kicker Jake Moody became the fifth player in Michigan history to reach 300 career points with his third-quarter extra point (his third of the game). Moody trails only Garrett Rivas (354 points) for the most points by any kicker in Michigan history.

#3 MICHIGAN 34, NEBRASKA 3

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- The No. 3-ranked University of Michigan football team reached the 10-0 mark for the first time since 2006, battling the elements in a 34-3 win over Nebraska at Michigan Stadium. The win marked Jim Harbaugh's 50th Big Ten win at Michigan and the 100th FBS win of his coaching career.

Michigan put points on the board on three of its first five possessions, grabbing an early lead and never looking back. Running back Blake Corum continued his push for Heisman Trophy candidacy, hitting the 100-yard rushing mark in the first half and finishing with 162 yards with one score. Michigan dominated in the run game, going for 264 yards behind Corum and a career-best 68 yards from C.J. Stokes.

The defense was overwhelming, limiting Nebraska to just three points and pitching another second-half shutout. U-M yielded just 146 yards of total offense to the Huskers, with Nebraska reaching the red zone just one time. Nebraska crossed midfield only twice in the contest, coming on its opening drive -- when the Huskers converted a 37-yard field goal at the 4:10 mark of the second quarter.

Michigan hit the halftime break with a 17-3 lead behind touchdowns from Corum and Ronnie Bell, along with a Jake Moody 30-yard field goal before time expired in the second quarter. Michigan forced Nebraska into three consecutive three-and-outs over the latter stages of the first quarter and beginning of the second quarter, seizing control of the contest.

The Wolverines held the Huskers off the scoreboard in the third quarter, extending their lead to 21-3 after a three-yard touchdown scamper from quarterback J.J. McCarthy, who went 8-for-17 through the air with another two passing touchdowns.

Michigan tacked on another 13 points in the fourth quarter on an Andrel Anthony fumble recovery in the end zone and a 43-yarder from Moody. The Huskers never got past their own 34 in the final period, running Michigan's winning streak to 10 games.

Post-game Notes

• Michigan improved to 7-4-1 in 12 meetings between U-M and Nebraska (three straight victories), including a 5-2 mark in Ann Arbor, and a 3-0 record under head coach Jim Harbaugh.
• The Wolverines have won 14 consecutive home games at Michigan Stadium, the longest active streak in the Big Ten.
• U-M has scored points on its opening possession in eight of 10 games this season, including today. Six of those eight scores have been touchdowns, with four of them coming from Blake Corum.
• Over the last five games, U-M is out-scoring teams 117-3 in the second half.
• Colston Loveland set a new career-long reception by hauling in a 28-yarder during the first half.
• Blake Corum has seven consecutive 100-yard games, the longest streak since Karan Higdon (2018, seven games). Corum's mentor, Mike Hart, had eight straight 100-yard games in 2007.
• Today marked the third time this season that the Wolverines have limited their opponent to eight first downs or less. For the third straight week, U-M kept its opponent to one or fewer first down(s) in the third quarter.
• Jake Moody's first-quarter extra point gave him 100 points for the season. Moody is the third player in Michigan history to record consecutive seasons with 100-plus points, joining Anthony Thomas (1999-2000) and Tom Harmon (1939-40).
• Corum is up to 17 rushing touchdowns on the season, which places him tied for fifth on the all-time single-season rushing touchdowns list at Michigan.
• Corum now ranks 17th in single-season rushing yards, passing former teammate Hassan Haskins, after running for 162 yards against Nebraska. He sits at 1,349 yards for the year.
• Moody (109 points) and Corum (108 points) climbed up to 9th and 10th place, respectively, on the single-season scoring list after today's game.
• Moody is in sole possession of fourth place on Michigan's all-time scoring list. Garrett Rivas (354 points, all-time leader) is the only kicker to have contributed more points to Michigan football.
• C.J. Stokes had a career-high 68 rushing yards vs. Nebraska.

#3 MICHIGAN 19, ILLINOIS 17

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Kicker Jake Moody split the uprights from 34 yards with nine seconds left in the game to help the No. 3-ranked University of Michigan football team survive and complete a perfect home slate with a 19-17 Senior Day victory over Illinois at Michigan Stadium.

Michigan took over on its own 48-yard line with 2:15 remaining in the contest after Moody connected on a 33-yard attempt to bring the score within striking distance at 17-16. The Wolverine defense stood firm and held the Illini offense to a three-and-out, and the offense did enough to get the job done. Quarterback J.J. McCarthy rushed for eight yards and connected on two passes to Cornelius Johnson plus another to Isaiah Gash to set up Moody's heroics in the final minute.

The Wolverines kicker provided the bulk of the scoring on the day, connecting on four field goals from 46, 41, 33 and the game-winner from 35 yards. All four of his field goals came in the second half, and he has now connected on 25 field goals this season.

Despite being limited to just over a half of action, running back Blake Corum continued his push for Heisman Trophy candidacy. The junior put together a well-rounded performance, gaining 108 yards on the ground, 39 yards through the air, and one rushing score.

The Wolverines started the game with a seven-play, 75-yard scoring drive. Corum rushed for 44 yards, averaging 11 yards per carry, and McCarthy went 3-for-3 for 31 yards, connecting with three different receivers.

Though leading only 7-0 after the first quarter, Michigan outgained Illinois 147-22 overall in the opening stanza. The two teams turned in an old-fashioned slugfest the rest of the way, as the Wolverines and Illini traded punches until the final whistle.

Michigan limped into halftime with a 7-3 advantage, and the Illini took control of the game in the third quarter, scoring two touchdowns and limiting Michigan to just a field goal. The visitors outgained the Wolverines 132-66 in the quarter, and put together a dominant ground performance, rushing for 75 yards and finding the end zone twice.

The U-M defense tightened up in the fourth quarter, allowing just 54 total yards to Illinois, including a meager 10 ground yards.

McCarthy completed 18 of 34 passes for 208 yards and rushed for 18 more, connecting with seven different receivers. Johnson led the Wolverines with five catches on the day, totaling 38 yards, while freshman tight end Colston Loveland added career highs in receptions (three) and yards (50).

Linebacker Junior Colson led Michigan with six tackles on the day, including four solo and contributing to the team's one tackle for loss. Six Wolverines finished the game with five tackles each, and though allowing 14 points in the third, U-M stepped up to keep the Illini off the board in the fourth quarter.

Post-game Notes:
• Kicker Jake Moody kicked the game-winning 35-yard field with nine seconds remaining in the game. With his game-winning conversion, Moody set the Michigan career field goals made record (65) and tied the season mark of 25 set by Remy Hamilton in 1994.
• Moody connected on four field goals in the contest, hitting from 46, 41, 33 and 35 yards out.
• Quarterback J.J. McCarthy has matched Dennis Franklin (1972) for the most consecutive wins without a loss to begin his career as starting quarterback (10-0).
• U-M has won 15 consecutive home games, the longest active streak in the Big Ten.
• The Wolverines are in the midst of a stretch of 13 consecutive conference wins, matching a streak from 2003-04. It's the program's longest such streak since winning 16 straight conference matchups between 1996-1998.
• U-M has scored points on its opening possession in nine of 11 games with seven touchdowns.
• Over its last six games, U-M has not allowed a point in the fourth quarter.
• Freshman Mason Graham and Will Johnson both set a new career high with each recording four tackles.
• Ronnie Bell's career-long 40-yard punt return helped set up a Michigan field goal in the beginning of the fourth quarter.

#3 MICHIGAN 35, #2 OHIO STATE 31

COLUMBUS, Ohio -- Sophomore quarterback J.J. McCarthy threw for three touchdowns and rushed for another as No. 3 Michigan used a huge second half to defeat rival No. 2 Ohio State 45-23 and capture its second straight Big Ten East title on Saturday at Ohio Stadium. It was U-M's first road win in the series since the 2000 season.

The Wolverines outscored Ohio State 28-3 in the second half and out-rushed the Buckeyes 242-19 after posting just 10 yards on the ground in the first half. In total, Michigan earned 530 yards of offense on the day -- 278 passing, 252 rushing -- and boasted five scoring plays of 45 yards or more.

McCarthy was 12-of-24 passing for 263 yards and tied his career best with three passing touchdowns and carried the ball six times for 27 rushing yards and a touchdown.

Senior wide receiver Cornelius Johnson earned a pair of long touchdown catches in the second quarter, leading the receiving corps with four receptions and a career-high 160 yards, while sophomore running back Donovan Edwards iced the game with two long touchdown runs in the fourth quarter, totaling 216 yards on 22 carries -- both career highs for the sophomore back.

Both teams scored on their opening drives in the first quarter. Ohio State went 81 yards on 12 plays and capped the drive with a four-yard passing touchdown before Michigan answered with a 49-yard field goal from graduate-student kicker Jake Moody -- his third longest of the season. OSU added a late 32-yard field goal to take a 10-3 lead into the second quarter.

Then the fireworks started. The second quarter produced 24 total points and scores on four consecutive possessions over just 3:37 on the clock. Johnson boasted touchdown catches of 69 and 75 yards -- the second and third longest of his career -- while Ohio State kept pace with a field goal and lengthy touchdown pass of its own to retake the lead before halftime.

Johnson's first touchdown successfully converted a third-and-nine for the Wolverines. He broke a tackle at the Michigan 40, stayed on his feet and ran untouched into the end zone to even the score at 10.

Ohio State answered with the 47-yard field goal, but the Wolverines went deep again on their very next offensive play. McCarthy found Johnson wide open on the OSU 30 to complete the 75-yard touchdown pass -- the longest of his collegiate career -- and gave Michigan its first lead of the game, 17-13.

The Buckeyes used a 42-yard touchdown pass on their next possession to take a 20-17 lead into halftime. Michigan received the ball to start the second half and promptly drove it 75 yards on seven plays to retake a 24-20 lead on freshman tight end Colston Loveland's 45-yard touchdown catch on the right sideline -- a career long reception for the rookie and his first collegiate touchdown.

The Wolverines used another lengthy drive, going 80 yards on 15 plays, to extend their lead to 31-20 early in the fourth quarter. The drive, aided by a 15-yard pass from junior linebacker/fullback Kalel Mullings on third-and-one and an OSU pass interference penalty in the end zone on third-and-11, ended with a McCarthy three-yard quarterback touchdown run -- his fourth rushing touchdown this season.

Ohio State broke its second-half scoring drought with a 27-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter, but Michigan responded immediately as Edwards ran for 75 yards down the right sideline for a TD on the next offensive play. The score extended U-M's lead to 38-23 with 7:11 remaining.

After graduate-student edge Taylor Upshaw all but sealed the Michigan victory with an interception -- the first of his collegiate career and the first turnover of the game -- on its own eight-yard line, Edwards added big insurance with an even longer touchdown run, going 85 yards to pad the U-M lead to 45-23. Edwards twice upped his career long in the final quarter; his previous long was 67 yards earlier this season against Penn State.

Michigan added another interception from junior safety Makari Paige -- his first -- to retake possession and wind down the clock.

#2 MICHIGAN 43, PURDUE 22

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. -- The No. 2-ranked University of Michigan football team reached 13 wins for the first time in program history, capturing its second consecutive Big Ten Championship with a 43-22 victory over Purdue at Lucas Oil Stadium on Saturday (Dec. 3).

For the second straight week, the Wolverines flexed their muscles in the second half, overpowering the Boilermakers and holding Purdue to just three field goals while finishing with a 29-9 advantage on the scoreboard over the Big Ten West champion.

Sophomore running back Donovan Edwards did the heavy lifting for the offensive attack, rushing for 185 yards and a touchdown on his way to earning the game's Most Valuable Player honor. Sophomore quarterback J.J. McCarthy cashed in three touchdowns to three different receivers for 161 yards on the night, and graduate student Ronnie Bell led five receivers with five receptions for 67 yards and a touchdown.

McCarthy's connection to his tight ends was strong in the game, connecting with senior Luke Schoonmaker three times for 56 yards, including his third touchdown of the season. Freshman Colston Loveland hauled in his second career touchdown pass as well.

Even though Purdue held the ultimate edge in the total yards column, 456-386, Michigan once again controlled the game on the ground, out-pacing the Boilermakers 225 to 90. The Wolverines scored three rushing touchdowns for the seventh time this season, two of which came on the back of junior linebacker-turned-running back Kalel Mullings.

U-M's defense played a vital role in the Wolverines' second straight Big Ten championship, finishing the game with two interceptions, four sacks and seven total tackles for loss. Freshman cornerback Will Johnson made his presence known in the secondary, snaring both of Michigan's interceptions to stop crucial Purdue drives. Junior edge rusher Jaylen Harrell set a new career high with two sacks to lead the Maize and Blue pass rush, while Junior Colson set a new career-best with 15 total tackles.

Two other Wolverines, Rod Moore and Mike Barrett, claimed double-digit tackles in the contest, with Moore registering 14 total tackles and nine tackles for loss, both career bests. Barrett added 10 total tackles, five solo, and one sack.

Michigan opened the game's scoring with a 25-yard touchdown reception by Loveland, and after Purdue scored 10 points on its next two possessions, the Wolverines struck with their second touchdown of the contest, this time from McCarthy to Schoonmaker from seven yards out. U-M took a slim 14-13 lead into the half, but was ready to roll after halftime adjustments.

The Wolverines struck quickly after receiving the kick to start the second half, going 75 yards on just five plays, highlighted by a 60-yard run by Edwards. Mullings punched in his first career touchdown from a yard out to push U-M's lead to 21-13, and the Wolverines never looked back.

Michigan's defense followed the touchdown by shutting the Boilermakers down in three plays, and the Wolverines wasted no time expanding their lead. McCarthy once again connected with Schoonmaker, this time on a 40-yard completion, and Edwards powered his way to a 27-yard touchdown run on the very next play. When the dust settled, the U-M lead was 28-13.

By the time the final whistle blew, McCarthy had connected with Bell from 17 yards out and Mullings rushed in his second of the night with just 1:22 to go to give the Wolverines the lopsided victory. The win marked the ninth straight win in the Big Ten Championship game for the winner of the Big Ten East.

Michigan now awaits its bid as part of the College Football Playoff semifinal, set to be announced Sunday (Dec. 4) at noon on ESPN. Both semifinal games will be played on New Year's Eve (Dec. 31).

Post-game Notes:

- The Wolverines are Big Ten Champions in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2003-04. The last consecutive conference titles came in 1991-92.
- In 60 all-time meetings with Purdue, U-M has improved to 46-14 overall after today's win. U-M has won five straight games in the series and both games under Jim Harbaugh (2017 and 2022).
- The game was attended by 67,107, marking a sellout at Lucas Oil Stadium. Only last year's Big Ten Championship game was better-attended (67,183).

• The Boilermakers have a penchant for knocking off top-ranked opponents, but U-M is 11-2 in 13 meetings with Purdue when U-M is a top-10 ranked team.
• U-M's 15-game conference win streak is the program's longest since a 16-game conference win streak spanning 1996-98.
• McCarthy has begun his career as a starter with a 12-0 record, setting a new standard for most wins to begin a starting quarterback's career before his first loss. The previous record-holder was Dennis Franklin (1972), who won his first 10 starts before suffering a loss.
• McCarthy matched a career-best mark with three touchdown passes. He also threw a successful two-point conversion.
• The Wolverines averaged nearly 6 yards per carry and out-rushed the Boilermakers, 225-90.
• For the fourth time this season, the Michigan offensive line did not permit a sack.
• U-M's first points of the day came from a 25-yard passing connection between McCarthy and Loveland. It was Loveland's second career touchdown after he caught one at Ohio State last weekend.
• Schoonmaker added a receiving score of his own, and a career-long 40-yard catch later in the game. He also later caught a two-point conversion.
• Edwards recorded a 60-yard carry to begin the second half. It marked Edwards' fifth career run of 50-plus yards and the first that was not a touchdown.
• Edwards went over 100 yards rushing for the fourth time this season and the second week in a row (216 yards at Ohio State).
• Edwards also set a new career-high in carries (25). His previous career-high was 22.
• Mullings' second-quarter touchdown run was the first score of his career and he added a second rushing touchdown with 1:22 to play in the fourth quarter.
• McCarthy was intercepted late in the third quarter, snapping a streak of 148 straight attempts without an interception. It was the longest active streak in the Big Ten.
• Two Wolverine defenders set new career-highs in tackles: Junior Colson (15), Rod Moore (14).
• Four different players combined for four sacks and seven total players combined for seven tackles for a loss on defense.
• Will Johnson made a key interception with the Boilermakers in the red zone with less than 10 minutes left in the third quarter. He then added another with under 10 minutes in the fourth quarter while Purdue was backed up against its own end zone. Johnson has three interceptions since joining the starting lineup at Rutgers.
• Edge rusher Jalen Harrell recorded his first career multi-sack game with 2.0 in the first half.
• No team has reached 150 yards on the ground against Michigan this season.
• U-M has scored points on its opening possession in 11 of 13 games this season (eight touchdowns, three field goals).
• Kicker Jake Moody recorded five PATs today, giving him 58 for the season to break his program record set last season (56).
• Moody's 132 points this year are just six points shy of Desmond Howard (1991, 138 points) for the single-season record for points scored.

#3 TCU 51, #2 MICHIGAN 45

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- The No. 2-ranked University of Michigan football team's magical season came to an end in the College Football Playoff Semifinal Saturday night, falling 51-45 to Texas Christian in a topsy-turvy affair in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl at State Farm Stadium.

The two teams combined for 96 points and 1,012 yards, including a record-breaking 44 points in the third quarter alone. When all was said and done, Michigan (13-1) totaled 528 yards, including 342 through the air.

Two costly turnovers, one in each half, proved to be the ultimate stumbling blocks for the Wolverines. The Horned Frogs returned two interceptions for touchdowns, one in the first quarter and one in the third, and Michigan was never able to fully recover.

Sophomore quarterback J.J. McCarthy completed 20-of-34 passes for 343 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions, while also adding 52 rushing yards and a touchdown on the ground. Fellow sophomore Donovan Edwards added 119 yards in the ground game, while junior Roman Wilson added 18 yards and a touchdown and junior Kalel Mullings punched in a touchdown as well.

Seven different receivers hauled in catches in the contest, with Ronnie Bell and Wilson both eclipsing the century mark. Bell caught six passes for 135 yards and a touchdown, and Wilson grabbed five passes for 104 yards and a score.

Senior kicker Jake Moody provided the first three scores for Michigan in the contest, knocking in a career-long and school-record 59-yard field goal to end the first half, setting a new high for the College Football Playoff as well.

Despite allowing a season-high 51 points, the defense forced three turnovers in the contest. Sophomore Rod Moore tallied a game-high 12 tackles to go along with his fourth interception of the season, while senior cornerback Mike Sainristil hauled in a pick of his own to go along with seven total tackles. Fellow senior Mazi Smith forced and recovered a fumble while tallying three stops in the contest.

The Wolverines nearly pulled off the biggest comeback in the history of the College Football Playoff, erasing a 17-point first-half deficit thanks in part to a 24-point third quarter. Michigan had the ball and a chance to complete the miracle comeback, trailing by six with just under a minute to play. However, the TCU (13-1) defense stood firm and U-M turned the ball over on downs to end its season and title hopes.

Michigan finished the season as Big Ten Conference champions with a final record of 13-1, the first 13-win season in the history of the program.

Post-game Notes:

- J.J. McCarthy set a program record for most wins (12) to begin a quarterback's starting career before his first loss. Dennis Franklin (10 wins before his first loss, 1972) was the prior record-holder.
- McCarthy set a career-high in passing yards (343) in his second career game breaking the 300-yard mark.
- Donovan Edwards went over 100 yards rushing for the fifth time this season and the third game in a row (216 yards at Ohio State and 185 yards vs. Purdue).
- U-M's first points on the day came from a 42-yard field goal by Jake Moody. It was Moody's 16th career field goal of 40-plus yards, adding to his program record.
- That conversion gave Moody 139 points on the 2022 season, breaking Desmond Howard's single-season scoring record (138 points) set in 1991. At game's end, Moody stands at 147.
- Moody also set the career scoring record at U-M. Garrett Rivas was the previous record-holder at 354 points, and Moody finished his career with 355 points.
- Moody added a 59-yard field goal before the half, breaking the record for the longest field goal made in U-M history (previous kick was 57 yards shared by Quinn Nordin and Hayden Epstein). That marked a new Fiesta Bowl record for longest field goal made as well.
- In fact, the only longer field goal made in a bowl game was a 62-yarder, hit in 1977 by Texas A&M's Tony Franklin against Florida in the Sun Bowl.
- Defensive back Makari Paige registered his first career sack near the end of the second quarter.
- U-M made its first end zone trip with 6:32 remaining after McCarthy found Ronnie Bell for a 34-yard hookup off a flea-flicker. It was Bell's fourth receiving touchdown of the season and his fifth overall.

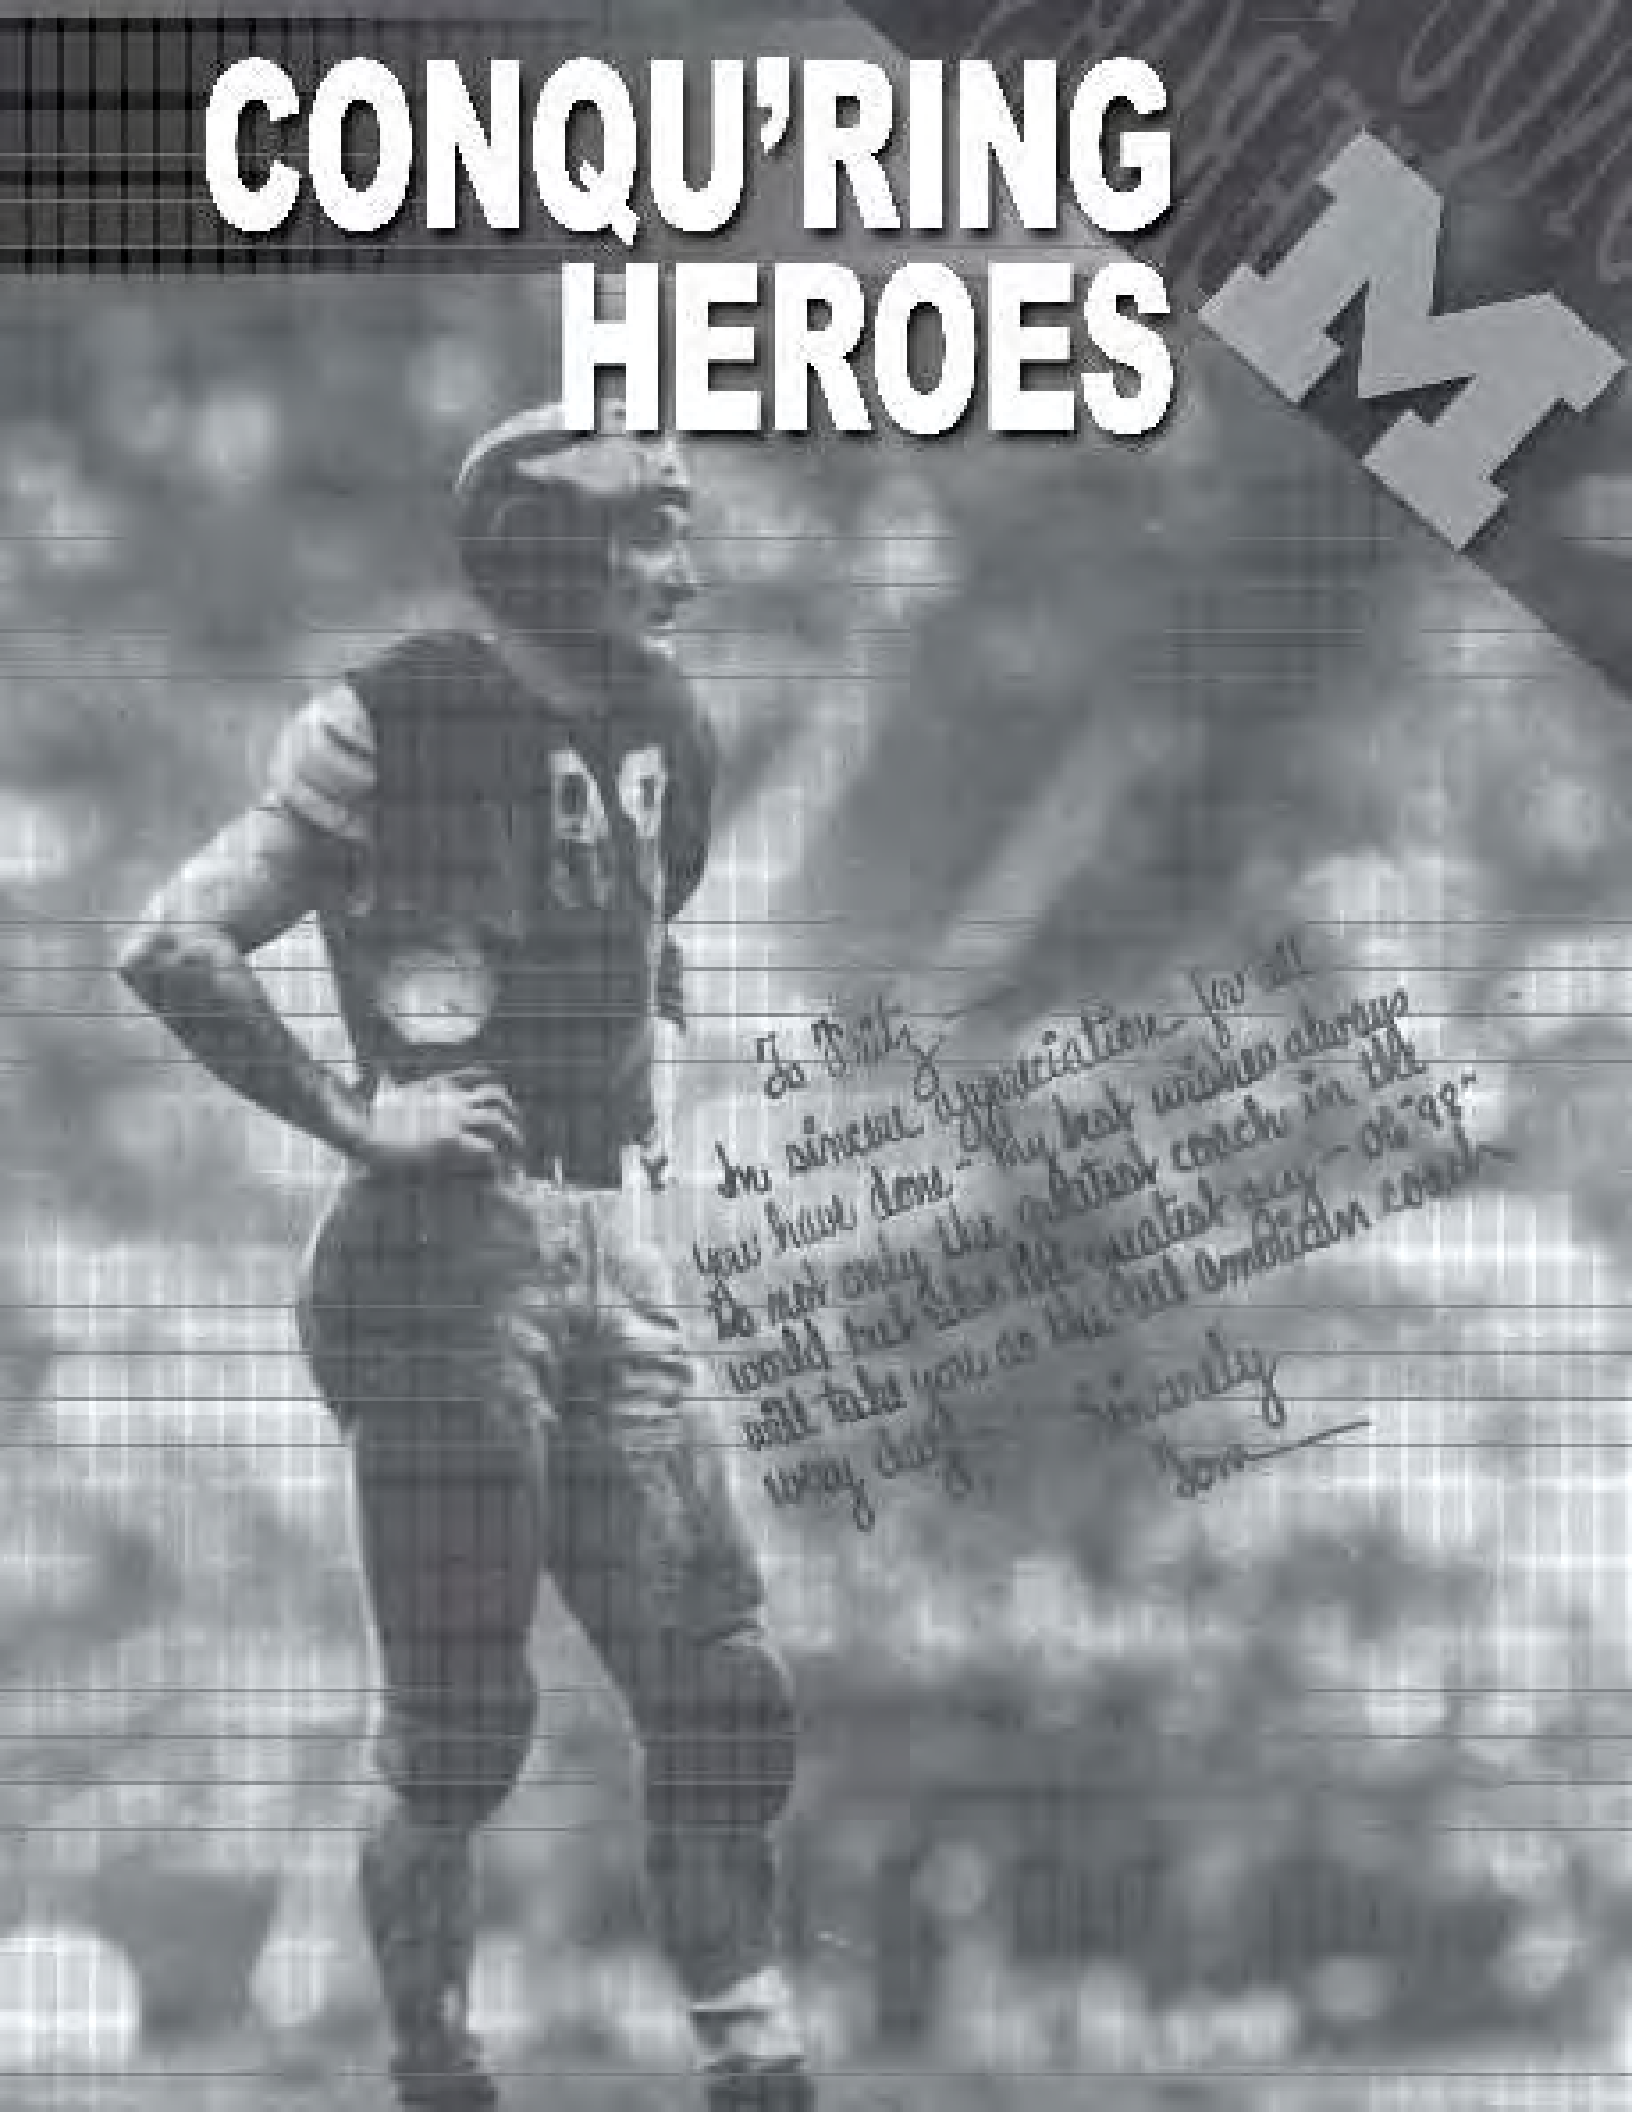
CONQU'RING HEROES



THE HEISMAN TROPHY

The John W. Heisman Trophy has been given to college football's most outstanding player each season since 1935 by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York. The trophy, first known as the D.A.C. trophy was renamed in 1936 for Heisman, the first athletic director for the Downtown Athletic Club. Heisman played football at Penn and Brown and coached for 36 years.

Three Michigan players -- TOM HARMON (1940), DESMOND HOWARD (1991) and CHARLES WOODSON (1997) -- have won the award. Wolverines have placed in the top 12 of the Heisman voting in 27 of the 88 years the trophy has been presented. Three Wolverines -- Harmon in 1939, Bob Chappuis in 1947 and Aidan Hutchinson in 2021 -- have finished second in the voting, while three have finished third: Rob Lytle in 1976, Rick Leach in 1978 and Jim Harbaugh in 1986. Anthony Carter placed among the top 10 in his sophomore, junior and senior seasons, while Harmon, Ron Kramer (1955, '56) and Leach (1977, '78) placed in the top 10 twice in their U-M careers.

Following is a list of Heisman Trophy winners, along with U-M players who placed in the voting:

NATIONAL

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION AND HALL OF FAME SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

Since 1959, the Football Foundation has awarded graduate scholarships to the nation's most outstanding scholar-athletes. In order to be eligible for the award, the recipient must be a senior and in his final year of eligibility. Additionally, he must have shown outstanding football ability, exhibited academic performance, demonstrated outstanding leadership and be a candidate for graduate study, having not yet received his diploma. Nine Wolverines have been honored with this prestigious award.

NCAA POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

The NCAA began awarding postgraduate scholarships following the 1964 football season. Postgraduate scholarship winners must carry a minimum 3.4 (4.0) grade point average and are also evaluated on the basis of athletic achievement, extracurricular activities and community and civic involvement. University of Michigan student-athletes, including 11 football players, have claimed the $5,000 grants since they were first awarded in 1965.

ANNUAL TEAM AWARDS

BO SCHEMBECHLER AWARD

The Michigan Most Valuable Player Award was officially changed to the Bo Schembechler Award starting in the 1995 season with Tshimanga Biakabutuka as the first recipient. Schembechler, the winningest head coach in Michigan football history, led the Wolverines from 1969-89 and served as athletic director from 1988-90. He compiled a record of 194-48-5 and won 13 Big Ten titles during his tenure.

DR. ARTHUR D. ROBINSON SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The death of Dr. Arthur D. Robinson in 1966 stirred his many friends to contribute to a fund which annually rewards the leading senior-scholar on the University of Michigan football team.

Dr. Robinson served the U of M Club of Greater Detroit and his beloved University in just about every capacity imaginable. He was especially interested in "The Club's" scholarship program.

Between 1947 and 1966, the leading athlete-scholar on the Michigan team was given the George Cornell "Bubbles" Patterson Award.

ROBERT P. UFER BEQUEST

This award is presented on behalf of Bob Ufer, the Voice of "Meechigan" football for 37 years. In a U-M career that spanned five decades, Bob broadcast 362 straight games.

During his college career, Bob set eight Michigan track records, including a world record quarter-mile. Bob was also famous for his annual OSU-Michigan pep rallies at the Mud Bowl and was the keynote speaker for President Ford's presidential kickoff rally in 1976.

In fond memory of Bob, this scholarship is awarded to the senior football player who demonstrates the most enthusiasm and love for U-M.

HUGH H. RADER, JR. MEMORIAL AWARD

The award was established in 1982 to perpetuate the fond memory of dedicated alumnus Hugh Rader. It is awarded to the "Best Lineman" as selected each year by his coaches.

Hugh was a past president of "The Club," a past member of the Board in Control of Intercollegiate Athletics, a past Director of the Alumni Association, a Trustee of the Scholarship Fund, and member of the vital Transportation Committee. He was honored in 1979 when he was selected as one of Michigan's "Greatest Fans" by the Football Committee. His consecutive home and away streak of 350 ended in 1980 when he missed the OSU game in Columbus. Hugh also received the rare distinction of being named an Honorary 'M' Club member.

HEAD COACHES' BIOS

MIKE MURPHY and FRANK CRAWFORD

4-5-0 overall

In 1891, Murphy and Crawford became the first official football coaches in the history of the University. Prior to their appointment, the Michigan football program operated for 11 seasons without a coach. An experienced and popular trainer for the Detroit Athletic Club, Murphy was named the actual head coach of the 1891 team. However, midway through the season, Crawford was established as co-coach, doing most of the coaching while Murphy settled into the more appropriate role as the squad's trainer. A graduate student from Yale, Crawford learned football while attending school in the East. Crawford's efforts in contacting other institutions about the possibilities of competing on the gridiron led to the first advance schedule in Michigan history. Prior to this, the school's games were somewhat sudden and occurred with little or no planning.

After his stint at Michigan, Crawford went on to coach the University of Nebraska to a 9-4-1 overall record in 1893 and 1894, and led the University of Texas to a perfect 5-0 record in 1895.

FRANK E. BARBOUR

14-8-0 overall

Michigan's second head coach was an 1892 graduate of Yale University, the national champions during the 1891 season. During his two seasons at the helm, he led Michigan on a then-ambitious 12 and 10 game schedule. Ward's teams scored over 60 points four times and shutout the opponent on eight occasions, including five times during the 1893 season.

WILLIAM L. MCCAULEY

17-2-1 overall

Attending the University as a medical student, McCauley was named Michigan's third head coach prior to the 1894 season. In contrast to today's modern football players, McCauley's first club weighed an average of 170 pounds. In his two seasons at the helm, the Wolverines only lost two contests, falling to eastern powers Cornell and Harvard. Michigan's 12-4 victory over Cornell in 1894 marked the first time in collegiate football history that a western school defeated an established power from the east.

Before coming to Ann Arbor to continue his medical studies, McCauley graduated from Princeton in 1894 and played tackle on the Tigers' championship football team. Before his departure in November of 1896, McCauley assisted William Ward in coaching the 1896 team.

9-1 Overall

Ward led Michigan into its first season in conference play, and the Wolverines emerged with a successful 2-1 record in the league. Like his predecessor, Ward had also graduated from Princeton and came out to Michigan after receiving his diploma in 1895. During the season, Ward's team only allowed 11 points and dropped only a 7-6 game to Chicago in the season finale in the Chicago Coliseum.

24-3-1 overall

Due to a move by the student-alumni advisory board (of which he was a member) to have only former students as coaches of the football team, Ferbert replaced William Ward in 1897. Ferbert was an 1897 Michigan graduate and would lead the team to its first Big Ten title in 1898.

LANGDON "BIFF" LEA

7-2-1 overall

A Princeton graduate, Lea coached a successful season at Michigan in 1900, and then returned to assist his alma mater. Lea established a set of strict rules for his team at Michigan, which he posted on the wall of the gymnasium before tryouts. One such stipulation was, "The word 'can't' is not in the football vocabulary. Any man feeling that way about any part of the game in detail is not wanted on the field and will please stay away. Only those wanted who say 'I will' with teeth together and who never stop fighting. Otherwise they go off the field."

Lea was also head coach at Princeton from 1938-42. He later went to Maine and served as head of the AFCA in 1947.

FIELDING H. YOST

165-29-10 overall

In his 25 years as head coach of the Wolverines, Yost's accomplishments rank among the most legendary in collegiate football history. Beginning with his inaugural club of 1901, Yost led the Michigan football program on an unprecedented victory run over a five-year period. Known as the "Point-a-Minute" teams, those Yost-led squads played 56 consecutive games without a loss from 1901-05, including winning streaks of 29 and 26 games, which remain today as the longest in school history. In those five seasons, the Wolverines outscored their opponents 2,821 to 42—an average Michigan victory of 50-1. In his first season of 1901, Yost led the Wolverines to a perfect 10-0 record, a Big Ten Championship, a 49-0 victory over Stanford in the first Rose Bowl game and the school's first national championship. The Wolverines went on to win the national title again in 1902, 1903 and 1904. Under Yost, the Maize and Blue won 10 Big Ten championships and 20 of his players earned All-America recognition.

Along with his accomplishments as the head football coach, Yost served as Michigan's Director of Athletics from 1921-41. For his leadership of the athletic department, Yost is viewed by many as the consummate pioneer and visionary of the field. As athletic director, Yost continued Michigan's tradition of accepting only the highest personal, academic and athletic standards, while spreading that ideal to the facilities that support Michigan's athletic pursuits. Yost conceived and engineered today's modern athletic campus in Ann Arbor. Among the projects constructed under Yost's direction were Michigan Stadium, the university's 18-hole golf course, the nation's first Intramural Sports Building and the nation's first multi-purpose field house, now known as Yost Ice Arena.

Yost received a law degree from the University of West Virginia, yet also attended school at Ohio Northern University and Lafayette. He began his coaching career at Ohio Wesleyan University and led them to the school's only victory over Ohio State. After leaving Ohio Wesleyan, Yost held brief coaching positions at the University of Kansas and the University of Nebraska. In 1900, he continued his move to the west coast and took over as the head coach at Stanford University, where he remained for a year before Stanford enacted a rule allowing only graduates to coach its football teams.

6-2-0 overall

After serving primarily as Yost's top assistant for two seasons, Little was named head coach for the 1924 season. In his three years at Michigan, the Wolverine football program suffered only two losses. In the 1924 campaign, Little's defensive-minded clubs shut-out their opponents in five of the six victories. Upon his arrival in Ann Arbor, he helped restore Michigan's prominence on the gridiron after three straight finishes in the Big Ten's lower tier.

Little left Michigan following his lone season as head coach to accept the Athletic Director position at the University of Wisconsin. At the time of his appointment, Little was the youngest A.D. in the Big Ten Conference. He later served as Director of Athletics at Rutgers and as the Executive Secretary of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

Little graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1912 and began his successful coaching career at the University of Cincinnati in 1914-15. He then moved to Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where he guided the Redskins to their first conference title in 1916. Little served in World War I in 1917-18 before returning to Miami in 1920-22.

ELTON E. "TAD" WIEMAN

9-6-1 overall

Considered one of the top offensive line coaches in the nation, Wieman succeeded Fielding H. Yost as Michigan's head man in 1927. In Wieman's first four games, the Wolverines won by an amazing 89-0 margin. Upon being appointed head coach, Wieman incorporated many of his own techniques into a system he fundamentally held over from the Yost years.

Known for his quiet, yet strong demeanor, Wieman came to Ann Arbor from Los Angeles to join the Michigan football team in 1916. He starred at a variety of positions, particularly tackle and fullback, and received all-conference honors at each position. In addition to his accolades on the field, Wieman earned Phi Beta Kappa honors for his achievement in the classroom.

46-26-4 overall

In a four-year span between 1930 and 1933, Kipke's teams experienced unparalleled success by winning four Big Ten and two national titles (1932 and 1933). During this stretch, the Wolverines compiled an astounding 34-1-3 record. Kipke stands as one of only three Michigan coaches ever to direct teams to four consecutive conference championships along with Fielding Yost and Bo Schembechler.

In his playing days, Kipke distinguished himself as one of the nation's greatest kickers and was named an All-American halfback by the Walter Camp Foundation. He holds the honor of being Michigan's first nine-time letterman, participating in football, basketball and baseball.

Following his graduation in 1925, Kipke became assistant football and head baseball coach at the University of Missouri, but returned to Ann Arbor the next fall to fill similar positions at Michigan. In 1928 he was named the head coach at Michigan State College (currently Michigan State University) where he remained for one season. Kipke's Spartans lost a tough 3-0 contest to Michigan in his only season in East Lansing. Kipke took over the Wolverine program in 1929 after a 3-4-1 season at Michigan State.

HERBERT O. "FRITZ" CRISLER

71-16-3 overall

In the 10 seasons Crisler was coach, Michigan's fate on the football field was in good hands. Crisler's teams consistently excelled in conference play, finishing lower than second only twice. His style of coaching was offensive-oriented, using innovative formations to pile up yardage. In 1943, the Wolverines won their first Big Ten title in 10 years with an 8-1 record. His .805 winning percentage ranks him second in school history behind only Fielding Yost (minimum 50 games coached). He climaxed his career by directing Michigan to a 49-0 rout of Southern California in the 1948 Rose Bowl. At the culmination of the 1947 season, members of the Associated Press voted the Wolverines as the mythical national champions and Crisler the National Coach of the Year.

Crisler graduated as an honor student from the University of Chicago where he played football under legendary coach Amos Alonzo Stagg. He is one of two men in Chicago history ever to earn nine letters in three sports (football, basketball, baseball).

Upon receiving his diploma in 1922, Crisler became an assistant coach to Stagg, remaining there eight years. In 1930 Crisler was named the athletic director and head football coach at the University of Minnesota, where he remained for two seasons before accepting the head coaching position at Princeton University. In his six years at Princeton, the Tigers compiled a 35-9-1 record.

Perhaps Crisler's greatest contribution to the history of Wolverine football was the implementation of the Michigan winged helmet in 1938. Initially designed to aid quarterbacks in distinguishing receivers, the winged design has become a longstanding symbol of the University.

63-33-4 overall

One of the greatest athletes ever to wear a Michigan uniform, Bennie Oosterbaan dedicated a great part of his life to the Michigan football program. After taking over as head coach in 1948, he guided the Wolverines to a 9-0 mark, the Big Ten title and the national championship. For his efforts in that first season, Oosterbaan was named National Coach of the Year. Oosterbaan utilized the traditional single-wing and T-formations on offense to capture the Big Ten title three times. His intelligent approach to the defensive side of the ball enabled the Wolverines to lead the league in total defense in five of his 11 seasons as head coach.

During his playing days, Oosterbaan became the first player in school history to earn All-America honors three times. He won nine varsity letters at Michigan in football, basketball and baseball—one of the few student-athletes ever to achieve this honor. Following his graduation in 1928, he turned down contracts from professional baseball and football organizations in order to join the Michigan coaching staff. Under Fritz Crisler, Oosterbaan tutored the Michigan backfield, ends, and eventually was promoted to first assistant.

CHALMERS W. "BUMP" ELLIOTT

51-42-2 overall

Named Michigan's 13th head coach in 1959, Elliott holds the rare distinction of both coaching and playing for Big Ten and Rose Bowl championship teams during his football career as a Wolverine. He directed the 1964 Michigan team to a 9-1 record and a Rose Bowl victory over Oregon State, 34-7. During Elliott's 10 seasons as head coach, Michigan produced five All-American performers: Bob Timberlake 1964; Bill Yearby 1964-'65; Jack Clancy 1966; Rick Volk 1966; and Ron Johnson 1968.

As an All-American player at Michigan, coach Fritz Crisler called Elliott the greatest right halfback he had ever seen. In the Wolverines' national championship season of 1947, Elliott was selected as the Big Ten Most Valuable Player. He began his coaching career at Oregon State in 1948, remaining there until he was named the offensive backfield coach at Iowa in 1952. While at Iowa, he helped the Hawkeyes to the Big Ten and Rose Bowl titles in 1956. Elliott returned to Ann Arbor in 1957 to coach the Maize and Blue backfield under coach Bennie Oosterbaan.

GLENN E. "BO" SCHEMBECHLER

194-48-5 overall

As the winningest head coach in Michigan football history, Bo Schembechler's teams won or tied for an impressive 13 Big Ten championships during his 21-year tenure. Under Schembechler's guidance, Michigan's 96-10-3 regular season record through the decade of the 1970s was the nation's best. He guided 17 teams to post-season bowl games (10 Rose Bowls) and another 17 to top 10 finishes in the final wire service polls (AP and/or UPI). In his 27 years of coaching, Schembechler's teams never had a losing season. Upon stepping down after the 1989 season, Bo retired as the winningest active coach in the nation (234-65-8) and fifth on the all-time list, only behind coaching legends Paul 'Bear' Bryant, Amos Alonzo Stagg, Glen 'Pop' Warner, and Woody Hayes. In addition to his coaching responsibilities, Schembechler served as Michigan's Director of Athletics between 1988-90.

After earning his diploma from Miami University (Ohio) in 1951, Schembechler received his master's degree from Ohio State in 1952 while serving as a graduate assistant coach. He continued his coaching career with brief stints as an assistant at Presbyterian College (1954), Bowling Green (1955) and Northwestern (1958) before spending five seasons as an assistant at Ohio State. In 1963, Schembechler was named head coach at Miami of Ohio, a position he held until taking over the Michigan program prior to the 1969 campaign.

44-13-3 overall

Moeller guided the Wolverines to four bowl victories in his five years, including a 1993 Rose Bowl triumph over Pac-10 champion Washington. Moeller's list of accolades include directing teams to three Big Ten championships, two outright Big Ten titles, five bowl appearances (1991 Gator, 1992 and 1993 Rose, 1994 Hall of Fame, and 1994 Holiday), and five straight finishes in the nation's top 20. Moeller's Wolverines set a Big Ten record by winning 19 consecutive conference games from 1990-92. By winning the Big Ten title in his first season as head coach, he joined Fielding Yost, Bennie Oosterbaan and Bo Schembechler as the only coaches to accomplish this feat in school history.

After graduating from Ohio State in 1963, Moeller began his coaching career at Bellefontaine High School in Ohio. He joined Schembechler's staff at Miami (Ohio) for the 1967 and 1968 seasons and made the move to Michigan with Bo in 1969. Moeller served as the defensive ends coach until being promoted to defensive coordinator in 1973. His Wolverine defensive units of 1974 and 1976 led the nation in scoring defense.

In 1976 Moeller took over as head coach at the University of Illinois, a position he would hold for three years before returning to Ann Arbor in 1980 as the Wolverines' quarterback coach. Moeller resumed duties as defensive coordinator from 1982-87. As his units did twice in the mid-1970s, the 1985 Michigan "D" led the nation in scoring defense. Before being named Michigan's head coach in 1990, Moeller served as the team's offensive coordinator for three seasons (1987-89).

ALL-TIME

HEAD COACHES' BIOS

122-40 overall

Lloyd Carr completed his 13-year career as Michigan's head coach with a thrilling 41-35 victory over No. 9 Florida in the 2008 Capital One Bowl. Carr compiled a 122-40 overall record during his career and led the Wolverines to six 10-win seasons. He guided U-M to the 1997 national championship and five Big Ten Conference crowns.

Carr's 120 victories trail only Fielding H. Yost (165-29-10) and his mentor, Bo Schembechler (194-48-5), at Michigan. Carr was even more impressive in Big Ten play, compiling an 81-23 mark, and is the eighth coach in Big Ten history and third in Michigan history, joining Yost and Schembechler, to claim five or more Big Ten titles (1997, 1998, 2000, 2003, 2004). Carr's teams finished in the top three of the conference standings each of his final 11 seasons.

Carr was a member of the Wolverine football staff for 28 years. Prior to being elevated to the head coaching position, Carr said he thought he held the greatest assistant coaching job in the country, serving 15 years under Schembechler (1980-89) and Gary Moeller (1990-94). Carr joined Schembechler's staff in 1980 as defensive secondary coach, was the defensive coordinator for eight seasons, and then moved into the position of assistant head coach for five years before becoming head coach in 1995.

Carr guided the school to a bowl game in each of his 13 seasons, with 11 of those appearances coming on New Year's Day. He became the first Wolverine coach to win four straight bowl games, doing so with victories in the 2001 Citrus Bowl, 2000 Orange Bowl, 1999 Citrus Bowl and 1998 Rose Bowl games. Michigan was ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 for all but 14 of Carr's 162 career games, including 65 appearances in the Top 10.

Carr was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame on Dec. 6, 2011.

RICH RODRIGUEZ

15-22 overall

Rich Rodriguez brought his famous spread offense to Ann Arbor when he was named Michigan's 18th head coach on Dec. 17, 2007. He concluded his tenure with an overall record of 15-22 and an appearance in the 2011 Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla.

In three years, Rodriguez's players combined for two "Chicago Tribune" Big Ten MVP awards in 2009 co-recipient Brandon Graham and 2010 recipient Denard Robinson who was also named the 2010 Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year. Ten of his players were named to All-Big Ten teams. Additionally, 18 players combined for 27 Academic All-Big Ten honors during Rodriguez's tenure.

Rodriguez arrived at Michigan after spending seven years as head coach at West Virginia University, his alma mater, where he led the Mountaineers to a 60-26 record, four Big East titles and six consecutive bowl game bids. He was the 2003 and 2007 AFCA Region I Coach of the Year, sharing the award in 2007.

A member of West Virginia's 1981-84 teams, Rodriguez was a three-year letterwinner (1982-84) as a defensive back for Don Nehlen who served as an assistant coach at U-M for Bo Schembechler. Rodriguez earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and safety from West Virginia in 1986, and added a master's degree in physical education from Salem in 1987.

31-20 overall

Brady Hoke was named the 19th head coach in University of Michigan football history on Jan. 11, 2011. A former assistant coach at U-M (1995-2002), Hoke guided the Wolverines to a 31-20 record (15-9 Big Ten) in his four seasons as head coach. Hoke led the Wolverines to an 11-2 record (6-2 Big Ten) and Allstate Sugar Bowl victory in his first season at the helm, while U-M finished the 2012 season with an 8-5 (6-2 Big Ten) mark following a bid to the Outback Bowl and 7-6 record (3-5 Big Ten) in 2013 after an appearance in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

Hoke had previous head coaching stints at San Diego State from 2009-10, where he earned a 13-12 record, and his alma mater, Ball State, where he went 34-38 from 2003-08. Collectively, Hoke is 73-63 in 11 seasons as a head coach.

Hoke's first-season success in Ann Arbor was acknowledged across the country. He was named the Maxwell Football Club Collegiate Coach of the Year and was named a finalist for three other national Coach of the Year honors: Bear Bryant, Eddie Robinson and Liberty Mutual. The Big Ten Conference's coaches voted Hoke as the inaugural recipient of the Hayes-Schembechler Coach of the Year award, while the Big Ten media named him the Dave McClain Coach of the Year.

With four wins more than the 2010 squad (7-6), Hoke and the Wolverines tied Fielding Yost's 1901 team as the only two teams with a four-win improvement from the previous season. Yost's 1901 team went 11-0 following a 7-2-1 1900 season.

Only the legendary Yost precedes Hoke as a Michigan head coach to win 10 games in his first season. Hoke also became the fifth Big Ten coach to win at least 10 games in his first season as head coach, and became the third U-M coach to win his first six games (Fielding Yost-1901, Bennie Oosterbaan-1948). Nationally, Hoke became one of eight coaches to direct a team to a BCS bowl in his first season, while he became the third coach to direct a team to a BCS bowl victory in his first season.

In 2012, Hoke became the first Michigan head coach to go undefeated at home in his first two seasons since Fielding Yost in 1901-02. The Wolverines were a perfect 8-0 at Michigan Stadium in 2011 and 6-0 at the Big House in 2012.

HEAD COACHES' BIOS

JIM HARBAUGH

2015-Present
74-25 overall

Jim Harbaugh was named the 20th coach in University of Michigan football history on Tuesday, Dec. 30, 2014. He became the sixth former Michigan football player to be named the leader of college football's winningest program.

Harbaugh came to Ann Arbor after an impressive four-year run in the National Football League with the San Francisco 49ers. He led the franchise to the NFC Championship Game in each of his first three seasons, winning the George Halas Trophy as NFC champions in 2012. Harbaugh tallied a 49-22-1 overall record that included a 5-3 mark in the postseason as 49ers head coach.

Prior to making the jump to the 49ers, Harbaugh established himself as a leader of young men at the college level. He turned around a Stanford program that went 1-11 prior to his arrival. The Cardinal improved each of his four seasons, culminating with a 12-1 campaign and Orange Bowl victory over Virginia Tech in 2010. Harbaugh finished his tenure at Stanford with a 29-21 record (.580) and 21-15 mark in Pac-10 Conference play.

In his first head coaching experience, Harbaugh led the University of San Diego to a 29-6 record during his three seasons directing the program (2004-06). In his first year, the Toreros posted a 7-4 record after winning their final five games of the season. The team proceeded to post 11-1 marks during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, claiming the Pioneer Football League championship each season.

Harbaugh played for five different organizations during his 15-year NFL career (1987-2001). He completed 2,305-of-3,918 passes for 26,288 yards and 129 touchdowns in 177 games. Harbaugh made 140 career starts.

As a collegiate player, Harbaugh was one of the most efficient passers in NCAA history. In 1985, he led the nation in pass efficiency and finished as the runner-up in 1986. His career pass efficiency rating was the NCAA's top mark for more than 12 years.

He is the son of Jack and Jackie Harbaugh. Jack was an assistant coach at Michigan from 1973-79.

1 - Base Ball Park, Detroit, Michigan

The first Michigan game played indoors occurred on Thanksgiving Day in 1896 when the Wolverines battled the University of Chicago at Chicago Coliseum. In what was the closing game of the inaugural year of the Western Intercollegiate Conference (later the Big Ten Conference), Chicago defeated Michigan, 7-6, to deny the Wolverines the league championship.

A DIFFERENT GAME
The brand of football played in the game's infant years differed greatly from that played today. At the first Rose Bowl ...
- The playing field was 110 yards long.
- Touchdowns and field goals counted five points and conversions one point.
- The game was divided into two 35-minute halves, not quarters.
- A team had to advance five yards in three downs for a first down.
- Forward passes were not allowed.

YOST'S POINT-A-MINUTE TEAMS
From 1901-05, Michigan compiled a 56-game unbeaten streak, a string that still ranks second in the NCAA record books. During this stretch of 50 months when the Wolverines compiled a record of 55-0-1, Michigan outscored its opponents, 2,821-40, beating four teams by triple digit margins. Often forgotten is the fact that Michigan played excellent competition over those years. The winning percentage of its 56 opponents was a combined .695 when their games against U-M are excluded. Of the teams Michigan played from 1901-05, 44 of the 56 finished with winning records on the season, while six teams would have compiled undefeated seasons without the loss to the Wolverines.

CONSECUTIVE 100,000+ CROWDS

When Michigan defeated Indiana 55-7 on Oct. 25, 1975, not much note was taken of the attendance figure of 93,857. However, 47 years later this game against the Hoosiers is still noted as the last time that U-M failed to draw a crowd of 100,000 to a Wolverine home game. Three decades and 308 games have passed since the streak began, as the Wolverines drew a capacity crowd of 102,415 to the Nov. 8, 1975 game vs. Purdue.

MICHIGAN STADIUM HISTORY

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN FOOTBALL FIELD HISTORY

1883 / First home game played on May 12.

1890 / The Regents of the University of Michigan authorize $3,000 for the purchase of 10 acres of land for a football field.

1891 / The Regents approve $5,000 to "put the field in shape."

1893 / "The Athletic Field," later known as Regents Field, opens with a capacity of 400.

October 7 / Michigan defeats the Detroit Athletic Club, 6-0, in the opening game at Regents Field.

1895 / The original stands at Regents Field burn down.

1896 / The Regents order the construction of another covered stand in order to offer seating to 800 people.

1902 / Due to the donation of 21 acres by Detroit native Dexter Ferry, the Regents change the name of the complex to Ferry Field.

1906 / The home field of the Wolverines moves to a new site on the land that Dexter Ferry donated the year before. The new field - Ferry Field - is located where the outdoor track now stands.

1914 / Concrete stands are erected at Ferry Field, increasing capacity to 25,000.

1921 / The stands around Ferry Field are completed, increasing capacity to 40,000.

1925 / The land where Michigan Stadium now stands is purchased for $240,000. This land is located where a spring had been, a source that had served the University of Michigan's water needs in its earlier days.

1926 / The Athletic Association increases the capacity of Ferry Field by adding wooden structures to both ends.

The Board of Athletics offers bonds at a price of $500 each to pay for the construction of Michigan Stadium. The bond-holder was offered the REGENTS FIELD served as Michigan's first permanent home field. Originally accommodating just 400 fans, temporary bleachers were erected to seat up to 17,000. The Wolverines compiled an 87-2-3 record at Regents Field.

The first University of Michigan football game played on a home field occurred on May 12, 1883, when Michigan took on the Detroit Industrial Team in Ann Arbor. For the next 10 years, Michigan players would call two sites in Ann Arbor, as well as several fields in Detroit, home turf. The Wolverines fared well in Detroit, recording a 12-4-1 mark in games played there, but had an even better record in Ann Arbor, going 18-1 at the locations where Waterman Gym was later built and where Burns Park stands today.

Following a successful Michigan football season in 1890, the Michigan Board of Regents authorized $3,000 for the purchase of land so a permanent home football field for the Wolverines could be built. Twelve months later, the Regents voted to add $5,000 more to this allotment to improve drainage and put the field into shape. By the fall of 1893, this new facility was ready, and on Oct. 7th, Michigan played on a permanent home field site for the first time, defeating the Detroit Athletic Club, 6-0.

The new home of Michigan Football, named Regents Field, was located along South State Street, where Schembechler Hall stands today. Though Regents Field had a single wooden bleacher section that seated 400 people, many more would show up for the Michigan home games. The original seating area burned down in 1895. The following year, the Regents ordered construction of another covered stand. This stand doubled the seating capacity to 800 but still fell far short of demand. Often times, temporary seats were erected to accommodate the throngs of Wolverine faithful. Crowds of 5,000 were not uncommon in the early part of the 20th Century.

In 1902, Detroit native Dexter M. Ferry donated 21 acres of land to the University, stretching from South State Street to the railroad tracks. This donation united the land which now comprises the athletics campus of the University of Michigan. In honor of this gift, the University Regents renamed the entire complex as Ferry Field. Despite the name change, the stadium still only had room for a small number of fans. As Fielding Yost's "Point-A-Minute" teams continued to win games, Ann Arborites, Michiganders and people from around the nation came to see the "Champions of the West."

One fact that remains unknown about Michigan Stadium is the location of Fritz Crisler's seat - the single seat indicated at the end of the stadium's capacity. Despite this anonymity, the legacies of Crisler and Yost live on as Michigan continues to pack the stadium full of 100,000-plus fans, game after game.

Realizing the need to accommodate more people, the Regents approved the building of a new football field. The new complex was to continue under the name Ferry Field and would be located closer to campus at the site where the Michigan outdoor track now lies. But while the name stayed the same, much else about the new field was different. Unlike the old field, which was home to the football, baseball and track teams, the grass on Ferry Field was for football use only. Michigan had built separate practice fields so that use of Ferry Field could be restricted to game days only. In addition, Ferry Field had the capacity to seat 18,000 fans. To facilitate media coverage, Ferry Field included a press box on the Hoover Street side, where the Intramural Sports Building now stands.

After compiling a record of 87-2-3 at Regents Field, many wondered whether the new field could offer such great success. Michigan quickly answered that question in its new setting. On Oct. 6, 1906, Johnny Garrels scored the first touchdown en route to a 28-0 victory over Case.

As Michigan continued to win at home and fans lined up to pay $1 to see a Michigan home football game (conference rules required that students pay no more than 50 cents), Fielding Yost saw the need to increase the seating capacity of Ferry Field. In 1921, Yost's wish was granted as temporary wooden bleachers were added to both ends of the stadium to almost double capacity from 21,000 to 40,000. This substantial increase in stadium capacity was not enough and Yost soon asked the Regents for approval to build a new stadium.

The "Roaring '20s" were a great time for stadium building. In the previous five years, Michigan had already played in the dedication game of the home stadiums for Vanderbilt, Ohio State, Michigan State and Illinois. In addition, conference foes Minnesota, Northwestern and Purdue had each erected new facilities.

Fielding H. Yost envisioned a stadium that would seat between

MICHIGAN STADIUM HISTORY

100,000 and 150,000 people for each Michigan home game. Because of the recent expansion of Ferry Field, the Regents were reticent to approve Yost's request. Once word of Yost's idea reached the public, the debate raged in the Ann Arbor community. Some contended a new stadium with twice the capacity would create no serious evils and would provide greater convenience to the students, alumni and general public. However, others believed the new stadium would injure the University academically, socially and intellectually. Furthermore, it was stated that the large stadium would inevitably increase student attention to football in conversation, publications and in attendance at practice. The increased interest would become a detriment to the community as it would overshadow academic and scholastic honors. The building of a new stadium would be a permanent and undeniable concession - set in concrete for years to come - to the notion that "college is nothing more than a Roman holiday."

Through Yost's dogged perseverance, the Regents approved the new stadium on April 22, 1926. Although Yost originally wanted to build the new stadium where the Michigan Golf Course is now located, that plan was denied. Instead, this new structure was to be built on land the University had purchased in 1925, land that at one time had been home to a barn, a strawberry patch and an underground spring. This underground spring had been capable of delivering 300 gallons of water per minute, which had served the University's water needs in the early years. The water posed a problem to the construction, as the land had to be lowered to take care of a large underground lake. The underground lake also led to a surface which nearly resembled quicksand. It was this moist ground that during construction, engulfed a crane which, according to legend, remains under the stadium today. The high water table also led to nearly three-quarters of the stadium being built below ground level.

After much debate, the Regents, the University of Michigan and Fielding Yost reached an agreement by which the stadium would seat 72,000. However, Yost was able to influence the plans so the stadium could be expanded to seat more than 100,000. The construction would be financed not by the taxpayers of the State of Michigan, but by the sale of 3,000 $500 bonds. These bonds would entitle the bondholder to buy season tickets (guaranteed to be between the 30-yard lines) for every season from 1927 until the bonds would be retired in 1936 (due to the Great Depression, not a penny was paid on these bonds between 1931 and 1936, and they were not completely retired until October 15, 1947).

With Yost's successful promotion, the bonds sold and construction began. Fashioned after the Yale Bowl, 440 tons of reinforcing steel and 31,000 square feet of wire mesh went into the building of the 44-section, 72-row, 72,000-seat stadium at a cost of $950,000. The original seats consisted of 22 miles of California Redwood and the 360 x 160 foot grass playing field included the planting of one four leaf clover.

Despite the grandeur of the new home, doubt still existed, as it was written in an article on the last game at Ferry Field, "Ferry Field passed on as the home of Michigan Football Saturday to give place to a larger, possibly better field…" Again the question of home field success arose, as Michigan had gone 88-14-2 in games played on Ferry Field.

As the stadium neared completion, Yost requested an addition of 10,000 temporary seats for the concourse at the top of the stadium. The seats would be sold to bondholders with the right to purchase tickets from the 1927 through 1936 seasons, when the bonds were scheduled to be retired. The seats offered to these bondholders were guaranteed to be between the 30-yard lines.

1927 / Michigan Stadium is constructed at a cost of $950,000. It contains 70 rows and is designed to seat 72,000 fans. Capacity was increased to 84,401 with the addition of wooden bleachers.

October 1 / The first game in Michigan Stadium is played. The Wolverines defeat Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0.

October 22 / In the dedication game of Michigan Stadium, Michigan blanks Ohio State behind a then-record crowd of 84,401.

1928 Stadium capacity is increased to 85,753.

1930 / Michigan installs electronic scoreboards at both ends of the stadium, becoming the first stadium to use electronic scoreboards as official time.

1946 / Michigan breaks the half million mark in a season for the first time with 514,598 fans.

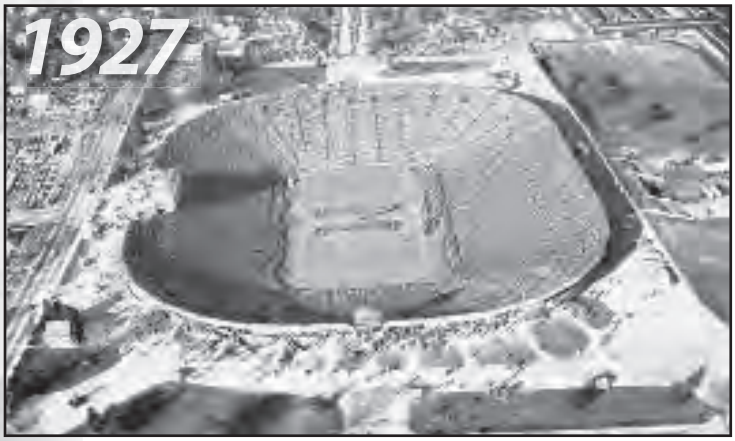
1949 / Permanent steel stands replace the wooden bleachers, raising capacity of Michigan Stadium to 97,239.

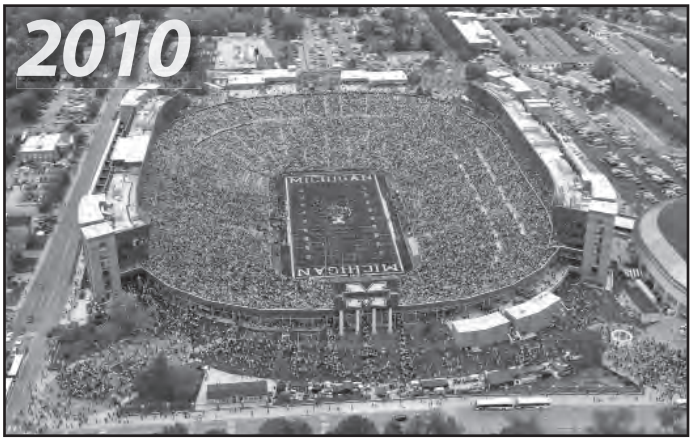
1949 / In the first year that NCAA attendance records are kept, Michigan leads the nation with an average of 93,894 for each of its six home games. Michigan's nearest competitor, Ohio State, averages 76,429.

1956 / The capacity of Michigan Stadium is increased once again, and the "Big House" now holds 101,001 people.

As Fielding Yost's "Point-A-Minute" teams gained fame and popularity, Michigan's regents approved a new football complex on the corner of State and Hoover. FERRY FIELD, completed in 1906, could seat 18,000 fans and offered a press box to facilitate growing media coverage.

MICHIGAN STADIUM HISTORY





A state-of-the-art press box is added at a cost of $700,000. Dedicated on Sept. 22, 1956, it includes a press area, photo deck and dark rooms.

October 6 / Michigan Stadium hosts over 100,000 people for the first time, as 101,001 see Michigan and Michigan State square off.

1968 August / The scoreboards at each end of the stadium are replaced at a cost of $75,000.

November 16 / Michigan crushes Wisconsin, 34-9, in the last Michigan Stadium game on grass for the next 22 seasons.

1969 June / Evidence that turf requires less maintenance than grass and could withstand any type of weather led the U-M Regents to approve installation of artificial turf. At a cost of $250,000, 88,285 feet of Tartan Turf is installed in July.

September 20 / The Wolverines break-in the newly installed Tartan Turf with a 42-14 defeat over Vanderbilt.

October 4 / The Wolverines lose at home to Missouri, 40-17. Michigan would not lose another game at home until Nov. 22, 1975, a streak of 41 games.

1972 / The University of Michigan leads the nation in attendance as 513,398 (85,566 average) fans watch Michigan go 6-0 at home.

1973 / Michigan Stadium capacity increases to 101,701. The box seats and railing are removed from the first few rows and replaced with bleachers.

1974 / Michigan leads the nation in attendance, as it has done every season since except 1997.

1975 The playing area is resurfaced with Tartan Turf.

November 8 / 102,415 fans are on hand as Michigan shuts out Purdue, 28-0. This begins a streak of consecutive crowds over 100,000 at Michigan Stadium that is still alive today.

1976 / Stadium seats are repainted and workers discover 19 new seats, 15 where the old box seats and rails were eliminated and four new ones above the tunnel. The painting of the seats is part of a $250,000 face-lift of the stadium.

1982 / The playing area is resurfaced, this time with All-Pro Turf.

November 17, 1990 / Michigan defeats Minnesota, 35-18, in its last Michigan Stadium game on artificial turf. From 1969, when the turf was installed, Michigan compiled a 119-18-3 record while playing on artificial turf in the stadium.

dium. This request was passed, and Michigan Stadium opened at the corner of Main Street and Stadium Boulevard with a capacity of 84,401 – the largest college owned stadium of any team in the nation.

On Oct. 1, 1927, Michigan played Ohio Wesleyan in the first game at Michigan Stadium. The game was a success as Michigan started the scoring on a 28-yard pass from Louis Gilbert to tight end Kip Taylor, and prevailed easily, 33-0. Dedication of the new stadium came three weeks later, Oct. 22, 1927, against Ohio State. The Buckeyes came into Michigan Stadium seeking revenge for a game five years earlier, when the Wolverines spoiled the dedication of Ohio Stadium with a 19-0 victory. However, Michigan was not to be denied on its big day, and the Wolverines blanked the Buckeyes 21-0 before a capacity crowd of 84,401. Before the 1927 season ended, Michigan shattered its own attendance mark again, drawing 84,423 to a game against Minnesota.

After a successful season in which the Wolverines drew nearly 300,000 fans, the capacity of Michigan Stadium was upped to 85,753 prior to the start of the 1928 season. In 1930, the University took advantage of new technology and installed electronic scoreboards at both ends of the stadium. In doing so, Michigan Stadium became the first to use electronic scoreboards for official game time.

With the end of World War II in 1945, Michigan Stadium was dedicated to all the men and women who gave their lives for the United States. In their honor, a bronze eagle was placed at the southwest entrance of the stadium where it remains today.

The Wolverines continued to draw crowds in the 80,000 range for 20 years, and in 1949, plans were drawn up to increase the size of the stadium. The most ambitious of the plans called for the addition of a top deck entirely around the stadium, increasing capacity to 125,300. Permanent steel stands around the stadium complex were finally settled upon, allowing for seating of 97,239 fans. Michigan also replaced the temporary wooden bleachers erected in 1927 with permanent steel ones. In its first game in the enlarged stadium, Michigan drew a then-record capacity crowd to the game against Michigan State. In the first season of official NCAA attendance records (1949), the final tally showed Michigan leading the nation in average home attendance with 93,894.

Seven years would pass before the capacity of Michigan Stadium was raised again with the building of the Michigan Sports Communications Center (press box). Built at a cost of $700,000, the structure provided a host of resources, including a press area, a photo deck, darkrooms and various other amenities. Dedicated on Sept. 22, 1956, the press box and the additional seating constructed along with it increased the capacity of Michigan Stadium to 101,001. This began a tradition of ending all Michigan Stadium capacity numbers with the digit "1", the extra seat being in honor of Fritz Crisler, the director of athletics at the time. On Oct. 6, 1956, Michigan Stadium hosted over 100,000 people for the first time as a capacity crowd saw Michigan State defeat Michigan, 9-0.

Though the Michigan football team suffered some lean years in the 1960s, the Ann Arbor faithful still packed the stadium to the point where between 1959 and 1971, Michigan finished no lower than fifth in the nation in average attendance.

During this period, major changes continued. In 1965, the benches were redone in blue fiberglass to prevent weathering and discoloration of the seats. It was then that the yellow "Block M" was created on the east bleachers of the stadium, a design done by former U-M player Dan Dworsky. In August of 1968, at a cost of $75,000, both scoreboards were replaced after 38 years of service. The new scoreboards added the number of time outs left for each team as well as the spot the ball was on, in addition to the features given on the old boards. These scoreboards, measuring 41 feet by 16 feet, were in use at the north and south ends of the stadium until 1998.

Based on evidence that artificial turf could withstand any type of weather and required less maintenance than grass, the Regents of the University of Michigan approved the installation of artificial turf at Michigan Stadium. In July 1969, a total of 88,285 feet of Tartan Turf were installed at a cost of $250,000. In its first game on the new surface, Michigan defeated Vanderbilt, 42-14. However, the Wolverines would drop their next home contest, 40-17 to Missouri on Oct. 4, 1969. After this defeat, Michigan would not lose at home again until Nov. 22, 1975 – a span of 41 games.

In the summer of 1973, renovations called for the removal of many of the rails in the stadium and replacement of the box seats in the first three rows with bleacher seats. This change allowed for 600 more seats in the stadium, raising capacity to 101,701. In 1974, Michigan led the nation in average attendance, as it has done every season since, except 1997.

Another game of note in the 1970s was U-M's shutout of Purdue on Nov. 8, 1975. That day, 102,415 fans witnessed the beginning of a streak in which Michigan has played every home game in front of more than 100,000 fans, a streak that continues into the 2016 season.

Michigan resurfaced the field with artificial turf in 1975 and 1982. When the time to do so arose again in 1990, a decision was made to return to a natural surface in time for the 1991 season. Michigan played its last home game on artificial surface against Minnesota on Nov. 17, 1990, winning, 35-18. The Wolverines' artificial turf home record was an impressive 119-18-3 over 22 seasons.

In May of 1991, 87,000 feet of prescription athletic turf were installed in a comprehensive renovation of Michigan Stadium. In addition to returning to natural grass, the field was lowered by three and a half feet to facilitate sightlines in the lower rows. The bill for these improvements came to $2.25 million. Included was the addition of two rows to the lower seating area of the stadium, raising capacity to 102,501.

As Michigan closed out the 1993 season against Ohio State, 106,867 fans filled the stadium, breaking both the Michigan Stadium and NCAA single-game attendance records. The number of people in Michigan Stadium exceeded the population of all but 185 cities in the United States and increased the Wolverine season tally to 739,560, a then-NCAA record.

The stadium continues to undergo changes. Prior to the 1996 season, the surface was torn up and the field crowned to allow for better drainage. Prior to Michigan's 1997 game against Ohio State, the University of Michigan Board of Regents approved the expansion of Michigan Stadium that added seats around the stadium and video scoreboards in each end zone.

During the 1997 national championship season, the schedule was highlighted by the 17th seven-game home slate in Michigan Football history. A single-game Michigan Stadium record crowd of 106,867 fans witnessed the Wolverines' 20-14 victory over Ohio State that clinched the Big Ten title and subsequent Rose Bowl berth. That game closed out a 7-0 home slate that saw Michigan draw another NCAA record of 745,139 fans (106,448 per game average.)

Michigan continued to rewrite the NCAA record books in 1998, setting single-game and season attendance marks. Construction was completed on the stadium prior to the season-opener that increased capacity to May 1991 / Michigan Stadium returns to grass as 87,000 feet of Prescription Athletic Turf is installed. Eight thousand square yards of sod were brought in for the playing surface which is lowered 3 1/2 feet to facilitate better sightlines for those seated in lower rows. The conversion from turf back to grass costs $2,250,000.

The rows in Michigan Stadium number 91, up from the 90 rows Michigan maintained since the 1950s.

September 14 / Michigan plays on grass on its field for the first time since 1968 in a 24-14 win over Notre Dame.

October 19 / Michigan draws 106,097 to its homecoming game against Indiana, the 100th consecutive home crowd over 100,000.

1992 / After nearly 20 years of constant capacity, Michigan Stadium begins the 1992 campaign with space for 800 more fans, now totaling 102,501. Another row is added, giving it the 92 that it still has today.

November 20, 1993 / Michigan sets a stadium and then-NCAA record with a crowd of 106,867 for the Ohio State game. This gives U-M a season home attendance total of 739,560, an NCAA record, breaking its own record from 1987.

November 12, 1994 / Michigan ends the home season with a crowd of 105,624 against Minnesota. The season average for the six Wolverine home games is 106,217, breaking the 1992 NCAA mark.

1996 / Despite being overshadowed by Tennessee's expanded Neyland Stadium, Michigan averages 105,933 fans per game, leading the nation for the 23rd consecutive season.

1997 / Varsity Plaza is added, as well as brick and wrought iron fencing around the stadium concourse.

November 22 / Michigan sets a then single-game attendance record at the "Big House" as a crowd of 106,867 witness a 20-14 victory over Ohio State that clinched the Big Ten title and Rose Bowl berth. The attendance total surpassed the Wolverines' previous NCAA record as 745,139 fans (106,448 per game average) attended the seven home games.

1998 / Michigan Stadium undergoes renovations that add 5,000 seats around the stadium (107,501) and two video scoreboards in each end zone. The Wolverine brick plaza is completed at the northwest entrance.

September 26 / Michigan sets an NCAA single-game attendance mark (111,238) at the 29-17 win over Michigan State in the Big Ten opener.

November 14 / The Wolverines complete the six-game home schedule against Wisconsin, drawing 111,217 fans. The second-largest crowd in stadium history helps Michigan set an NCAA season average of 110,965 fans per game (665,787 total).

September 4, 1999 / Michigan sets the NCAA single-game attendance record (111,523) for the season-opening 26-22 victory over Notre Dame. The mark breaks the previous NCAA record set by U-M on Sept. 26, 1998.

September 11 / The Wolverines play their 150th consecutive home game in front of at least 100,000 fans. Michigan defeats Rice, 37-3 (110,501).

November 20 / Michigan sets a pair of NCAA records in the 24-17 victory over Ohio State. U-M breaks the single-game attendance record set against the Irish, with 111,575 fans. The crowd helps U-M set an NCAA season average record of 111,008 fans (666,049 total).

2001 / Michigan plays its 75th season at Michigan Stadium, compiling a 6-1 record.

2002 / The Board of Regents approve the expansion of a new home lockerroom (Nov. 12) and an artificial surface field (Dec. 12) at Michigan Stadium.

2003 / The new team lockerroom, designed by Rosetti Architects in Birmingham, Mich., provides U-M with improved medical facilities and an area where all players can dress at the stadium. The 10,208-square-foot facility is three times larger than the previous locker room (3,145 square feet) and costs $3 million.

April 28 - Early July / The field at Michigan Stadium returns to an artificial surface as FieldTurf replaces the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) that had been in place since 1991. The surface cost $620,000 to install, with the fee including removal of the existing surface, installation of the new field and replacement of the urethane track around the field and tunnel. It also included a $46,000 donation by Ford Motor Company for the crushed rubber infill used in the field.

September 13 / The Wolverines set the NCAA single-game attendance record as 111,726 fans witness a 38-0 shutout win against Notre Dame.

November 22 / U-M sets the NCAA single-game attendance mark set earlier against the Irish as 112,118 are in attendance for the Big Ten title clinching 35-21 victory over Ohio State. U-M leads the nation in average attendance for the sixth straight season, with its seven-game total of 776,429 fans breaking the previous school-record (774,033 set in 2002).

2004 / The first of four phases of concrete restoration begins with the replacement of cement and bleachers in sections 28-33. The project costs $2 million.

October 30 / Michigan rallies from a 17-point deficit with 6:28 remaining to defeat Michigan State in triple overtime, 45-37, in the longest game in Big Ten history. The crowd of 111,609 is the third-largest in stadium history.

2005 / The concrete and bleachers on the east side of the stadium (sections 6-40) is replaced at a cost of $2.75 million.

2006 / The cement and bleachers are replaced on the west side and in the south end zone, from sections 7-40 at a cost of $6.3 million.

November 4 / U-M plays its 200th consecutive game with at least 100,000 fans. The Wolverines defeat Ball State, 34-26 (109,359).

2007 / The final section of the concrete and bleacher restoration, sections 34-39 in the north end zone, is completed at a cost of $2.5 million.

Summer / A $750,000 upgrade of the scoreboards includes light-emitting diode message banners. The incandescent bulbs used in the two scoreboards are also replaced with LED lights, which are easier to read and use less power.

September 27, 2008 / U-M plays its 500th game in Michigan Stadium, recording the largest comeback in stadium history with a 27-25 win over Wisconsin.

September 4, 2010 / Renovated stadium is rededicated in season-opener against Connecticut. With a new capacity of 109,901, it features additions to the east and west sides with club suites and seats, a second elevated concourse and additional concessions areas and restrooms.

April 5, 2011 / U-M announces TS Sports/Lighthouse will provide new state-of-the-art video boards at Michigan Stadium. The boards will be 40 percent larger than the previous system at 47 feet x 85 feet and measuring more than 4,000 square feet each. The upgrade will be completed in August prior to the 2011 season-opener.

107,501. With the added seating, the Wolverines went on to again set an NCAA single-game attendance record with 111,238 vs. Michigan State on Sept. 26, 1998. U-M finished the six-game home slate in 1998 with a season average of 110,965 fans per game, breaking Tennessee's NCAA record.

The Wolverines had an average attendance of 110,576 fans at its seven home games during the 2002 season. The season total of 774,033 fans at the "Big House" set a new stadium record but ranked third in NCAA total attendance behind Penn State (857,911) and Ohio State (827,904), which both played eight home games. U-M had four crowds over 111,000, including the season's largest attended game of 111,542 fans vs. Michigan State.

U-M led the nation in average attendance for the 13th straight season and the 37th time in past 39 years in 2010. The Wolverines set the NCAA single-game attendance mark twice during the 2003 season, first in a 38-0 shutout win against Notre Dame on Sept. 13 (111,726) and again before 112,118 spectators at the conference title-clinching 35-21 victory over Ohio State on Nov. 22 - the 100th game in the historic rivalry. U-M's seven-game total of 776,429 fans broke the previous school-record mark of 774,033 patrons set in 2002.

On Sept. 4, 2010, the Wolverines were proud to unveil their newly expanded and renovated Big House, hosting an NCAA record 109,901 fans in the season-opening 30-10 victory over Connecticut.

U-M averaged 111,825 fans during the seven-game home season in 2010, but added a very unique eighth game in the confines of the stadium on Dec. 11. The Michigan hockey team shut out rival Michigan State, 5-0, in The Big Chill at the Big House on Dec. 11, 2010, before a world record crowd of 113,411.

308 STRAIGHT

The University of Michigan football team has played 308 consecutive home games in front of crowds in excess of 100,000 through the 2022 season. The current streak was paused when health officials and government agencies limited fans at sporting events during the 2020 football season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The last time Michigan did not have 100,000 in attendance in Michigan Stadium was on Oct. 25, 1975 vs. Indiana. A crowd of 93,857 was on hand for the 55-7 Michigan victory. Since then, Michigan has set numerous NCAA attendance marks and the Wolverines have led the nation in attendance for 45 of the past 48 seasons.

MICHIGAN STADIUM -- 1927-2022 (96 YEARS)

Won 452, Lost 133, Tied 17

CAPACITY: 107,601 — The largest college-owned structures of its kind designed solely for football — closer to the playing field with no running track—no posts or other obstructions.

COMPLETION: 1927 — At a cost in excess of $950,000 to seat 72,000 spectators. Capacity raised to 84,401 by addition of temporary wooden bleachers until 1949 when permanent steel stands replaced the wooden bleachers, increasing the capacity to 97,239. Seating capacity then raised to 101,001 in 1956, 101,701 in 1973, 102,501 in 1992, 107,501 in 1998, 106,201 in 2008, 109,901 in 2010, and 107,601 in 2015.

FIRST GAME: October 1, 1927 — Led by captain Bennie Oosterbaan, U-M defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0. LaVerne (Kip) Taylor, Michigan end, scored first in the stadium on a 28-yard pass from halfback Louis Gilbert.

DEDICATION GAME: October 22, 1927 — Michigan defeated Ohio State, 21-0.

ATTENDANCE: Since 1927 — 52,957,501 fans have watched the Wolverines play 602 games. Stadium attendance record of 115,109 was set on Sept. 7, 2013 against Notre Dame.

FIELD: 360 x 160 feet — Installed FieldTurf in 2003, returning Michigan to an artificial surface for the first time since the 1990 season.
Installed Prescription Athletic Turf in 1991, giving Michigan its first natural grass field since 1968. Field was also lowered 3-1/2 feet allowing better sightlines for those seated in the lower rows.

NOTES ON THE BUILDING OF MICHIGAN STADIUM

- The number of tons of reinforcing steel used in the construction was estimated at 440 (880,000 pounds).
- The 31,000 square feet of wire mesh used in building the stadium could, at that time, imprison all the inmates of Sing Sing, and the federal prisons of Atlanta and Leavenworth.
- "Nature" Magazine estimated that it would take 14,000 woodchucks, working eight hour days, 11 1/2 months to move an amount of dirt equal to the 240,000 square yards that were excavated out of the Michigan Stadium site before the cement was poured.
- 45,000,000 words were typed before the stadium was even authorized, and 4,500 yards of type were devoted to the construction process. Of these 4,500 yards of type, 3,000 were made up of adjectives.
- It was estimated that there were 106,000,000 blades of grass making up the field at Michigan Stadium at the dedication game in 1927.

WOLVERINES IN THE DRAFT

Michigan's NFL Draft History

- U-M has had at least one player selected in 85 consecutive NFL Player Selection Meetings (drafts); 1938 to present.
- Since the inaugural NFL draft in 1938, a total of 401 Michigan players have been selected.
- The Wolverines are sixth all-time with 52 first round NFL draft picks, including No. 1 picks Tom Harmon (1941) and Jake Long (2008).
- U-M has had multiple first-round NFL draft picks on 10 different occasions; most recent was 2022 when Aidan Hutchinson (Detroit Lions, 2nd pick) and Daxton Hill (Cincinnati Bengals, 31st).
- The Wolverines had three players chosen in the first round of the NFL Draft on two occasions: 1995 (Tyrone Wheatley, Ty Law, Trezelle Jenkins) and 2001 (David Terrell, Steve Hutchinson, Jeff Backus).
- Michigan has had three players selected No. 1 in professional football league drafts. Tom Harmon was the first overall pick of the Chicago Bears in the 1941 NFL Draft, end Elmer Madar was the first selection of the Miami Seahawks in the 1947 All-American Football Conference draft and Jake Long was the No. 1 pick of the Miami Dolphins in the 2008 NFL Draft.
- U-M has had 12 players taken in the first five picks of the draft (AAFC, AFL and NFL drafts).
- Michigan had a school record 11 players selected in the 2017 NFL Draft, topping the previous mark of 10 players chosen in the 1972, 1974 and 2020 drafts.
- A total of 53 Wolverines have been drafted during Jim Harbaugh's coaching tenure, including nine first-round picks and 25 players chosen in the first three rounds.
- A total of 61 U-M players were drafted during Lloyd Carr's tenure, including 10 first-round picks and 12 second-round choices (8 third, 8 fourth, 5 fifth, 8 sixth, 10 seventh).
- Michigan players were selected with five of the first 43 picks in the 2001 NFL Draft, including a school-record-tying three first-round selections.

Michigan's Draft History: By the Numbers

1 The first U-M player ever selected in the NFL Draft was end Matt Patanelli. He was drafted in the ninth round of the 1937 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers (85th overall pick).

1 Overall selection number for running back Tom Harmon (1941) and Jake Long (2008) in the NFL Draft.

2 Two Wolverines have been selected with the second overall pick. The first was offensive tackle Tom Mack, a Pro Football Hall of Famer, who was taken in 1966 by the Los Angeles Rams. More recently, defensive end Aidan Hutchinson was selected in 2022 by the Detroit Lions.

3 First-round picks for the Wolverines in the 1995 and 2001 drafts.

4 Wolverine defenders picked with the first 47 selections of the 2007 NFL Draft (CB Leon Hall, DT Alan Branch, DE/OLB LaMarr Woodley and LB David Harris).

5 Number of U-M offensive players selected with the first 43 picks of the 2001 NFL Draft (WR David Terrell, OG Steve Hutchinson, OT Jeff Backus, RB Anthony Thomas and OT Maurice Williams).

6 Consecutive years with at least one first-rounder (1991-96 drafts).

9 Drafts where multiple Wolverines were selected in the first round.

10 Number of Wolverines picked in the 1972, 1974 and 2020 NFL drafts.

11 School record number of draft picks during the 2017 selection meeting.

12 Players selected in the first five picks of the draft (AAFC, AFL and NFL).

60 Number of U-M players selected in the first round of the draft (AAFC, AFL and NFL).

85 Consecutive Years that a Michigan player has been selected in the National Football League Player Selection Meetings (drafts); Michigan and USC are the only schools to have a player chosen in all 84 NFL Drafts.

401 Number of Wolverines selected in the National Football League draft.

WOLVERINES IN THE DRAFT

With its outstanding football heritage, the University of Michigan has long been a source for the National Football League draft. Since the NFL's inaugural draft on Feb. 8, 1936, at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in Philadelphia, 401 Michigan football players have been selected.

Michigan has had 52 NFL first-round draft picks, beginning with former All-American Tom Harmon, who was the first overall selection in 1941 after winning the Heisman Trophy. Three Wolverines were chosen in the first round during the 1995 (Tyrone Wheatley, Ty Law and Trezelle Jenkins) and 2001 drafts (David Terrell, Steve Hutchinson and Jeff Backus).

1 - The night before the 1970 Rose Bowl, Schembechler suffered a heart attack, which kept him in a hospital during the game. Defensive coordinator Jim Young assumed the coaching responsibilities for the game.

2 - Offensive coordinator Gary Moeller assumed coaching responsibilities as Schembechler remained in Ann Arbor after having quadruple heart bypass surgery in early December.

Bowl Game Summaries

1902 Rose Bowl

vs. Stanford

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1902
Attendance: 8,000

Michigan	17	32	— 49
Stanford	0	0	— 0

A polo match as the sporting highlight of the Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena had been satisfactory, but something more dramatic was needed in 1902. "Why not a football game?" offered one member of the committee, and immediately Tournament President James Wagner started a series of correspondence with the "best team in the West"—Fielding H. Yost's Michigan team.

Michigan was invited to play on January 1, 1902, against Stanford, champion of the "Pacific Coast Universities." The Wolverines left Ann Arbor on Dec. 17 with temperatures below freezing and six inches of snow on the ground. Eight days later, Michigan arrived in Los Angeles and was greeted by 80-plus degrees and newspaper reports listing several reasons why Stanford should win.

New Year's morning found the Michigan team outfitted in new uniforms with colorful Michigan banners, riding a large carriage in the Rose Parade. Thousands jammed the parade route, and following the parade Pasadena experienced its largest traffic snarl ever as fans headed for the football grounds.

The city was a riot of color—mostly blue and gold, for by a strange coincidence, blue and gold were adopted as the year's official colors of the Tournament. The color combination so closely resembled Michigan's colors that some of the Stanford faithful, a bit miffed by what they thought was a show of support for their opponents, began to tear down the banners and streamers.

The crowd of 8,000 stormed Tournament Park, and the first 2,500 who arrived ran for the highest priced reserved seats. The rest, even those holding tickets to the reserved section, were forced to stand on the dusty sidelines throughout the contest.

The game opened with a blistering sun moving the temperatures into the mid-80's. The teams lined up at 2:57 p.m., and with Michigan defending the south goal, the Wolverines' Everett Sweeley kicked off to open the first bowl game.

Stanford appeared every bit as capable as the papers reported, turning back the powerful Michigan offense, time and again, early in the contest. In fact, the game's first score did not come until 23 minutes into the first half. After a series of short gains moved the ball to the Stanford 30, halfback Willie Heston broke loose on a naked bootleg and picked up 21 yards on the first "big" play in Rose Bowl history. Three plays later, fullback Neil Snow bulled through the tiring Stanford line from the six. Bruce Shorts added the PAT to give Michigan a 6-0 lead.

Soon after Sweeley booted a 20-yard field goal, Michigan's Chris Redden returned a weak Stanford punt 25 yards for a TD, giving the Wolverines a 17-0 halftime lead.

Under the sheer power of the Michigan 11, Stanford's valiant defense began to crumble in the second half. The Wolverines proved relentless, scoring on nearly every possession.

With eight minutes remaining in the game, Stanford captain Ralph Fisher approached the Wolverine bench and offered to concede; Michigan consented.

The 49-0 victory capped one of the most unbelievable seasons in college football history, Michigan had outscored its opponents, 550-0, winning 11 straight games. Willie Heston, too, made believers out of his West Coast critics. He gained 170 yards on 18 carries as the Wolverines recorded 527 yards on the ground.

The tournament association, though realizing a profit of $3,161.86, thought the wide difference in the score would make an annual game unappealing to spectators. The following year they replaced the football game with a chariot race, and it would be 14 years before the Rose Bowl would again feature a post-parade football game.

1948 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1948
Attendance: 87,516

Led by All-Americans Bob Chappuis and Bump Elliott, Michigan led the nation in total offense (412.7 yards/game) and passing average (173.9 yards/game). Chappuis, runner-up in the Heisman Trophy balloting, was the Big Ten leader in total offense for the second straight year. Elliott, the team's only two-way player, was named Most Valuable Player for Michigan and the Big Ten after leading the league in scoring.

When the Wolverines arrived in Pasadena, they were 15-point favorites and Crisler felt it was necessary to call a team meeting to stifle overconfidence. Ten minutes into the game, on Michigan's second possession, Jack Weisenburger spun across the line from the one to cap an 11-play, 64-yard drive and initiate the day's scoring. In the second quarter, Weisenburger gained another one-yard touchdown, and Chappuis jump-passed to Elliott from the 11-yard line to give the Maize and Blue a 21-0 halftime lead.

In the second half, Weisenburger collected his third touchdown of the game and the Wolverines recorded three TD passes from three different passers, including tosses of 18 yards from Chappuis, 45 yards from Hank Fonde, and 29 yards from Howard Yerges as Michigan rolled to a 49-0 victory. The score stood as USC's largest margin of defeat until 1966. In the game, Michigan shattered nine Rose Bowl records and accumulated 491 yards to the Trojans' 133. Jim Brieske's record of seven PATs remains unbroken.

In a special Associated Press poll following the game, Michigan replaced Notre Dame as the 1947 National Champion by a 226-119 margin.

1951 Rose Bowl

vs. California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1951
Attendance: 98,939

Michigan	0	0	0	14-14
California	0	6	0	0- 6

In 1950, the Wolverines struggled through the regular season, but won the final game at Ohio State to earn the right to travel to Pasadena. Michigan's 5-3-1 squad was slated to face the California Golden Bears, a 9-0-1 club rated fourth in the nation and making its third consecutive Rose Bowl appearance. The Bears were favored to win, and many of the 98,393 fans who filled the stadium had hopes of watching the Pacific Conference end its four-game losing streak.

On the second play of the game, California's Pete Schabarum ran around the left end 73 yards into the end zone, only to see it nullified on an illegal motion penalty. Cal pounded on the Michigan defense until early in the second quarter when QB Jim Marinos threw a 39-yard scoring strike to Bob Cummings. Les Richter missed the extra point, and California led 6-0. Late in the half, the Bears had moved to the Michigan 11-yard line and appeared ready to bring one more score into the locker-room, but the Wolverines had other plans, stopping Schabarum three yards short of the goal on fourth down.

At halftime, California held a 192-65 advantage in offensive yardage and a 10-2 edge in first downs, but the Wolverines instigated a new defensive formation during the intermission. Head coach Bennie Oosterbaan told his troops that "victory is still ours," renewing the team's faith in Michigan tradition and spirit, and the Wolverines returned to the field primed for victory.

Michigan was held scoreless until the fourth quarter when team MVP Don Dufek ran four identical plays starting from the four-yard line, finally scoring on fourth-and-one. The Wolverines extended their lead later in the quarter as Dufek again scored, this time from seven yards out. Michigan completely reversed Cal's first half domination by out-distancing the Bears 15-2 in first downs and 226-52 in total yardage during the half as the Wolverines won their third Rose Bowl in as many tries, 14-6.

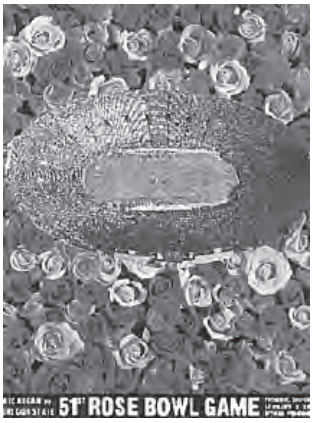
1965 Rose Bowl

vs. Oregon State

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1965
Attendance: 100,243

Michigan	0	12	15	7-34
OSU	0	7	0	0- 7



After finishing no higher than fifth in the Big Ten during the previous seven years, all the pieces finally fell into place for the 1964 Wolverines. Air Force and Navy were forced to the air in the first two games, throwing a combined total of 75 passes. Michigan then ran off six victories in seven Big Ten games, dropping a one-point contest to Purdue, and shutting out Northwestern and Ohio State. The Wolverines' 8-1 record earned them the conference championship, and the team headed to Pasadena, breaking a drought of 14 years.

After USC upset top-ranked Notre Dame in the regular-season finale, it appeared that the Trojans would be Michigan's New Year's Day opponent. However, the Pac Eight Conference instead ruled in favor of the Oregon State Beavers, who had tied Southern Cal for the conference lead. The fourth-ranked Wolverines were installed as 11-point favorites over the eighth-ranked Beavers as Oregon State brought an 8-2 mark into the game.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Beavers broke open the scoring with a five-yard pass from Paul Brothers to Doug McDougal early in the second period. Steve Clark kicked the extra point for Oregon State's 7-0 start on its upset bid. Three possessions later, Wolverine tailback Mel Anthony broke free virtually untouched for 84 yards and the score. On the Wolverines' next possession, Carl Ward rambled 43 yards around the right end to put Michigan in the lead for good. Bob Timberlake's pass to Ben Farabee was broken up in the end zone, but the Wolverines still held a 12-7 advantage going into the locker room.

Anthony paced the third quarter attack after recovering a blocked Beaver punt, and extending the Wolverine lead with one- and seven-yard scores. Timberlake added a 24-yard TD run down the sideline in the fourth quarter to close the scoring and give Michigan a 34-7 triumph.

Anthony earned Player of the Game kudos for his efforts, and the Wolverines raised their postseason record to four victories against no losses.

1970 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1970
Attendance: 103,878

Michigan	0	3	0	0- 3
USC	3	0	7	0-10

In Bo Schembechler's debut at Michigan Stadium, the Wolverines outrushed Vanderbilt 367-55 en route to a 42-14 triumph, beginning a new era in Michigan football. Heading into the season's final game, the 7-2 Wolverines were slated to meet the top-ranked and undefeated Ohio State Buckeyes. Michigan responded by pounding out 266 yards on the ground and 108 through the air, while intercepting six Buckeye passes before the largest crowd ever to see a college football game up to that date. It also snapped OSU's 22-game winning streak, and earned U-M the Big Ten's Rose Bowl berth.

Facing the Wolverines in Pasadena was the University of Southern California. The Trojans compiled a 9-0-1 record and were ranked fourth in the polls. USC, coached by John McKay, was led by Pac Eight rushing leader Clarence Davis. The 1970 game marked the fourth consecutive Rose Bowl appearance for the Trojans.

Fate was not with the Wolverines from the beginning of their California trip. While running in practice out on the coast, Glenn Doughty, Michigan's second-leading rusher, injured his knee and was forced to undergo surgery. Then, the night before the game, Schembechler suffered a heart attack which kept him off the sideline and in the hospital during the contest. Defensive coordinator Jim Young assumed the coaching responsibilities for the game, but the players were unable to shake off their discouragement by kickoff time.

Southern Cal opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 25-yard field goal by Ron Ayala. Michigan added a field goal of its own two possessions later as Tim Killian nailed one from 20 yards out, giving the teams a 3-3 deadlock at halftime.

On third down with six yards to go late in the third quarter, Trojan quarterback Jimmy Jones hit Bob Chandler 13 yards downfield. Chandler broke several Wolverine tackles, scampered another 20 yards, and gave USC its margin of victory. Michigan saw fourth quarter drives stall at the Trojan 13, nine, and finally the 38 as time ran out, and returned to Ann Arbor with its first post- season defeat ever.

1972 Rose Bowl

vs. Stanford

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1972
Attendance: 103,154

Michigan	0	3	0	9-12
Stanford	0	0	3	10-13

By 1971, Bo had the foundation in place for a Big Ten dynasty. After stopping the Buckeyes, 10-7, in the regular season finale Michigan completed its first undefeated and untied season since 1948 and prepared to meet Stanford in Pasadena.

Stanford entered the contest with an impressive 8-3 record despite the loss of Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett to graduation the previous spring. John Ralston's Indians thrived on the talents of quarterback Don Bunce and running back Jackie Brown.

Dana Coin made a 30-yard field goal in the second quarter to produce the only points scored by either team in the first half. When the gun sounded after 30 minutes, Michigan held a 3-0 edge as they left the soggy Rose Bowl turf for the locker room.

Stanford egressed from the locker room to start the third period and held the Wolverines inches short of the game's first touchdown with a dramatic goal line stand. The Indians gained control of the ball and marched down the field where soccer-style kicker Rod Garcia added a field goal of his own, this one from 42 yards away. Early in the fourth quarter, Michigan fullback Fritz Seyferth plunged across from the one-yard line, and the Wolverines regained the lead, 10-3.

Facing fourth down on its own 33-yard line, Stanford used a fake punt to spring Brown for a 31-yard gain. Several plays later, Brown again broke free, this time for 24 yards and the score that tied the contest at 10 apiece. Minutes later, when Coin's 42-yard field goal attempt fell short, Indian Jim Ferguson caught and intended to return the ball, but Ed Shuttlesworth dropped him in the end zone to give Michigan two points on the safety and a 12-10 advantage. Following a Michigan punt, the Indians took over on their 22-yard line, and Bunce proceeded to complete five of his next six passes to move his squad down the field. With 16 seconds remaining in the game, Ralston sent Garcia in for one final play. The kick sailed 31 yards straight over the crossbar, and Stanford claimed a narrow victory, 13-12, on the 70th anniversary of their stunning loss to U-M in the first Rose Bowl game.

1976 Orange Bowl

vs. Oklahoma

Miami, Florida
January 1, 1976
Attendance: 80,307

Michigan	0	0	0	6- 6
Oklahoma	0	7	0	7-14

Under pressure from the conference coaches, led by Michigan's Bo Schembechler, the Big Ten finally lifted its long-standing policy of limiting post-season games to only the Rose Bowl. As a consequence, once the Wolverines lost their only regular-season game to top-ranked Ohio State, Michigan accepted an invitation to meet the Oklahoma Sooners in Miami's Orange Bowl.

The fourth-ranked Wolverines left for Miami armed with Gordie Bell, who led the nation's second-leading rushing team with 121.4 yards per game, and under the guidance of freshman field general Rick Leach. Oklahoma came in as defending Associated Press National Champions despite making its first postseason appearance since 1972, due to two years of NCAA and Big Eight probation. The Sooners' 10-1 record placed them second in both wire service polls, and they marked Michigan's first experience against a wishbone offense since meeting UCLA three years earlier.

The first quarter was a defensive battle, with the Wolverines putting together the only substantial drive, starting at the Michigan five-yard line and stalling at the Oklahoma 38. Following Bob Wood's attempted 51-yard field goal, the Sooners opened the scoring with successive passes of 40 yards from Steve Davis to Tinker Owens and a 39-yard reverse by Billy Brooks for the score.

The Wolverines drove as far as the Oklahoma nine-yard line in the third quarter, before being thwarted by a pass interception in the end zone. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Davis ran 10 yards around the left end to increase the Sooner lead to 14-0. Michigan finally got on the scoreboard following an Oklahoma fumble on its own two. Bell carried it over on the next play, but Leach's two-point conversion attempt was stopped. The Wolverines were only able to make it as far as midfield for the duration of the game, and the Sooners went on to a 14-6 victory.

Oklahoma was led by the defensive efforts of Leroy and Dewey Selmon (10 and 13 tackles, respectively) and, following Ohio State's 23-10 loss in the Rose Bowl to UCLA, was named national champion in both polls. Leroy Selmon went on to become the first draft choice in the NFL college draft later that spring.

1977 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1977
Attendance: 106,182

Michigan	0	6	0	0- 6
USC	0	7	0	7-14

By defeating Ohio State, 22-0, in the regular season finale, Michigan posted its largest margin of victory in the series in 30 years and handed the Buckeyes their first shutout in 112 games, a streak that began in 1964. The Wolverines tied OSU for first-place in the Big Ten with a 10-1 record, and earned their first Rose Bowl berth since 1971. At season's end, Michigan led the nation in total offense (448.1 yards per game), scoring offense (38.7 points) and scoring defense (7.2 points).

In Pasadena, the third-ranked Wolverines were slated to face No. 2 Southern California, a team with equally impressive credentials. The Trojans were stocked with players such as quarterback Vince Evans, running backs Ricky Bell and Charles White, linebacker Clay Matthews, and were coached by John Robinson. USC promised to provide Michigan with quite a challenge on New Year's Day.

It took until midway through the second quarter for either team to put points on the scoreboard. The Wolverines scored first when Rob Lytle smashed over the goal line from one yard out. Bob Wood's extra point attempt was blocked, and Southern Cal used the momentum to march 80 yards on the following drive, tying the score with Evans rolling in on a fourth-and-one play with 1:28 left in the quarter. The conversion was good, and USC held a 7-6 advantage at the half.

The game returned to the defenses in the second half. The Wolverines tallied just four first downs, and the Trojans used a relentless ground game to grind their way deep into Michigan territory in the fourth quarter. White scored on a seven-yard run with three minutes to go, but the Wolverines made it close by charging back to the USC 17 before running out on downs in the closing seconds.

Bell, the top pick in the 1977 NFL draft, left the game early in the first quarter with a head injury and was replaced by the freshman White, who went on to win the Heisman Trophy three seasons later. The game also marked Lytle's last in a Wolverine uniform as he led all Michigan rushers with 67 yards to up his then school record to 3,317 yards. USC finished No. 2 in the final football polls behind the Pittsburgh Panthers. The Wolverines finished No. 3 in the rankings, their highest finish under Bo Schembechler to date.

vs. Washington

Pasadena, California
January 2, 1978
Attendance: 105,312

Michigan	0	0	7	13-20
Washington	7	10	10	0-27

With a defense featuring Curtis Greer and Chris Godfrey on the line, Mel Owens at outside linebacker, and Dwight Hicks and Mike Harden in the backfield, the Wolverines held all but three of their opponents under 10 points during the 1977 season. Michigan had won 10 of 11 games and outscored its opposition by a three-to-one margin heading into the Rose Bowl to face the University of Washington Huskies.

Michigan failed to get out of the gate quickly enough and even a 20-point second half could not rescue the Wolverines. A first half low center snap resulted in a 13-yard loss on a fourth down punt and gave Washington field position early. Ten plays later, quarterback Warren Moon scored from two yards out. A field goal and Moon's second TD put the Huskies up 17-0 at halftime.

Moon's 28-yard scoring pass to Spider Gaines after Washington had stopped Michigan on the Husky three-yard line appeared to put the game away in the third quarter, but Wolverine quarterback Rick Leach launched one of the finest aerial assaults in the history of this classic contest. First, he fired a Rose Bowl record TD pass of 76 yards to Curt Stephenson. Washington countered with an 18-yard field goal, but Leach completed four straight passes, and Russell Davis scored from the two. Later in the fourth quarter, Leach fired first down passes of 11 and 12 yards to Ralph Clayton, then connected with Stanley Edwards, filling in for the injured Harlan Huckleby, for 32 yards and a TD.

Leach led another dramatic drive to the Washington eight-yard line, but a diving interception by linebacker Michael Jackson stopped Michigan and preserved the 27-20 Washington win.

1979 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1979
Attendance: 105,629

Michigan	0	3	7	0-10
USC	7	10	0	0-17

After shutting out the Fighting Illini of Illinois in the season opener, the Wolverines won nine of their next 10 games, including their third straight victory over Ohio State, and qualified for their third Rose Bowl in as many years.

Michigan played one of its finest defensive games in years, but a combination of circumstances and a relentless Southern California ground attack lifted the Trojans to a 17-10 victory in the 65th annual Rose Bowl Classic in Pasadena. An intercepted pass returned to the Wolverine 16-yard line set up USC's first touchdown of the game, a Paul McDonald to Hoby Brenner pass covering nine yards.

Michigan later drove to the Trojan 21-yard line, but a dropped pass stalled the Wolverines' progress, and allowed Gregg Willner to put the first "Big Blue" points on the board with a 36-yard field goal in the second quarter. USC extended its lead moments later on one of the more controversial calls in Rose Bowl history. On second down at the Michigan three-yard line, Trojan tailback Charles White dove through the heart of the offensive line in an attempt to score. During the ensuing contact, White lost the ball and Wolverine linebacker Jerry Meter came up with an apparent fumble recovery on the one-yard line. However, the line judge determined that White had crossed the goal line before losing control of the ball and signalled for the touchdown that put USC up by 11. Late in the half, the Trojans intercepted a Rick Leach pass and set up a Frank Jordan field goal from 35 yards away to increase their lead to 17-3 at halftime.

It didn't take long after leaving the locker room for the Wolverines to narrow the score. Midway through the third period, Leach tossed a 44-yard scoring strike to tailback Roosevelt Smith to close within seven points. Michigan held the strong USC offense scoreless for the remainder of the game, but was unable to put more points on the board as the score stayed unchanged for the duration. Playing in his third straight Rose Bowl, Leach set career records for total plays (94), total yards running and passing (523), and most yards passing (452) in the New Year's game. Leach shared Most Valuable Player honors with USC's White.

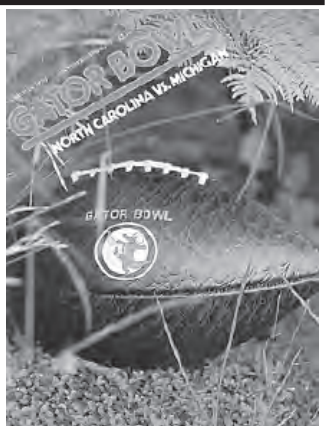
vs. North Carolina

Jacksonville, Florida
December 28, 1979
Attendance: 70,407

Michigan	0	9	0	6-15
UNC	0	7	7	3-17



"Bo Schembechler is looking up into football's valhalla and saying, 'Thank you, Fielding Yost, thank you, Fielding Yost for that one'. . . They aren't even going to try the extra point. Who cares! Who gives a damn! I've never been so happy in all my cotton-pickin' 59 years." So said the Wolverines' all-time No. 1 cheerleader, Bob Ufer, describing the mayhem following "the greatest play in 100 years of Michigan football." Anthony Carter's dramatic, game-winning reception against Indiana was easily the season highlight of the 8-3 Wolverines as they headed to the Gator Bowl to oppose North Carolina's 7-3-1 Tar Heels.

Quarterback John Wangler opened the game with a 47-yard pass completion to Carter, but 20 yards in penalties took Michigan out of field goal range, giving the Wolverines a preview of events to come. Bryan Virgil booted a 20-yard field goal early in the second quarter and Wangler, hitting receivers at will, threw 53 yards to Carter for a 9-0 lead after Michigan missed the extra point. On the next series, Wangler was tackled by UNC linebacker Lawrence Taylor on a sprint out, suffering a severe knee injury, ending his playing time that night. Up to that point, he had accumulated 203 yards through the air. North Carolina finally scored on a one-yard plunge by Doug Paschal late in the quarter, and trailed 9-7 at the half.

Midway through the third quarter, the Tarheels took control of the game, driving 97 yards in 15 plays behind the running of Amos Lawrence, and scoring on a 12-yard pass from Matt Kupec to Phil Farris. North Carolina added a field goal with 7:31 remaining in the game to move ahead 17-9. However, the Wolverines never gave up, and with 1:28 to go, backup quarterback B.J. Dickey, Wangler's replacement, connected with A.C. on a 30-yard bomb to bring the game to within two. In an attempt to tie, Dickey's pass to Carter in the endzone failed, and Michigan fell short. Hindering the Wolverines throughout the game were two lost fumbles, two pass interceptions, the loss of Wangler and 87 yards in penalties.

1981 Rose Bowl

vs. Washington

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1981
Attendance: 104,863

Michigan	0	7	10	6-23
Washington	0	6	0	0- 6

The Wolverines may have started slowly in 1980, but by October, nobody was able to stop them. Beginning with the Illinois game on October 25, Michigan put together a streak of 15 consecutive scoreless quarters, shutout Indiana, Wisconsin, and Purdue, won the Big Ten title outright for the first time since 1971, and took a string of 18 straight quarters without allowing a touchdown into the Rose Bowl to face the Washington Huskies.

The Huskies compiled more total yards against the Michigan defense, 374, than any team had all season, but the Wolverines continued their consecutive no-touchdown string, and Bo Schembechler won his first Rose Bowl in six tries.

Washington dominated the game early, and on its second drive, the Huskies reached the Michigan one-yard line. But the Wolverines then stonewalled tailback Toussiant Tyler on fourth down and took the momentum from Washington. Butch Woolfolk put Michigan in the lead with a six-yard TD burst near halftime, and despite Chuck Nelson's two field goals, the Wolverines remained in command the rest of the way.

Ali Haji-Sheikh's 25-yard field goal capped a six-minute, 83-yard drive to open the second half. John Wangler connected with Anthony Carter for a seven-yard score, widening the Michigan margin to 17-6 with three minutes remaining in the third quarter. From there, the Wolverine defense took over with Keith Bostic forcing an interception and limiting the Huskies to 23 yards in total offense until the game's final minutes. Michigan clinched the victory on Stan Edwards' one-yard TD dive with four minutes remaining in the game to provide the final margin.

Butch Woolfolk's 182 yards rushing earned him game MVP honors, while Don Bracken's 73-yard punt in the first quarter set a Rose Bowl record. The season that had looked so bleak after a 1-2 beginning thus concluded with nine straight 'M' wins.

1981 Bluebonnet Bowl

vs. UCLA

Houston, Texas
December 31, 1981
Attendance: 50,107

Michigan	10	0	3	20-33
UCLA	0	0	7	7-14

In the game billed as a "mini-Rose Bowl," the 8-3 Wolverines came out smelling sweet on New Year's eve. Michigan's defense limited the powerful UCLA attack to 195 total yards and held the Bruins to just 33 yards on the ground. The Wolverines led the entire game, beginning with Ali Haji-Sheikh's 24-yard field goal, set up by Butch Woolfolk's 52-yard run. With one minute remaining in the first quarter, quarterback Steve Smith spotted Anthony Carter behind the Bruin secondary, for a 50-yard scoring bomb that upped the lead to 10-0. Michigan dominated the rest of the half, yielding only 58 total yards to UCLA. But 12 penalties kept the Maize and Blue off the scoreboard the rest of the half.

The Bruins narrowed the gap to 10-7, scoring on their first possession of the third quarter, but the Wolverines responded immediately, marching 52-yards before Haji-Sheikh kicked a 47-yard field goal, the longest of his career. UCLA again drove into Michigan territory, but two penalties and Winfred Carraway's sack of Bruin quarterback Tom Ramsey ended the march, and the Pacific-10 runners-up never again had a chance to take the lead. The Wolverines moved 74 yards ending in Woolfolk's one-yard TD run. After UCLA cut the lead to 19-14, Michigan drove 80 yards in seven plays with Smith scoring from nine yards out on the option play to clinch the victory. Reserve quarterback B.J. Dickey's touchdown run in the final minute iced the triumph.

Woolfolk closed his brilliant career at Michigan by gaining 186 yards rushing, bringing his four-year total to 3,861 and earning game MVP honors. Smith's 152 passing yards gave him Michigan's single-season record with 1,661 yards, and added to his total offense mark. Anthony Carter grabbed six receptions for 127 yards, and the Wolverines left Houston looking forward to the New Year.

1983 Rose Bowl

vs. UCLA

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1983
Attendance: 104,991

Michigan	0	0	7	7-14
UCLA	7	3	7	7-24

Michigan dominated the Big Ten in 1982, rolling through its conference schedule and winning the title outright in the second-to-last-game against Purdue. Even a loss to Ohio State in the regular season finale could not take the roses from the Wolverines as they prepared to face the UCLA Bruins in Pasadena. The game featured a rematch of the previous season's Bluebonnet Bowl participants, and gave the Maize and Blue an opportunity to avenge the 31-27 loss suffered at the hands of the Bruins earlier in the season. This contest, however, would be played in the Rose Bowl, a stadium UCLA had claimed as its home field for the 1982 regular season.

A one-yard plunge by Tom Ramsey on UCLA's second drive put the Bruins up 7-0 in the first quarter, a lead they never relinquished. In the second quarter, Wolverine quarterback Steve Smith ran an eight-yard option for a first down, but took a vicious hit from Bruin free safety Don Rogers. Smith left the game with a separated shoulder and did not return. Junior Dave Hall, with seven completions in 14 attempts for the season, finished the game in admirable fashion, but his inexperience hurt the Wolverines.

Late in the second quarter, kicker John Lee gave UCLA a 10-0 lead with a 39-yard field goal. However, the Wolverines stormed back after the intermission and drove 55 yards for a touchdown. Hall passed the final yard to fullback Eddie Garrett in the third quarter to bring U-M within three points at 10-7.

On the next drive the Bruins took control with Ramsey leading the way, passing for 33 yards and running for 20 in an 80-yard TD drive. With UCLA up 17-7 and nine minutes left to play, the Wolverines took over deep in their own territory. Here Hall showed his inexperience by lobbing a pass into the hands of Bruin Blanchard Montgomery. The 230-pound linebacker galloped 11 yards into the end zone to seal the Wolverines' fate.

After Hall passed to fullback Dan Rice for a one-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter, the score read 24-14 in UCLA's favor. Michigan could not muster another scoring drive, and UCLA took home the roses.

1984 Sugar Bowl

vs. Auburn

New Orleans, Louisiana
January 2, 1984
Attendance: 77,893

Michigan	7	0	0	0- 7
Auburn	0	0	3	6- 9

Buoyed by back-to-back shutouts of Michigan State and Northwestern and a last-second victory over Iowa, the 1983 Wolverines charged to a second-place finish in the Big Ten, suffering its only conference setback to the Illinois squad that went on to play in the Rose Bowl. By holding off a late Ohio State comeback bid in the season finale, the Wolverines raised their record to 9-2 and gained a trip to New Orleans to meet the Auburn Tigers in the Sugar Bowl.

Steve Smith led a powerful offensive attack early in the game during which Michigan held the ball for over nine minutes of the first quarter and gained 116 yards to the Tigers' 61. The Wolverines' second offensive drive in the game was highlighted by a 19-yard Smith to Triando Markray completion and 38 yards on four carries by Rick Rogers. Smith's four-yard keeper midway through the first quarter gave the Wolverines a lead they would keep for 52 minutes of the 60-minute contest.

Each team showed a strong defense for the remainder of the half, and Michigan took its 7-0 lead into the locker room.

Campbell attempted only two passes in the second half and handed off 42 times to backs Lionel James, Bo Jackson, and Tommy Agee, who together collected 306 yards on the ground.

While Michigan's offense was thwarted time and time again, the Tigers ran all over the tiring Wolverine defense, controlling the ball for over 23 minutes of the second half. After a 26-yard Don Bracken punt—one of a season-high eight punts—Auburn marched 68 yards, all on the ground, to set up a 31-yard Al DelGreco field goal.

The Tigers got a break when Smith was hit as he released the ball and Auburn's Gregg Carr grabbed it at the Michigan 41-yard line. Seven plays later, DelGreco chalked up his second three-pointer, a 32-yarder.

After another Michigan punt, Auburn took over on its own 39-yard line. The Tigers ran a ball control offense, using 15 rushing plays and 7:21 off the clock in reaching the Wolverines' one-yard line with 27 seconds to play in the game. Michigan called a timeout, but DelGreco booted the 19-yard field goal to send the Wolverines back to Ann Arbor with a taste of New Orleans but no sugar.

1984 Holiday Bowl

vs. Brigham Young

San Diego, California
December 21, 1984
Attendance: 61,243

Michigan	0	7	7	3-17
BYU	0	10	0	14-24

After upsetting top-ranked Miami in the season opener, Michigan's fortunes looked bright for 1984. But when quarterback Jim Harbaugh broke his arm against Michigan State, it took a great effort for the Wolverines to limp to a 6-5 record. Despite their less-than-spectacular season mark, Michigan found itself paired against No. 1-ranked Brigham Young in the Holiday Bowl. The Wolverines accepted the opportunity, and ended the season just how they had started—facing the nation's top-ranked team.

Aided by six Brigham Young turnovers and a blocked field goal attempt, Michigan held a 17-10 lead early in the fourth quarter. But BYU quarterback Robbie Bosco, hampered by an injured left knee and ankle suffered in the first stanza, led the Cougars to 80- and 83-yard TD drives to give BYU a 24-17 victory.

After a scoreless first quarter, BYU jumped on the scoreboard when Kelly Smith capped an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a five-yard TD run. The Wolverines knotted the score at seven after Rick Rogers scampered in from five yards out with 1:13 left in the half. But Bosco led BYU down the field in the last minute, and Lee Johnson booted a 31-yard field goal giving the Cougars a slim 10-7 halftime lead.

Michigan went ahead late in the third quarter, moving 47 yards after Tim Anderson blocked Johnson's field goal attempt and Chris Zurbrugg threw a 10-yard TD pass to Bob Perryman. Early in the fourth quarter, Bob Bergeron pushed the Michigan lead to 17-10 with a 32-yard field goal. Then Bosco went to work, driving BYU for two late TDs—the last coming with just 1:23 to play—and the win.

In collecting its 24th consecutive victory, BYU put together some impressive offensive figures (483 yards in total offense, 32 first downs) and went on to claim the national championship.

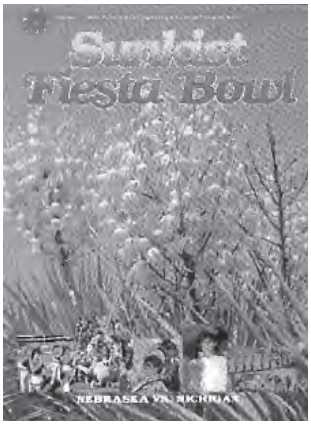
1986 Fiesta Bowl

vs. Nebraska

Tempe, Arizona
January 1, 1986
Attendance: 72,454

Michigan	3	0	24	0-27
Nebraska	0	14	0	9-23



The surprising 9-1-1 Wolverines — equipped with the nation's top scoring defense — found themselves matched against Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl.

After a 21-yard run by Jamie Morris set up a 42-yard field goal by Pat Moons to open the scoring, the Cornhuskers got rolling. Nebraska used 10 plays to move 74 yards for the touchdown that gave Nebraska a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter. McCathorn Clayton hit Doug DuBose in the endzone from five yards out for the score. The Cornhuskers added another tally when a 15-yard run by fullback Tom Rathman set up DuBose's second touchdown of the game, giving Nebraska a 14-3 halftime lead.

In the second half, an inspired Wolverine defense began forcing turnovers to help U-M climb back into contention. On its third play from scrimmage, Nebraska's DuBose fumbled, and Michigan's Jeff Akers recovered. A 19-yard run by Jamie Morris set up Gerald White's one-yard dive for a TD, pulling the Wolverines to within 14-10 early in the third quarter. Another fumble by Nebraska, this one by Clayton, was recovered by Michigan's Mark Messner on the next series, and White's 19-yard run set up a one-yard plunge by Harbaugh to give the Maize and Blue the lead at 17-14. The Wolverine defense forced Nebraska to punt on the next series, and Dave Arnold rushed in untouched to block his third punt of the season to set up a short Moons field goal. The Wolverines scored again on their next possession when a 14-yard run by Morris set up Harbaugh's second TD of the afternoon, giving Michigan a seemingly comfortable 27-14 lead.

The excitement was not quite finished, thanks to an elusive freshman quarterback for Nebraska. Steve Taylor moved the Cornhuskers 77 yards in four minutes to cut the Michigan lead to 27-21. With the Wolverines in a hole late in the game, Schembechler elected to take an intentional safety, and Nebraska was unable to mount a drive on its final possession.

The win gave Schembechler his third bowl victory in six years, and vaulted Michigan to the No. 2 spot (behind Oklahoma) in the final polls.

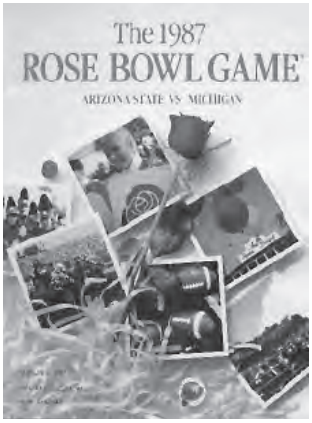
1987 Rose Bowl

vs. Arizona State

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1987
Attendance: 103,168

Michigan	8	7	0	0-15
Arizona St.	0	13	6	3-22



The Maize and Blue returned to the grass of the Rose Bowl after a four-year drought to face seventh-ranked Arizona State. The Sun Devils rolled to the Pac-10 title by running through its schedule unbeaten before slipping in their final game against Arizona.

Michigan made its first drive look easy. After Jim Harbaugh passed 24 yards to Greg McMurtry on the second play from scrimmage, the Wolverines quickly moved into scoring position. Jamie Morris took the handoff at the 18-yard line, broke two tackles, and smashed into the end zone. On the point-after attempt, the Sun Devils were caught when kicker Mike Gillette took the snap and passed to Gerald White in the end zone while the rest of the team remained huddled to the side. As the ecstatic Wolverine contingent cheered, the scoreboard flashed the score: Michigan 8, ASU 0.

Early in the second quarter, the Sun Devils' Kent Bostrom booted a 37-yard field goal. Michigan roared right back by powering the ball to the two-yard line before Harbaugh plunged to paydirt. Gillette kicked the conversion, and Michigan led 15-3. After adding a 27-yard field goal, Arizona State used the last four minutes of the half to mount a 60-yard drive that commenced when Jeff Van Raaphorst passed to Bruce Hill for the Sun Devils' first touchdown. As the teams took to the locker room, the Wolverines held a 15-13 advantage.

Opening the second half, Arizona State launched an 80-yard drive. Van Raaphorst again found Hill in the end zone, and after the two-point conversion failed, Michigan trailed by four. The Wolverines only touched the ball twice in the entire quarter, and netted just 22 yards, all from Harbaugh's pass completion in the third quarter. With 14:16 to go in the game, Bostrom added a 25-yard field goal and Arizona State had all the points needed for the victory.

Despite the disappointment of the final game, the 1986 season was a good one for Michigan Football. Wolverine fans were treated to the 32nd Big Ten title in school history, Bo Schembechler's 200th career victory to pass Fielding H. Yost as the winningest coach in Michigan history.

1988 Hall of Fame Bowl

vs. Alabama

Tampa, Florida
January 2, 1988
Attendance: 60,156

Michigan	0	14	7	7-28
Alabama	3	0	6	15-24

For the second time in his 19-year reign, Bo Schembechler would not be on the sidelines for a Michigan bowl game. Schembechler underwent quadruple heart bypass surgery in early December so offensive coordinator Gary Moeller was given the task of preparing the Wolverines for Alabama.

The Crimson Tide took the opening kickoff and moved the ball to Michigan's 34-yard line, where they had to settle for a 51-yard Philip Doyle field goal. In the second quarter, Jamie Morris broke a tackle for a 25-yard touchdown run, giving the Wolverines their first lead of the game. On Michigan's next possession, Morris again broke a tackle, then ran over a defender for a 14-yard TD run and the Wolverines went into the locker room with a 14-3 half time lead.

Michigan began the second half where it left off as Morris broke loose for a 77-yard TD run, lifting U-M to a comfortable 21-3 margin. Following Morris' run, the Crimson Tide launched a 72-yard drive in just under five minutes that culminated in a 16-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Dunn to Howard Cross.

After a Michigan punt, Alabama marched 85 yards, capped by Bobby Humphrey's one-yard TD run, cutting the Wolverine lead to five points with 13 minutes left in the game. Two more times Michigan's offense was held and Alabama was again able to drive against the Wolverine defense, this time for 79 yards, culminating in a 17-yard scoring run by Humphrey. Alabama's two-point conversion was successful and the Tide took the lead, 24-21, with just under five minutes remaining.

Facing fourth-and-three from the 20-yard line late in the fourth quarter, Brown lofted a 20-yard pass that John Kolesar pulled down in the corner of the end zone for a touchdown and ended Michigan's most exciting scoring drive of the season. In the game's waning moments, Alabama's desperation pass was intercepted by cornerback David Arnold to seal the win.

Jamie Morris' 234 yards rushing set a Hall of Fame Bowl and Michigan bowl record. He also broke the Wolverines' single season rushing record with a total of 1,703 yards and ended his career with 4,393 rushing yards, third-best in Big Ten history.

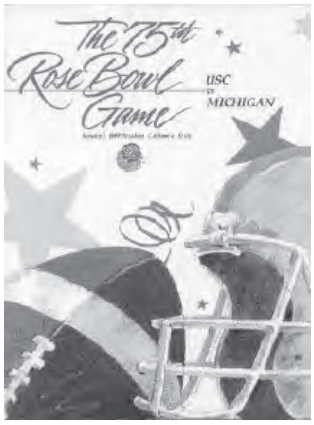
1989 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 2, 1989
Attendance: 101,688

Michigan	3	0	6	13-22
USC	0	14	0	0-14



Coming off one of the toughest Ohio State games in recent history, many questioned whether or not Michigan could withstand a USC team that led the Pac-10 in rushing defense, total defense and was offensively led by Rodney Peete, the 1988 Heisman Trophy runner-up.

Michigan's first possession was highlighted by a 21-yard completion from Demetrius Brown to John Kolesar on the fourth play of the drive. U-M controlled the ball for 7:51 on 13 plays until it was stopped by the Trojan defense. Mike Gillette was called in to cap the drive with a 49-yard field goal with 4:07 remaining in the quarter.

At the beginning of the second quarter, the Trojan offense came to life. USC moved from its own 46-yard line to the Wolverine 22. Each side turned the ball over, however, before the Trojans scored the game's first touchdown on a one-yard run by Peete. USC began its second TD drive with 7:06 remaining in the half, ending with Peete's four-yard scoring run.

The opening minutes of the second half saw Brown's 22-yard scramble to the six, followed by his touchdown toss to Chris Calloway two plays later. U-M was unsuccessful on the two-point conversion, leaving the score at 14-9.

In the final minutes of the third quarter, the Michigan offense, led by running backs Tony Boles and Leroy Hoard, put together the longest drive of the game, amassing 64 of the 92 yards gained by U-M. A 23-yard pass from Brown to Derrick Walker put the Wolverines on the one-yard line, and Hoard took it in for the score. Michigan again failed on the two-point try, leaving the Trojans just one point behind with plenty of time left in the final quarter.

With 5:28 left to play in the game, the Wolverines sensed their third bowl victory in four years. On the very first play, Hoard exploded for a 61-yard run to the Trojan nine-yard line. On fourth-and-goal, Hoard scored to give Michigan a seven-point lead that became eight after Gillette's extra point with 1:57 remaining.

Peete then led the Trojans down the field in an attempt to tie the game, but linebacker John Milligan picked off an errant pass with 50 seconds remaining to secure a Wolverine win.

The victory gave Schembechler his second win in Pasadena and the Wolverines a 9-2-1 season record, finishing with a No. 4 national ranking by the Associated Press.

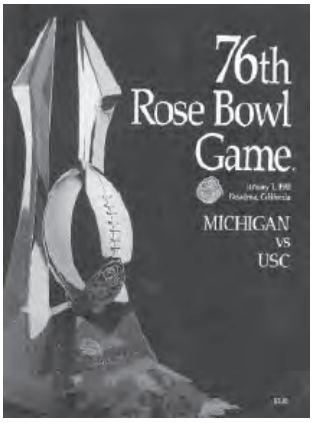
1990 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1990
Attendance: 103,450

Michigan	0	3	7	0-10
USC	0	10	0	7-17



Every Rose Bowl is a grand spectacle of the best college football has to offer, but the 1990 clash between Michigan and Southern California had added luster as it was the last game in Bo Schembechler's 27-year coaching career.

The first quarter was dominated by the defenses, as neither team was able to put any points on the scoreboard. USC opened the scoring in the second quarter on a one-yard touchdown run by quarterback Todd Marinovich. Michigan answered USC's score midway through the second quarter. Leroy Hoard ripped off a 46-yard run and Michael Taylor connected with Greg McMurtry for 20 yards to get down to the Trojan eight-yard line. J.D. Carlson's 19-yard field goal cut USC's lead to 7-3 with 6:28 left. The Trojans closed out the first half scoring on a 34-yard Quin Rodriguez field goal that pushed USC's halftime lead to 10-3.

The Wolverines played an inspired third quarter, limiting the Trojans to just 27 yards while scoring the tying touchdown. Michigan scored on its second drive of the quarter as Allen Jefferson scored from two yards out to tie the game at 10.

The game's pivotal play came on a fourth-and-two from the Michigan 46 with 12:00 left in the contest. On that play, Wolverine punter Chris Stapleton's fake punt gained 24 yards, but a holding penalty and a subsequent unsportsmanlike conduct penalty pushed Michigan back to its own 21 and eliminated the first down. Southern Cal took advantage of Michigan's misfortune, marching 75 yards in 13 plays for the game-winning TD.

Despite the Rose Bowl defeat, the Wolverines had their first 10-win season (10-2) since 1986, and earned their second consecutive outright Big Ten Championship. Bo Schembechler ended his coaching career as the winningest coach in Michigan football history with a 194-48-5 record.

1991 Gator Bowl

vs. Mississippi

Jacksonville, Florida

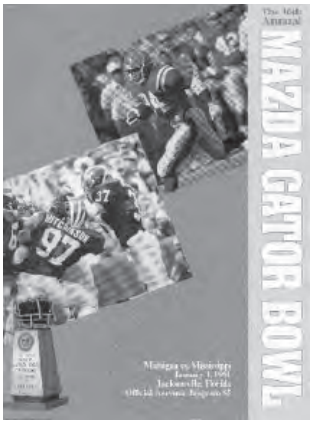
Attendance: 68,927

Michigan	7	7	21	0-35
Mississippi	0	3	0	0- 3



Gary Moeller's Wolverines gained a share of the Big Ten title in his first season, as U-M met Mississippi in the Gator Bowl.

After both teams exchanged early turnovers, Michigan opened the scoring when Elvis Grbac threw deep down the right side of the field to Desmond Howard, for a career-long 63-yard touchdown reception. J.D. Carlson's extra point gave Michigan a 7-0 lead with 1:04 left in the first quarter.

Mississippi scored its only points of the game in the second quarter when Brian Lee kicked a career-long and Gator Bowl record 51-yard field goal to trim the margin to 7-3.

Following a 32-yard Howard return of the ensuing kickoff, Jon Vaughn sprinted around left end for a gain of 37 yards and a first down at the Rebel 31. Five plays later, Grbac threw seven yards to Jarrod Bunch for a 14-3 halftime lead. Grbac's touchdown pass, his 19th of the season, broke Jim Harbaugh's Michigan single season record for touchdown passes thrown (18 in 1985).

Early in the third quarter, Grbac threw a screen pass to Howard who eluded the Mississippi defense en route to a 50-yard touchdown reception and a 21-3 Michigan lead with 10:53 left in the third quarter.

Later in the quarter, Ole Miss quarterback Tom Luke was intercepted by Todd Plate at the Michigan 37. After a three-yard Ricky Powers run and an 11-yard Grbac-to-Howard completion, the Wolverines had a first down on the Ole Miss 49-yard line. On the next play, Powers blasted up the middle for a gain of 44 yards and a first down at the Rebel five. Bunch pounded into the end zone on the next play, giving Michigan a comfortable 28-3 lead.

As the third stanza was nearing completion, Grbac connected with Derrick Alexander over the middle for a 33-yard touchdown—Grbac's fourth of the game, and a Michigan single bowl record. That closed the scoring, giving Michigan a resounding 35-3 win.

Offensive linemen Dean Dingman, Tom Dohring, Greg Skrepenak, Matt Elliott and Steve Everitt were named the game's Most Valuable Players for leading the offense to a Michigan single game record 715 total yards.

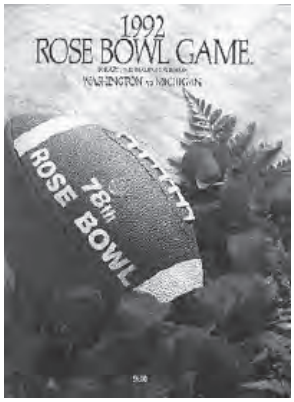
1992 Rose Bowl

vs. Washington

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1992
Attendance: 103,566

Michigan	0	7	0	7-14
Washington	0	13	8	13-34



With a fourth consecutive Big Ten title locked up, the Michigan Wolverines ventured to Pasadena hoping to add a Rose Bowl title and possible national championship to their already impressive list of accolades. Thus far, the 1991 season had seen Desmond Howard win the Heisman Trophy and Erick Anderson garner the first Butkus Award in school history. However, standing in the way of Gary Moeller's team were the Washington Huskies, a team boasting the nation's top-ranked defense.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Huskies went ahead as Billy Joe Hobert faked to Beno Bryant and ran off left tackle for two yards and the touchdown. Howard, an electrifying player, would then add another clip to his collegiate highlight film on Michigan's ensuing drive as he snared a leaping, 35-yard reception over eventual NFL first round selection Dana Hall. Three plays later, Elvis Grbac connected with Walter Smith on a nine-yard scoring pass. Two Travis Hanson field goals made the score 13-7 Huskies at halftime.

Washington extended its lead in the third quarter on an 80-yard touchdown drive. Hobert completed a five-yard TD toss to Mark Bruener and the two-point conversion to Aaron Pierce.

Facing a 21-7 deficit, the Wolverines were again unable to manage a first down and were forced to punt. Excellent field position awaited the Washington offense again, with the ball resting on the Michigan 48. On the second play of the final quarter, Hobert gave a play-action fake and found Pierce in the back of the endzone for a two-yard touchdown. The Wolverines found themselves trailing 27-7.

Michigan started the next drive at its own 29-yard line, and moved the ball out to the 38-yard line before a Grbac keeper on fourth-and-one was stopped. Washington took only six seconds to find the endzone again, as Mark Brunell hit Mario Bailey streaking down the right side for the Huskies final score of the game.

Tyrone Wheatley, a freshman, capped off an outstanding afternoon (68 yards on nine carries) and closed the scoring on a 53-yard touchdown run, and J.D. Carlson's 126th consecutive PAT.

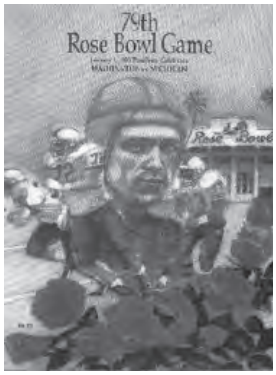
vs. Washington

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1993
Attendance: 94,236

Michigan	10	7	14	7-38
Washington	7	14	10	0-31



For the second consecutive season, the Michigan Wolverines and Washington Huskies celebrated the New Year together at the Rose Bowl. The Huskies were searching for an unprecedented third straight Rose Bowl victory, while the Wolverines were looking to avenge a 34-14 Rose Bowl defeat to Washington in 1992.

Trailing 7-3, the Wolverines energized their fans on a 49-yard touchdown pass from Elvis Grbac to Tony McGee, which capped a six-play, 69-yard drive and provided Michigan the lead after the first quarter. On its next possession, Michigan opened up a 17-7 lead as Tyrone Wheatley, on his way to a 235-yard rushing performance, sprinted untouched 56 yards for a touchdown.

In this offensive showdown, the Huskies responded with two straight touchdowns -- a 64-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jason Shelley, and an 18-yard touchdown strike from Brunell to Mark Bruener. Washington took a 21-17 lead into the halftime intermission.

Wheatley then went to work, taking advantage of a key block by All-American Steve Everitt on an 88-yard touchdown run -- his second long scoring play and a new Rose Bowl record. But the Huskies were far from through. They put together 10 straight points and went ahead 31-24 until Wheatley responded. His third touchdown run of the game -- a 24-yard scamper on a draw play -- tied the game at 31 and swung the momentum back to Michigan.

The Wolverines' game-winning score came on an 80-yard drive, as Grbac, facing third and short from the Huskies' 15-yard line, found McGee at the two. McGee fell into the endzone for the only score of the fourth quarter, the winning points in Michigan's thrilling 38-31 victory.

Michigan	0	21	21	0-42

The 1994 Hall of Fame Bowl opened the New Year's Day bowl festivities with an 11 a.m. kickoff in unusually wet conditions for the Tampa, Fla., site. By the time the rain subsided and the other New Year's Day bowl games were set to begin, Michigan was well on its way to a 42-7 trouncing of North Carolina State. Tyrone Wheatley, in his third consecutive tremendous bowl outing, was named the game's MVP after compiling 124 rushing yards on 18 carries, including touchdown runs of 26 and 18 yards.

Michigan opened the scoring early in the second quarter -- the first points in what would become consecutive 21-point quarters. Wheatley took a pitch from Todd Collins on a sweep to the right and blazed down the sidelines for a 21-yard score. On their subsequent possession, the Wolfpack were forced to punt, and Derrick Alexander made N.C. State pay. He fielded the punt at Michigan's 21-yard line and burst up the middle of the field unchallenged for a 79-yard touchdown -- the longest punt return in Hall of Fame Bowl history.

The Wolverines put away the game late in the half. Closing a 13-play, 85-yard drive, Collins, on fourth-and-10 from the Wolfpack 31, found Amani Toomer in the right corner of the endzone for a score. The conversion gave the Wolverines a 21-0 lead.

The scoring continued for Michigan in the third quarter, as it strung together two more touchdowns—on Clarence Thompson's 43-yard interception return and Wheatley's 18-yard scoring run -- before N.C. State finally broke the shutout with a touchdown of its own. Wheatley's score -- his sixth bowl touchdown over the past three seasons -- was the 35th rushing TD of his career, breaking Rick Leach's school record for career rushing TDs. It was also Wheatley's 40th career touchdown, tying him with Anthony Carter for the most career TDs by a Wolverine. Ricky Powers closed the game's scoring with a 16-yard TD run with 3:13 left in the third.

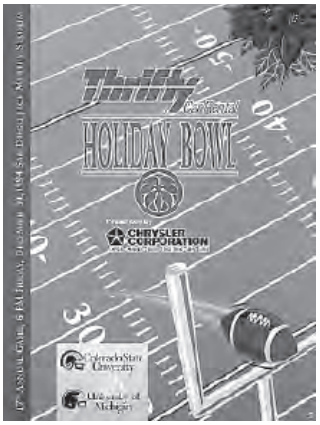
1994 Holiday Bowl

vs. Colorado State

San Diego, California
December 30, 1994
Attendance: 59,453

Michigan	10	7	7	0-24
Colorado St.	7	0	0	7-14



Michigan, who had taken its lumps on the defensive side of the ball during a 7-4 regular season, stuffed Colorado State when it recorded a 24-14 win at Jack Murphy Stadium that helped ease the sting of some painful late-season losses.

CSU nearly mirrored the Wolverines in total yardage (341-340), but gained just 51 yards rushing against a Michigan defense that forced four turnovers and had a key goal-line stand in the second half.

U-M struck first on the game's opening drive on Todd Collins' four-yard TD pass to Amani Toomer with 8:51 left in the opening quarter. The Rams took the ensuing kickoff and turned in a nine-play, 66-yard drive to tie the game, 7-7. The drive was culminated by Paul Turner's 32-yard TD reception.

All-American Remy Hamilton booted a 34-yard field goal with 2:46 remaining in the first quarter to put Michigan ahead 10-7. A blocked punt by freshman Chris Howard gave U-M the ball deep in Rams territory with less than two minutes left before halftime. Collins then connected with Mercury Hayes for a 16-yard TD strike to put U-M ahead 17-7 with 1:28 left in the half.

The Wolverines forced a turnover on CSU's first drive of the second half, taking over on the Rams' 17-yard line. Tyrone Wheatley made short work four plays later with a three-yard plunge into the endzone. That gave U-M a 24-7 lead with 11:58 left in the third quarter.

Midway through the third quarter, a 42-yard pass play helped CSU move the ball from its own 13-yard line to inside the Wolverine 10. A pair of pass interference calls against U-M gave the Rams seven plays to attempt to go eight yards into the endzone.

Four plays from the Michigan two-yard line turned up nothing for Colorado State, as a two-yard loss and incomplete pass on fourth down helped the Wolverines turn away the high-scoring Rams.

Michigan held a 24-7 advantage after three quarters and held that lead until 1:18 remained in the game. CSU finally cracked the stubborn U-M defense with an 18-yard TD pass by Anthony Hill to complete the scoring.

Collins threw for 162 yards (14-for-24) and two touchdowns, earning the game's offensive MVP honors. The Michigan defense tallied 11 tackles for loss, driving the CSU offense back 61 yards.

1995 Alamo Bowl

vs. Texas A&M

San Antonio, Texas

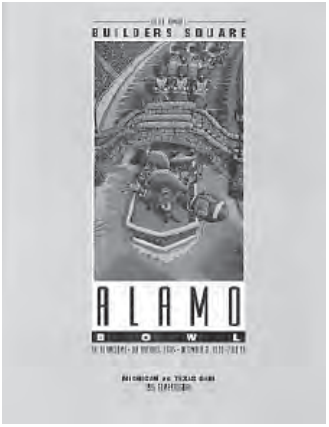
Attendance: 64,597

Michigan	7	3	3	7-20
Texas A&M	10	3	3	6-22



Aggies placekicker and Alamo Bowl offensive MVP Kyle Bryant booted a Michigan-opponent record five field goals in the game (27, 49, 47, 31 and 37 yards), and a Wolverine rally ran out of time at the third Alamo Bowl game.

Midway through the first quarter, Tshimanga Biakabutuka's fumble was recovered by the Aggies on U-M's five-yard line. Two plays later, Eric Bernard took it in to give Texas A&M a 7-0 lead.

The Wolverines responded quickly. Aided by 35 yards in Aggie penalties, Michigan went 77 yards in two plays to tie the game. The drive was capped off by a 41-yard Brian Griese to Amani Toomer touchdown pass.

After the two teams traded field goals, the two defenses settled in, holding their opposition scoreless on the next four possessions. On its final possession of the half, Texas A&M drove to the Michigan 32-yard line, where Bryant kicked a career-best 49-yard field goal at the gun to give the Aggies a 13-10 halftime lead.

Texas A&M extended the lead with a 47-yard field goal with 5:34 left in the third quarter. Michigan took the kickoff at the 19-yard line and ran the ball down to the Texas A&M four-yard line in 11 plays. The Wolverines had to settle for a Remy Hamilton 26-yard field goal to close the gap to 16-13.

The Aggies again extended their lead to six early in the fourth quarter, then held off an ineffective Wolverine offense. After a 31-yard interception return gave the Aggies possession at the Michigan four-yard line, Bryant kicked a 37-yard field goal to put Texas A&M ahead, 22-13, with 23 seconds remaining.

The Wolverines showed strokes of brilliance in the final seconds, with Griese completing long passes to Mercury Hayes and Toomer, the latter going for 44 yards and a touchdown. The onside kick was unsuccessful, and the Aggies ran out the clock to hand U-M a 22-20 defeat.

For the game, Griese completed nine-of-23 passes for 182 yards. Five of those passes went to Toomer, who tallied 135 yards and two touchdowns. Michigan managed only 129 yards on the ground, an Alamo Bowl-record 94 coming from Biakabutuka and 36 from Clarence Williams.

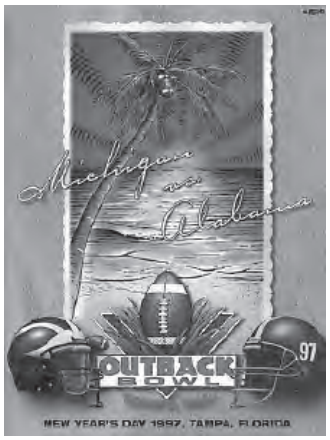
1997 Outback Bowl

vs. Alabama

Tampa, Florida
January 1, 1997
Attendance: 53,161

Alabama	3	0	0	14-17
Michigan	0	6	0	8-14



The highly-regarded defensive units of Michigan and Alabama were showcased in the New Year's Day Outback Bowl, but it was a Crimson Tide offense that led 'Bama to a 17-14 victory.

Michigan entered the game ranked 18th nationally in total defense while Alabama brought the No. 8 defense into the game. Neither unit disappointed.

The Wolverines held the Crimson Tide to 247 yards of total offense and effectively shut down Alabama for most of the game.

Alabama opened the game's scoring with a 43-yard Jon Brock field goal just 2:07 into the game.

Remy Hamilton knotted the game for Michigan with a 44-yard field goal with 8:03 left in the first half, then gave the Wolverines the lead with a 22-yard field goal 20 seconds before the intermission.

The turning point came as Michigan, already leading 6-3 early in the fourth quarter, worked a drive deep into Alabama territory. On third-and-five, quarterback Brian Griese, who started his first game of the season, attempted a short pass across the middle, but was deflected and intercepted by Alabama linebacker Dwayne Rudd. Rudd turned upfield and raced to an Outback Bowl record 88-yard interception return. The score, which came with 12:13 left in the game, gave the Crimson Tide a 10-6 lead that they never relinquished.

Alabama put the game away two possessions later when running back Shaun Alexander dashed 46 yards to put the Crimson Tide up 17-6 with 2:15 left in the game.

Griese hit receiver Russell Shaw with a nine-yard touchdown pass to end a nine-play, 80-yard drive with 1:16 left. After a pass-interference call, fullback Chris Floyd ran the ball in for a two-point conversion to bring Michigan to within three, 17-14.

The Crimson Tide recovered the onside kick and ran out the clock.

Michigan finished the game with 415 yards in total offense, but it was unable to put the ball in the endzone. Three times the Wolverines failed to score after moving within the Alabama 35-yard line.

Griese completed 21-of-37 passes for 287 yards. He threw one touchdown and one interception.

1998 Rose Bowl

vs. Washington State

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1998
Attendance: 101,219

Washington St.	7	0	6	3	-16
Michigan	0	7	7	7	-21

Michigan claimed its 11th national title with a 21-16 victory over Washington State at the Rose Bowl. The Wolverines' No. 1-ranked defense held the high-powered Cougars' offense to their lowest scoring output of the season, while Rose Bowl MVP Brian Griese completed 18-of-30 passes for 251 yards and three TDs.

WSU took a 7-0 first-quarter lead on a 15-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Leaf to wide receiver Kevin McKenzie.

U-M tied the score at seven entering the half as Griese threw a 53-yard touchdown pass to wideout Tai Streets.

After a Michigan punt pinned Washington State at the one-yard line, Leaf led a go-ahead 99-yard third-quarter scoring drive that ended with a 14-yard reverse by wide receiver Michael Tims. James Hall kept the deficit at 13-7 by blocking the extra point attempt.

The Wolverines' offense responded immediately as Griese and Streets connected on a 58-yard TD, their second long scoring play of the game. Kicker Kraig Baker hit the PAT to give Michigan its first lead, 14-13.

After a defensive stop, U-M extended its lead to 21-13 as Griese rolled right and found tight end Jerame Tuman for the game-winning 23-yard touchdown.

WSU scored the games final points with 7:25 remaining as kicker Rian Lindell hit a 48-yard field goal.

Holding a slim 21-16 lead, the Wolverines embarked on their most important drive of the season. U-M's 16-play series consumed 6:56 and saw Griese direct four third-down conversions. After lining up to attempt a potential 47-yard field goal, Jay Feely received the direct snap and proceeded to pooch punt.

Pinned deep at their seven-yard line with 29 seconds left, the Cougars added a little drama to the final moments. Leaf connected with Nian Taylor on a 46-yard pass play on third down to cross into Michigan territory. After a delay of game penalty, Leaf threw to Love Jefferson who lateralled the ball to Jason Clayton for a 36-yard gain to the U-M 16-yard line. WSU was unable to stop the clock as time ran out.

Dhani Jones recorded two sacks and a team-high 10 tackles, while Charles Woodson stopped a WSU drive with an endzone interception and recorded four PBUs. Offensively, Streets caught four passes for 127 yards and two TDs, and Chris Howard gained 70 yards rushing on 19 carries.

vs. Arkansas

Orlando, Florida
January 1, 1999
Attendance: 67,584

Arkansas	0	10	14	7	31
Michigan	3	21	0	21	45

The Michigan football team became the first Big Ten team to win the Citrus Bowl in five years with a 45-31 victory over No. 11 Arkansas. Trailing 31-24 with just 5:49 left in the game, the Wolverines rallied with 21 points in a span of 4:02 to win their 15th bowl game all-time.

Anthony Thomas led the Wolverines with three rushing touchdowns and 139 yards on the ground. Thomas was named Citrus Bowl Most Valuable Player for his performance, while linebacker Sam Sword was named the Michigan Defensive MVP by the media for his 11-tackle performance.

The Wolverines scored the games first points with 6:29 left in the first quarter when Jay Feely connected on a 43-yard field goal. Arkansas took a 7-3 lead on a 35-yard TD pass from Clint Stoerner to Michael Williams in the second quarter. Michigan responded with a two-yard touchdown run from Anthony Thomas, and a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown by linebacker Ian Gold. After Arkansas' Todd Latourette booted a 42-yard field goal to trim the Wolverine lead to 17-10, Michigan marched 69 yards in just 1:38 and capped the drive with a five-yard touchdown run by Thomas. The Wolverines took a 24-10 lead into halftime.

The Razorbacks scored three consecutive second half touchdowns to take a 31-24 lead midway through the fourth quarter.

Trailing for the first time since an early 7-3 deficit, Michigan responded with three consecutive touchdowns of its own. Anthony Thomas tied the game at 31, on a one-yard run.

After the Wolverine defense forced the Razorbacks to punt on their next possession, Brady found DiAllo Johnson in the endzone from 21 yards out with 2:25 remaining.

U-M cornerback James Whitley sealed the victory with 1:47 remaining, intercepting a Stoerner pass and returning it 26 yards for a touchdown.

Michigan erased a pair of 14-point deficits in winning a thrilling 35-34 overtime game against Alabama in the 2000 FedEx Orange Bowl at Pro Player Stadium. The Wolverines played in, and won, their first overtime contest in school history.

With the score knotted at 28 at the end of regulation, Michigan scored on its initial play of overtime when quarterback Tom Brady found tight end Shawn Thompson on a 25-yard TD pass. Kicker Hayden Epstein hit the extra point to give U-M a 35-28 lead, its first of the contest.

On Alabama's first possession of overtime, Andrew Zow hit Antonio Carter with a 21-yard TD pass on the second play of the drive. However, Alabama's Ryan Pflugner pushed the extra point attempt wide right and Michigan claimed the victory.

Sophomore wide receiver David Terrell was named Orange Bowl MVP after setting career bests in receiving yards (150) and receiving touchdowns (three) as well as equaling his career-high in receptions (10). Brady capped his career with a career-best four TD passes on 34-of-46 passing for a UM bowl record 369 yards.

During regulation, Michigan trimmed the deficit to 14-7 with 58 seconds left in the first half when Brady hit Terrell on a 27-yard scoring strike.

Michigan held Alabama on its first offensive possession of the second half and marched 59 yards to even the score at 14. The Crimson Tide responded with back-to-back touchdowns from Shaun Alexander and Freddie Milons.

Michigan closed the gap when Brady and Terrell connected on a 20-yard TD pass with 5:42 left in the third quarter. After holding Alabama on its next possession, Michigan tied the game (28-28) as junior tailback Anthony Thomas scored on a three-yard run.

The Wolverines dominated the fourth quarter, but a fumble heading into the endzone for the go-ahead score and a blocked 36-yard field goal attempt on the final play of regulation, sent the game into overtime.

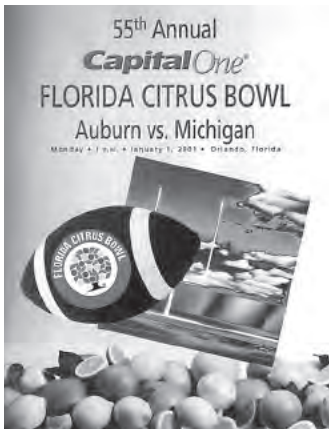
2001 Capital One Florida Citrus Bowl

vs. Auburn

Orlando, Florida
January 1, 2001
Attendance: 66,928

Michigan	7	14	10	0-31
Auburn	0	14	7	7-28



An efficient passing offense and a relentless ground attack led Michigan to a 31-28 victory over Auburn in the 2001 Florida Citrus Bowl. Drew Henson completed 15-of-20 passes for 294 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while tailback Anthony Thomas rushed 32 times for 182 yards and two touchdowns.

On its second possession, Michigan brought a trick out of the bag, using a flea-flicker to fool the Tigers' defense and score a 31-yard touchdown pass from Henson to David Terrell. This 76-yard drive in 70 seconds set Michigan's efficient tempo for the game.

Auburn struck back early in the second quarter when senior quarterback Ben Leard hooked up with wideout Ronney Daniels on a 19-yard touchdown pass. Leard hit Clifton Robinson for a 20-yard touchdown on the Tigers' next drive. Leard threw for 394 yards on the day, mostly in an effort to keep up with the Wolverine offense.

Michigan scored the next three touchdowns of the game due in large part to Thomas' brutish running. He racked up two touchdowns and became U-M's all-time leading rusher and scorer.

In the midst of the Wolverines' offensive explosion, sophomore safety Julius Curry and senior safety DeWayne Patmon each made key interceptions to halt Auburn drives into Michigan territory. Other defensive stars for the Wolverines included junior linebackers Eric Brackins and Larry Foote with 13 and eight tackles, respectively, and senior lineman Eric Wilson with six tackles and a sack.

Though Leard and junior running back Rudi Johnson tried to bring Auburn back, junior kicker Hayden Epstein connected on a 41-yard field goal towards the end of the third-quarter, giving U-M a 31-21 lead. Auburn added another late touchdown, but Michigan recovered an onside kick with 2:22 remaining and held on for the victory.

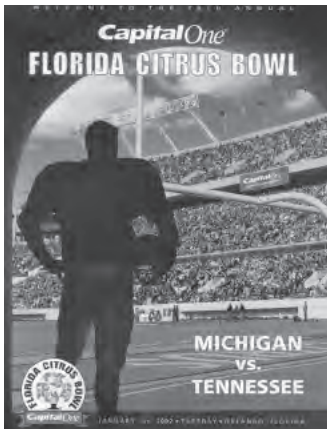
Michigan	0	10	0	7-17
Tennessee	10	14	7	14-45



Tennessee won the first-ever meeting between the two schools and in the process ended Michigan's streak of four straight Jan. 1 bowl victories with a 45-17 win on New Year's Day. Tennessee scored the first 17 points of the game, then added another 21 unanswered points to start the second half.

B.J. Askew was named U-M's Offensive MVP and senior linebacker Larry Foote garnered the Defensive MVP by the media. UT quarterback Casey Clausen was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Askew gained 71 rushing yards on nine carries and added a 14-yard touchdown on a screen pass. Marquise Walker caught five passes for 100 yards and junior/sophomore quarterback John Navarre completed 21-of-39 passes for 240 yards and two TDs.

Foote recorded a team-high nine tackles and two pass breakups with outside linebacker Victor Hobson adding eight stops.

Tennessee jumped out to a 17-0 lead on a 32-yard field goal by Alex Walls, a three-yard slant to Kelley Washington and Clausen's one-yard scramble to begin the second quarter.

Michigan trimmed the deficit to 17-7 as Navarre completed a 14-yard screen pass to Askew for a touchdown. The punt rush team set up U-M's best field position of the game by forcing a six-yard punt by the Volunteers.

UT answered on the ensuing possession as Clausen scored his second straight TD on a one-yard keeper.

Utilizing their two-minute offense, the Wolverines moved inside the 10-yard line but settled for a 28-yard field goal by Hayden Epstein with 37 seconds left in the half.

The Volunteers struck quickly in the third quarter as Clausen completed a 64-yard TD pass to Witten that gave UT a 31-10 lead.

Tennessee scored a pair of touchdowns in the fourth quarter as Washington caught a 37-yard TD reception and Travis Stephens scored on a three-yard run.

The Wolverines found the end zone with 9:32 remaining as Navarre completed a 24-yard TD pass to wide receiver Calvin Bell.

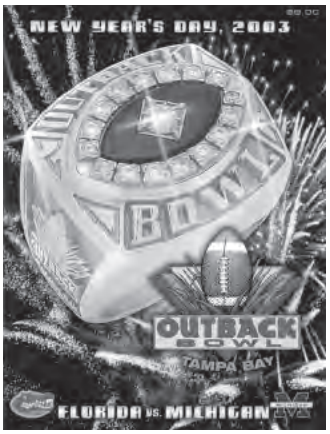
2003 Outback Bowl

vs. Florida

Tampa, Florida
January 1, 2003
Attendance: 65,101

Florida	0	16	7	7-30
Michigan	7	14	14	3-38



Michigan claimed a 38-30 victory in a back-and-forth affair against No. 22 Florida in the 2003 Outback Bowl at Raymond James Stadium.

Tailback Chris Perry earned Outback Bowl MVP honors after setting a bowl game record and a modern era U-M bowl record with four touchdowns. Perry matched his career high with 28 carries for 85 yards and four TDs, and added a career-best six receptions for 108 yards. Quarterback John Navarre completed 21-of-36 passes for a career-high 319 yards and one score.

Victor Hobson tallied a career-best 12 tackles and two tackles for loss, and secured the win with an interception on Florida's final drive.

Michigan took advantage of a Florida turnover as Perry scored on a four-yard touchdown run late in the first quarter. U-M gained possession at the Florida three-yard line after recovering an errant shotgun snap. Florida, however, answered to take a 13-7 lead early in the second quarter on a pair of TD runs by tailback Ernest Graham.

U-M took control of the game on a 12-play scoring drive as Perry leaped over the goal line on a fourth-down play from the one-yard line.

The Gators regained the lead, 16-14, with 1:37 left in the first half as placekicker Matt Leach connected on a 29-yard field goal, but Michigan responded to take a 21-16 halftime advantage as Navarre completed an eight-yard touchdown pass to Bellamy with 27 seconds left.

Florida scored on its opening possession of the second half to gain a 23-21 lead. The Wolverines answered the Gators' TD and took the lead for good, 28-23, on a seven-yard TD run by Perry. U-M extended its lead to 35-23 as Perry scored his fourth TD of the game, a 12-yard run through the middle of the defense.

Florida trimmed the deficit to 35-30 with 8:21 remaining as Grossman fired a three-yard TD pass to tight end Aaron Walker.

On the Gator's next possession, a Hobson sack forced Florida to punt the ball away. U-M got the ball back and extended its lead to 38-30 with 2:20 left as kicker Adam Finley connected on a 33-yard field goal.

The Gators attempted to mount one final drive to tie the game. After reaching the Wolverine 37-yard line, Florida tried a wide receiver reverse pass, but it was intercepted by Hobson to seal Michigan's victory.

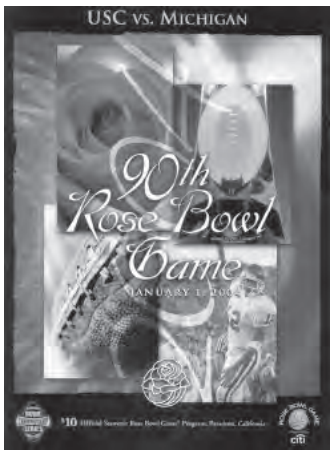
2004 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 2004
Attendance: 93,849

USC	7	7	14	0-28
Michigan	0	0	7	7-14



Top-ranked Southern California aired it out in a 28-14 win against No. 4 Michigan in the 90th Rose Bowl game, claimed its ninth Associated Press national title.

USC quarterback Matt Leinart, who was voted the game's most valuable player, completed 23 of his 34 pass attempts for 327 yards and three touchdowns. USC managed to score four receiving touchdowns on Michigan's top rated pass defense.

U-M quarterback John Navarre finished his career by completing 27 of his 46 passes for 271 yards and a touchdown. Navarre was sacked a season-high nine times. Tailback Chris Perry carried 23 times for 85 yards and one score. Braylon Edwards added 10 catches for 107 yards.

The Wolverines threatened on their opening possession of the game, as they moved from their own 20 to the Trojans' 21. However freshman kicker Garrett Rivas' 48-yard field goal attempt was blocked by USC Shaun Cody. The Trojans took over and needed just four plays to score. The TD came on a 25-yard strike down the left hashmarks to Keary Colbert.

Michigan began its next-to-last drive of the first half at its own 6. The Wolverines gained a first down, but on third-and-18 from their 9, Navarre's pass bounced off Edwards' heel and into the hands of USC linebacker Lofa Tatupu. On third down from the six, Leinart tossed a soft pass to LenDale White in the left flat and he scrambled into the end zone for a 14-0 lead at the half.

Behind 21-0 early in the third quarter, Michigan answered with a 16-play, 76-yard drive. On second down from the USC five-yard line, Navarre fired a strike to tight end Tim Massaquoi. The touchdown pass was the 72nd of Navarre's career, breaking a tie with Elvis Grbac for the U-M all-time passing TD lead.

The Trojans answered with an eight-play, 72-yard drive to take a 28-7 lead. The Mike Williams took a reverse pitch and fired a 15-yard strike to a wide-open Leinart.

Michigan opened the fourth quarter with an 11-play, 85-yard drive to cut the USC lead to 28-14 with 11:06 remaining. From the two-yard line, Perry took a toss from Navarre and followed his blockers around the right side for the TD.

Leinart then fumbled a snap, which resulted in a turnover. Michigan was unable to take advantage and turned the ball over on downs. The Trojans ran out the clock.

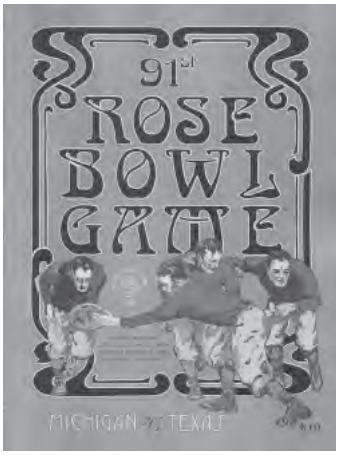
2005 Rose Bowl

vs. Texas

Pasadena, California
January 1, 2005
Attendance: 93,468

Texas	7	7	7	17-38
Michigan	0	14	17	6-37



Dusty Mangum's 37-yard field goal as time expired gave No. 6 Texas a 38-37 win over No. 13 Michigan in the 91st Rose Bowl Game.

Braylon Edwards led U-M with 10 catches for 109 yards and three touchdowns. Edwards became the Big Ten's career receiving TD leader, closing his career with 39 scores to surpass the 37 TDs attained by former Wolverine Anthony Carter (1979-82).

After an early Texas touchdown, Edwards evened the score at 7-7 with 12:08 left in the second quarter on a 39-yard TD pass from Chad Henne along the left side of the Texas end zone. Edwards' scored was the 37th of his career, tying the Big Ten and U-M school record. The four-play scoring drive covered 50 yards in 1:39. Hart had runs of five, three and three yards to move the chains prior to the score.

Texas regained the lead at 14-7, then U-M took advantage of the game's first turnover and knotted the score at 14 prior to half as Henne tossed an eight-yard TD pass to Edwards.

The Wolverines gained their first lead of the game at 6:29 of the third quarter, 28-21, as Henne tossed a nine-yard TD pass to Edwards on a slant pass. U-M's balanced scoring drive moved 77 yards in 10 plays, with 40 yards coming through the air and 32 on the ground.

After a Michigan field goal, Texas quarterback Vince Young scored his third rushing TD of the game, a 10-yard run at 9:51 of the fourth quarter, and trimmed the deficit to 31-28.

The Wolverines boosted their lead to 34-28 with 6:09 left as Rivas converted a 32-yard field goal. U-M answered the UT score, moving 60 yards in 11 plays. However Texas quickly drove down the field for another score, taking a 35-34 lead.

Breaston began the Wolverines' next drive with a 53-yard kickoff return. It was his sixth kickoff return of the game for a total of 221 yards, setting Michigan and Rose Bowl records. Hart carried for 18 yards in the next three plays, ending on the 25-yard line, where Rivas completed the drive with a 42-yard field goal. This was his third field goal of the game, tying the Rose Bowl record.

Mangum capped the Longhorns' 10-play winning drive with his 37-yard field goal as time expired.

2005 Alamo Bowl

vs. Nebraska

San Antonio, Texas
December 28, 2005
Attendance: 62,016

Michigan	7	7	7	7-28
Nebraska	7	7	3	15-32

The Wolverines were edged by the Nebraska Cornhuskers in a back-and-forth shootout at the 2005 Alamo Bowl. Despite relentless defensive pressure by Michigan (14 tackles for loss), the resilient Husker offense put up enough points for the victory. The San Antonio Alamodome saw two teams with a potent passing attack, and a plethora of self-inflicted wounds. Michigan and Nebraska combined for 15 penalties and five turnovers in the game. The Cornhuskers' Zac Taylor passed for 167 yards and three touchdowns, while Wolverine Chad Henne threw for 270 yards and 3 touchdowns.

Both teams got on the board quickly, with touchdowns on each team's opening drive of the game. Quarterback Zach Taylor hit receiver Terrance Nunn on a slant for a 52-yard score. On the ensuing kickoff, Steve Breaston had an Alamo Bowl record 69-yard return to the Nebraska 30. Shortly thereafter, Michigan capitalized with a 13-yard pass from Henne to tight end Tyler Ecker, knotting the score at 7-7.

Nebraska's next two possessions ended in interceptions on consecutive plays by cornerback Leon Hall, the Alamo Bowl Defensive MVP. Michigan was able to convert on one of those turnovers with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Henne to tight end Mike Massey. The Huskers responded with a seven-play, 70-yard touchdown drive, on a Nate Swift 14-yard touchdown catch. As a result, both teams headed into halftime tied at 14.

With a 21-yard TD pass to Mario Manningham and a seven-yard touchdown scramble, Henne sparked 28-17 Wolverine lead with less than a quarter to play.

Nebraska responded with a 31-yard touchdown run by Cory Ross to pull within three points, 28-25, with 8:08 remaining.

Michigan turned the ball over three times in the final 16 minutes, twice on fumbles with under eight minutes remaining in the regulation and an end zone interception. Terrance Nunn caught his second score on a 13-yard reception for the winning margin following a ruled fumble that gave the Husker's possession at U-M's 17-yard line.

Michigan's remaining two possessions were thwarted, including a desparation lateral play that nearly went the distance as time expired.

2007 Rose Bowl

vs. USC

Pasadena, Calif.
January 1, 2007
Attendance: 93,852

USC	3	0	16	13-32
Michigan	0	3	0	14-18

Michigan was unable to overcome a pair of turnovers and 16 unanswered points in the third quarter to Southern California, losing 32-18 in the 93rd Rose Bowl Game. The Trojans snapped a 3-3 halftime tie and scored 16 unanswered points in the third quarter following a pair of turnovers by the Wolverines.

After a 26-yard field goal by Trojan kicker Mario Danelo, Michigan answered with one of its own, a 43-yard field goal by Garrett Rivas at 13:35 of the second quarter. Quarterback Chad Henne completed his first five passes of the drive for 50 yards before a pair of incomplete passes ended the series at the Trojans' 26-yard line.

The Trojans threatened on the following drive, but linebacker Shawn Crable stripped the ball from quarterback Josh Booty and defensive tackle Alan Branch recovered at the U-M 21-yard line. Both teams were held scoreless for the remainder of the half, entering halftime with a 3-3 tie.

The Trojans regained the lead in the third quarter, 10-3, on a two-yard touchdown pass from Booty to Chris McFoy. The USC lead was extended to 19-3 with a 22-yard hookup between Dwayne Jarrett and Booty and a 26-yard field goal by Danelo.

Michigan kept hope alive early in the fourth quarter as Henne completed an 11-yard touchdown pass to receiver Adrian Arrington. The scoring drive covered 80 yards in eight plays, with Henne completing all six passes for 62 yards. Tailback Mike Hart rumbled into the end zone on the two-point conversion to trim the deficit to 19-11.

The Trojans answered with a 62-yard touchdown pass on a fly pattern from Booty to Jarrett and a seven-yard touchdown pass from Booty to Steve Smith, increasing the advantage to 32-11. The Wolverines would only respond with a 41-yard scoring pass from Henne to receiver Steve Breaston.

2008 Capital One Bowl

vs. Florida

Orlando, Fla.
January 1, 2008
Attendance: 69,748

Michigan	7	14	7		13-41
Florida	7	7	14		7-35

In Lloyd Carr's final game as Michigan's head coach, the Wolverines battled to an emotional victory over ninth-ranked Florida in the 2008 Capital One Bowl. The game provided the graduating seniors their first post-season victory and improved Carr's 13-year head coaching record to 122-40.

Despite three turnovers inside the opposition's 5-yard line, the Maize and Blue recorded a season-high in points scored with a 41-35 triumph over the Gators. An aggressive Wolverine attack, which finished with 524 yards of total offense, struck on its first possession. After storming down the field 93-yards, Chad Henne collaborated with Mario Manningham on a 21-yard connection, giving the team a 7-0 advantage. Henne completed 25-of-39 attempts for 373 yards and three touchdowns on the day, earning the game's Most Valuable Player award.

After Florida stalled on their first possession, the Gator's answered with two consecutive scores to grasp a 14-7 lead, but Mike Hart evened the scoreboard with a 3-yard run in the second quarter. In his Michigan send-off, Hart carried the ball 32 times for 129 and two trips to the end zone. On the following drive, Terrance Taylor blocked a 35-yard field goal attempt, locking the score until eight seconds remained in the half. Henne hit Adrian Arrington, his favorite target of the game, on a one-yard out to give the squad a 21-14 halftime lead. Arrington finished his career-day collecting 153 yards and a pair of touchdowns on nine receptions.

The Wolverines recovered their own kickoff to begin the second half, setting up Mike Hart's second touchdown and a 28-14 lead. Florida responded with two scores to level the match at 28-28, but Michigan claimed a 31-28 edge with a 37-yard field goal. Florida regained the lead 35-31, but Michigan tallied ten unanswered points to close the contest. Michigan's final touchdown resulted from a four play drive, highlighted by two spectacular Arrington catches for 37-yards and an 18-yard touchdown. Michigan drilled a 41-yard field goal between two Florida four-and-outs, sealing the Wolverine victory.

2011 Gator Bowl

vs. Mississippi St.

Jacksonville, Fla.
January 1, 2011
Attendance: 77,497

Miss. St.	10	21	14	7-52
Michigan	14	0	0	0-14

The University of Michigan football team was unable to climb out from a first-half deficit at the 2011 Gator Bowl on New Year's Day, falling 52-14 to No. 21 Mississippi State at Everbank Field. The Wolverines were unable to even their all-time bowl record and finish the campaign with a 7-6 record.

Michigan took the opening kickoff and marched 78 yards in 10 plays to take a 7-0 lead on a 10-yard pass from Denard Robinson to Roy Roundtree. Robinson had two huge runs during the drive, a run of 24 yards into Bulldogs territory and a 22-yard scamper to the 11-yard line, while completing all three passes for 27 yards.

Mississippi State answered on its opening possession on a four-yard pass from Chris Relf to receiver Arceto Clark on third-and-goal. After holding the Wolverines on their second possession, the Bulldogs grabbed the lead, 10-7, on a 42-yard field goal by Derek Depasquale.

The Wolverines took the ensuing kickoff and regained the lead, 14-10, on a 27-yard touchdown pass to Martavious Odoms with 34 seconds left in the first quarter. The five-play drive covered 72 yards in 100 seconds. Robinson completed all four passes for 72 yards, with each of the four completions coming to a different receiver.

The Bulldogs continued the scoring affair with 21 unanswered points to close out the first half, taking a 31-14 lead into the break.

The Michigan defense forced the Bulldogs into their first punt of the game on the opening series of the second half, and receiver Junior Hemingway gave U-M excellent field position as he returned the punt 33 yards to the Bulldogs' 23-yard line.

However, the Maize and Blue were unable to stage a comeback as MSU continued to score, closing out the game with six unanswered touchdown scores after the early Michigan lead to give the Bulldogs a 52-14 Gator Bowl victory.

2012 Sugar Bowl

vs. Virginia Tech

New Orleans, La.
January 3, 2012
Attendance: 64,512

Michigan	0	10	7	3	3-23
Virginia Tech	3	3	3	11	0-20

Brendan Gibbons drilled a 37-yard field goal in the first overtime session to give the University of Michigan football team (No. 13 AP/No. 12 USA Today Coaches) a 23-20 victory over Virginia Tech (No. 17 AP/No. 11 USA Today) on Jan. 3, 2012, in the 78th annual Allstate Sugar Bowl at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The triumph is U-M's first at the Sugar Bowl.

Virginia Tech had more than double Michigan's total yards, 377-184, and had 22 first downs to Michigan's 12 but settled for four field goals in regulation by third-string kicker Justin Myer, who tied the game with a 25-yard field goal with two seconds left before missing from 37 yards out in the opening possession of overtime.

Denard Robinson highlighted the offense with a pair of touchdown passes -- from 45 and 18 yards -- to wideout Junior Hemingway, the game MVP. Robinson finished 9-for-21 for 117 yards passing and threw an interception. He rushed 13 times for a season-low 13 yards. Meanwhile on defense, safety Jordan Kovacs, linebacker Desmond Morgan and defensive lineman Mike Martin notched 11, 10 and 10 tackles, respectively.

Virginia Tech quarterback Logan Thomas, who was 19-of-28 for 214 yards with one interception, scored the Hokies' only touchdown on a one-yard keeper, capping a 16-play drive with 10:22 remaining in regulation. Virginia Tech then tied the game at 17-all after a successful two-point conversion.

Hokies receiver Danny Coale had eight catches for 117 yards and nearly made a spectacular diving catch for a touchdown in overtime. Coale held on to the ball for what was initially ruled a score, but the play was overturned on video review, which showed the receiver narrowly landed on the sideline. The result of that third-down play forced Tech to try for Myer's failed field goal.

Michigan then ran three consecutive runs to set up Gibbons in the middle of the field for the game-winner.

2013 Outback Bowl

vs. South Carolina

Tampa, Fla.
January 1, 2013
Attendance: 54,527

South Carolina	14	7	0	12-33
Michigan	3	10	9	6-28

After claiming two fourth-quarter leads, the University of Michigan football team fell to South Carolina (No. 11 AP/No. 10 USA Today), 33-28, on Tuesday, Jan. 1, 2013, in the Outback Bowl at Raymond James Stadium. The Gamecocks scored a touchdown with 11 seconds remaining to secure their second straight 11-win season.

The Wolverines took a one-point advantage with less than four minutes left on a touchdown reception by senior/junior receiver Jeremy Gallon, but Michigan was unable to halt South Carolina's game-winning drive.

Junior quarterback Devin Gardner threw for 214 yards and three scores, while Gallon caught a career-high nine passes for 145 yards and two touchdowns.

Senior quarterback Denard Robinson totaled a team-high 100 rushing yards and claimed first place on the all-time NCAA quarterback rushing list with 4,495 yards, passing Pat White (4,480) from West Virginia.

Michigan had the ball and a one-point lead (22-21) when the Maize and Blue regained possession with 10 minutes remaining in the game. On a fourth-and-four, Michigan faked a punt and narrowly gained a first down. On the next play, Jadeveon Clowney hit senior running back Vincent Smith as he took the handoff, causing a fumble that Clowney recovered.

South Carolina quarterback Connor Shaw connected with Sanders on the first South Carolina play for a 30-yard touchdown pass to reclaim the lead, 27-22, with eight minutes to go.

On the ensuing Michigan possession, the Wolverines picked up four first downs, before Gardner found Gallon in the end zone for the second time on the afternoon. The score gave Michigan its second lead, 28-27, with 3:29 remaining in the contest.

The Gamecocks marched the ball down the field in the final minutes, scoring a 32-yard touchdown with 11 seconds remaining to take a 33-28 advantage, leaving the Wolverines without time to respond as the final seconds elapsed.

2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl

vs. Kansas State

Tempe, Ariz.
December 28, 2013
Attendance: 53,284

Michigan	3	3	0	8-14
Kansas State	14	7	0	10-31

The University of Michigan football team fell to Kansas State, 31-14, on Saturday (Dec. 28) in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl. Freshman quarterback Shane Morris, who made his first career start in place of the injured Devin Gardner, tallied 239 yards total offense for Michigan, while safety Thomas Gordon led the way with nine tackles.

Kansas State's Tyler Lockett accumulated five catches for 63 yards and three touchdowns in the first half after leading the Wildcats with more than 1,100 yards and eight scores during the regular season.

Morris completed 15-of-19 first-half passes for 121 yards, but the Michigan offense was unable to reach the end zone and went into the half down 21-6.

The Wolverines defense stepped up in the third frame, as linebacker Jake Ryan forced a fumble that was recovered by Mario Ojemudia, marking the first turnover of the contest, with less than two minutes remaining in the third.

Kansas State got the ball back and drove down to the U-M five-yard line early in the final quarter, but the Wildcats were stopped there and forced to settle for a 22-yard field goal. This made the score 24-6 with less than 10 minutes remaining in the game.

Later in the quarter, a Morris' pass attempt was intercepted by Dante Barnett and returned 51 yards deep into Michigan territory. Two plays later, the Wildcats extended their lead to 31-6 following a one-yard scoring plunge.

The U-M offense finally found the end zone on its final drive, which featured a 40-yard run by Morris. Running back Fitzgerald Toussaint scored the touchdown in his final game, turning the corner from just three yards out. Following a successful two-point conversion attempt, the score was 31-14 with just a minute and a half remaining.

During the last Michigan drive, fifth-year senior receiver Jeremy Gallon set the single-season program record for receiving yardage. He passed Braylon Edwards, whose 1,330 yards in 2004 marked the previous record. Gallon finished his final season with 89 receptions, 1,373 yards and nine scores.

2016 Citrus Bowl

vs. Florida

Orlando, Florida
January 1, 2016
Attendance: 63,113

Michigan	7	10	14	10-41
Florida	7	0	0	0-7

The Michigan football team defeated Florida, 41-7, on Saturday (Jan.1) in the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl. Graduate student quarterback Jake Rudock, who completed 20-of-30 (64.5%) pass attempts on the day, tallied 307 yards total offense for Michigan. Junior runningback De'Veon Smith led the team in carries, with 25 rush attempts for 111 yards.

Rudock closed his collegiate career with an impressive effort at Citrus Bowl Stadium, the same field where he clinched a state and national championship with St. Thomas Aquinas High School. The game MVP, as voted by the media, Rudock completed 20-of-31 passes for 278 yards and three touchdowns, becoming just the second Michigan quarterback to throw for 3,000 yards in a single season (John Navarre, 2003).

Leading 17-7 at halftime, the Wolverines scored on their first two possessions of the third quarter -- the first on a three-yard slant to receiver Grant Perry (5 receptions, 51 yards) and the second on a two-yard plunge from fullback Sione Houma to claim a 31-7 lead.

Rudock started the fourth quarter where he left off, tossing a seven-yard touchdown to tailback Drake Johnson (58 rushing yards on six carries, two total touchdowns), before kicker Kenny Allen closed the scoring with a 25-yard field goal with 6:42 to play.

In the first half, Florida leaned heavily on QB Treon Harris and a series of trick plays to convert 7-of-9 third downs. Harris' scrambling ability yielded more than five yards per carry, but his inconsistency through the air (8-17-1, 146 yards) and two red-zone interceptions proved ominous.

Harris did not complete a second half pass, finishing the game 8-of-21 with one interception and 55 yards on 11 carries. Michigan held Florida to 28 yards in the second half and 0-for-4 on third downs. Defensive lineman Chris Wormley's 2.5 tackles for a loss led the Michigan defense with the Wolverines recording six TFLs in the game. Linebacker Joe Bolden had a team-high seven total tackles.

2016 Orange Bowl

vs. Florida State

Miami Gardens, Florida
December 30, 2016
Attendance: 67,432

Michigan	3	3	9	17-32
Florida State	17	3	0	13-33

The No. 6-ranked Wolverines and No. 10 Seminoles produced an instant classic, with FSU escaping with the win, 33-32, in the Orange Bowl.

U-M fought valiantly to claim a 30-27 lead with 1:57 left to play after FSU built a 27-15 lead with less than eight minutes remaining in the game. Michigan scored a pair of touchdowns only to see Florida State score the winning TD with 36 seconds left.

Trailing by 14 entering the third quarter, Michigan drove to FSU's 10-yard line before Kenny Allen converted a 37-yard field goal.

Later in the quarter, the defensive pressure broke through as Mike McCray picked off a pass and returned it for a touchdown. U-M was unable to convert the two-point try, making the score 20-15.

On third-and-22, FSU's Dalvin Cook slipped a tackle and rumbled 71 yards to U-M's 16-yard line. Three plays later, Francois ran into the end zone to give FSU a 27-15 lead.

With less than eight minutes to play, Michigan took the ball at FSU's 37 after a targeting penalty on a punt. U-M converted two third downs, the final one as Wilton Speight found Khalid Hill for a TD, cutting the deficit to 27-22 with 5:22 to play.

U-M's defense forced a three-and-out, getting the ball back with 4:14 remaining. Two plays after a third-down run by Speight, Chris Evans broke through the line for a 30-yard score. Speight found Amara Darboh on the two-point attempt, giving U-M a 30-27 lead with 1:57 to play.

On the ensuing kickoff, FSU's Keith Gavin broke a tackle and ran 66 yards to U-M's 34-yard line. On third down, Francois found Nyquan Murray on a fade for the touchdown and a 33-30 lead with 36 seconds left. The extra point was blocked and Josh Metellus returned it for a defensive conversion, making the score 33-32 in favor of the Seminoles.

Michigan was come-from-behind again as a fourth-down pass was intercepted to seal the game.

With Jabrill Peppers unable to play after sustaining an injury the day before the game, FSU raced out to a 17-3 lead after the first quarter.

U-M tallied its first half points on a 19- and 28-yard field gaols by Allen.

Speight finished 21-of-38 for 163 yards and a touchdown. Evans led the ground game with eight carries for 49 yards and one TD.

2018 Outback Bowl

vs. South Carolina

Tampa, Florida
January 1, 2018
Attendance: 45,687

Michigan	6	3	10	0-19
USC	0	3	13	10-26

Five second-half turnovers were costly as South Carolina scored 23 unanswered points in a 26-19 comeback victory over Michigan in the Outback Bowl.

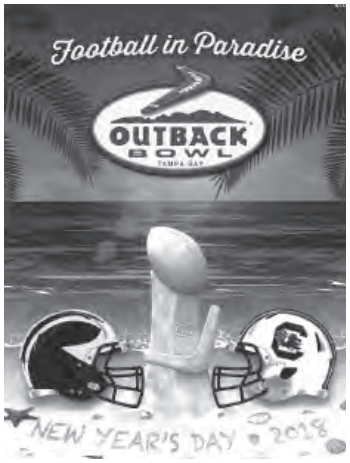
The Wolverines led 19-3 late in the third quarter but the Gamecocks took momentum and responded with touchdowns on three straight drives.

Following a first-half defensive struggle, Michigan marched 66 yards on its first possession of the third quarter, scoring the game's first touchdown when Ben Mason bullied his way into the end zone from one yard out, giving Michigan a 16-3 lead.

Noah Furbush proceeded to intercept Jake Bentley on the next possession and returned the ball to USC's 27-yard line. Michigan couldn't capitalize as Karan Higdon fumbled on the four-yard line. The defense produced another three-and-out and increased its lead to 19-3 as Quinn Nordin buried a 48-yarder.

South Carolina began its rally as Rico Dowdle scampered into the end zone from 17 yards out; the two-point conversion attempt failed to make the score 19-9. Michigan then fumbled on a handoff exchange and South Carolina responded immediately as Bentley found Bryan Edwards for a touchdown on the very first play after the turnover to make the deficit 19-16 entering the fourth quarter.

USC then took its first lead of the game, 23-19, as Bentley found Shi



Smith for a 53-yard scoring strike with 11:33 to play.

Michigan tried to answer and drove deep into South Carolina territory, but the scoring opportunity ended as Brandon Peters' pass was intercepted by JaMarcus King in the end zone. The Wolverines forced a punt following the turnover but Donovan Peoples-Jones fumbled and the Gamecocks recovered on U-M's 14-yard line. The defense held USC to a field goal to keep the deficit within one score, 26-19, with 3:47 to play.

U-M was unable to answer on the final two drives, turning the ball over on downs and throwing an interception.

Both teams' defenses exerted control from the outset but U-M benefited from a trio of USC miscues, converting three field goals from Nordin (35, 26, 45) during the opening 30 minutes into a 9-3 halftime advantage. South Carolina got on the board with 8:45 to play in the second quarter when Parker White connected from 44 yards out.

2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl

vs. Florida

Atlanta, Georgia
December 29, 2018
Attendance: 74,006

Florida	3	10	14	14-41
Michigan	7	3	0	5-15

The No. 10-ranked Gators ran for 257 yards to spoil No. 7-ranked Michigan's first-ever Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl game in a 41-15 final from Atlanta, Ga. It marked Florida's first victory against the Wolverines in five tries.

Trailing 10-6, Florida scored touchdowns on three of four possessions spanning the second and third quarters to claim a 27-10 lead.

Florida got on the board on its second drive of the game, utilizing a variety of quick passes to get inside the five-yard line before stalling and settling for a 21-yard field goal from Evan McPherson.

On the ensuing series, U-M drove 75 yards on nine plays to claim a 7-3 lead on a nine-yard strike from Shea Patterson to Donovan Peoples-Jones with 2:03 left in the first quarter. The big play came on a 41-yard catch by Nico Collins to Florida's 21 yard line.

Michigan once again held Florida to another field goal, a 26-yarder by McPherson at the start of the second quarter to cut the deficit to 7-6.

J'Marick Woods blocked a punt and Jordan Glasgow recovered the ball on UF's 30-yard line, leading to a Jake Moody 48-yard field goal and a 10-6 lead with 5:56 left in the half.

Florida answered and reclaimed a 13-10 lead thanks to the running of QB Felipe Franks. Franks led an eight-play, 75-yard drive, finishing with a 20-yard keeper for a margin they would take into halftime.

In the third quarter, Florida scored touchdowns on two of its three possessions to gain a 27-10 lead with 2:34 remaining in the stanza.

Michigan got back on the board with a 26-yard field goal from Moody with 12:16 left in regulation.

Florida delivered a dagger, however, on a third-and-20 when Lamical Perine broke through for a 53-yard touchdown for a 34-13 lead with 9:21 remaining.

Khaleke Hudson earned U-M's second blocked punt of the contest with the ball rolling out of the back of the end zone for a safety and a 34-15 score. U-M got the ball back but a deflected pass was returned for a touchdown by Chauncy Gardner-Johnson to cap the scoring.

Patterson completed 22-of-36 passes for 236 yards while Peoples-Jones and Collins led the receivers with eight and five catches, respectively.

2020 Vrbo Citrus Bowl

vs. Alabama

Orlando, Florida
January 1, 2020
Attendance: 59,746

#17 Michigan	10	6	0	0-16
#9 Alabama	7	7	7	14-35

The No. 17-ranked Wolverines built a 16-14 halftime lead at the Vrbo Citrus Bowl, but No. 9 Alabama scored 21 unanswered points in the second half to defeat the Wolverines, 35-16, at Camping World Stadium.

Michigan used a strong rushing attack in scoring on its final four possessions of the first half, getting a touchdown and three field goals to build its two-point halftime advantage. The Wolverines ran for 135 yards on 27 carries while accumulating 286 yards in the first half. However, the Wolverines managed just 27 yards on 16 rushes and gained 109 total yards in the second half.

Shea Patterson completed 17-of-37 passes for 233 yards and one TD and Zach Charbonnet rushed 13 times for 84 yards. Josh Metellus and Jordan Glasgow paced the defense with 11 and 10 tackles, respectively.

Alabama scored on its first play as Mac Jones hit Jerry Jeudy in stride on a deep ball for 85 yards and a 7-0 lead.

Michigan started to click on offense on its second series. Charbonnet ripped off runs of 12, 9 and 12 yards before Patterson found Donovan Peoples-Jones for 34 yards to the Alabama 18. An 11-yard rush from Hassan Haskins set up the tying score, as Patterson connected with Nick Eubanks for a seven-yard TD.

The Wolverines gashed the Tide with a few more double-digit rushing plays and some timely passes but two consecutive drives stalled inside Alabama territory and forced Nordin field goals. Nordin was perfect on a 36-yard field goal to make the score 10-7 late in the first quarter and connected from 42 yards out to increase the lead to 13-7 midway through the second quarter.

The Tide immediately regained the lead 14-13 with a scoring drive capped by Najee Harris' leap into the end zone with 3:32 to play in the second quarter.

Michigan went back on top 16-14 with another Nordin field goal as time expired in the half. Nordin made good on a 57-yard boot, setting a Citrus Bowl record and matching a school mark for longest field goal.

Alabama received the ball to start the second half and struck quickly to go up, 21-16. Jones found DeVonta Smith down the right side for a 42-yard passing play to the end zone.

After trading possessions, Alabama struck again as Jones completed a 20-yard TD pass to Miller Forristall. The play pushed the lead to 28-16 early in the fourth quarter and was setup by 14- and 58-yard receptions from Jeudy.

Alabama salted away the game with a 75-yard tuchdown drive that ended with only 0:26 left in the contest.

2021 Capital One Orange Bowl

vs. Georgia

Miami Gardens, Florida
December 31, 2021
Attendance: 59,746

#3 Georgia	14	13	0	7 - 34
#2 Michigan	0	3	0	8 - 11

Making its first College Football Playoff appearance and facing Georgia for the first time since 1965, Michigan fell behind early and could not solve the No. 3 Bulldogs' nation-leading defense in a 34-11 CFP semifinal loss in the Capital One Orange Bowl on New Year's Eve at Hard Rock Stadium.

The Bulldogs scored on their first five drives of the game, getting three touchdowns and two field goals to build a 27-3 lead at halftime.

J.J. McCarthy came on in relief of Cade McNamara and went 7-of-17 passing for 131 yards, including a 35-yard touchdown connection with Andrel Anthony. Erick All had four receptions for 63 yards, and Josh Ross led the defense with 11 tackles.

Georgia scored touchdowns on its first two possessions. Stetson Bennett completed a nine-yard pass play to Brock Bowers, and then the Bulldogs used a halfback pass from Kenny McIntosh to Adonai Mitchell for an 18-yard score. Jack Podlesny's 43-yard field on the third series made the score 17-0 with 12:26 left in the half.

Michigan got on the scoreboard with 7:19 left in the first half as Jake Moody booted a 36-yard field goal. The drive covered 57 yards in nine plays, with the biggest chunk coming on a 42-yard pass play from McNamara to Roman Wilson down the right sideline to Georgia's 19.

The Bulldogs closed out the half with two more scoring drives and took a 27-3 lead into the break.

In the second half, Michigan moved inside Georgia territory on all five possessions but was unable to crack through for any points until late in the contest. Its first possession ended with an end zone interception, the second with a fumble around midfield and the next two series with turnovers on downs on the Georgia side of the field.

The Bulldogs completed their scoring at 11:11 of the fourth quarter as Bennett found James Cook down the left sideline for 39 yards to cap a six-play, 59-yard drive. That provided the eventual national champions with a 34-3 lead.

After forcing a punt, the Wolverines finally found the end zone with 4:25 left in the game, as Anthony faked out his defender down the left sideline and ended up wide open to take in McCarthy's throw for a 35-yard TD. U-M successfully went for two, with Henning going in on an end around to bring the score to the final of 34-11.

Michigan finished the season with a 12-2 overall record, marking the third 12-win season in program history.

2022 Vrbo Fiesta Bowl

vs. TCU

Glendale, Arizona
December 31, 2022
Attendance: 71,723

#3 TCU	14	7	20	10 - 51
#2 Michigan	0	6	24	15 - 45

The No. 2-ranked Wolverines' magical season came to an end in the College Football Playoff Semifinal, falling 51-45 to Texas Christian in a topsy-turvy affair in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl at State Farm Stadium.

The two teams combined for 96 points and 1,012 yards, including a record-breaking 44 points in the third quarter alone. When all was said and done, Michigan (13-1) totaled 528 yards, including 342 through the air.

Two costly turnovers, one in each half, proved to be the ultimate stumbling blocks for the Wolverines. The Horned Frogs returned two interceptions for touchdowns, one in the first quarter and one in the third, and U-M was never able to recover.

Quarterback J.J. McCarthy completed 20-of-34 passes for 343 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions, while also adding 52 rushing yards and a touchdown on the ground. Tailback Donovan Edwards added 119 yards in the ground game, while Roman Wilson added 18 yards and a touchdown and Kalel Mullings punched in a touchdown as well.

Seven different receivers hauled in catches in the contest, with Ronnie Bell and Wilson both eclipsing the century mark. Bell caught six passes for 135 yards and a touchdown, and Wilson grabbed five passes for 104 yards and a score.

Kicker Jake Moody provided the first three scores for Michigan in the contest, knocking in a career-long and school-record 59-yard field goal to end the first half, setting a new high for the College Football Playoff as well.

Despite allowing a season-high 51 points, the defense forced three turnovers in the contest. Rod Moore tallied a game-high 12 tackles to go along with his fourth interception of the season, while Mike Sainristil hauled in a pick of his own to go along with seven total tackles. Mazi Smith forced and recovered a fumble while tallying three stops in the contest.

The Wolverines nearly pulled off the biggest comeback in the history of the College Football Playoff, erasing a 17-point first-half deficit thanks in part to a 24-point third quarter. Michigan had the ball and a chance to complete the comeback, trailing by six with just under a minute to play. However, the TCU (13-1) defense stood firm and U-M turned the ball over on downs to end its season and national title hopes.
